AROUND TOWN.

L. P. Albright was in Lincoln this week.
Dick Gray was in Blue Hill this week.
D. Schenck of Riverton was in the city this week.
H. B. Simons has taken the agency of the American Fire Insurance company.
The board of supervisors were in session this week.

Andy Hawley made THE CHIEF smile this week with a big dollar.

The crops are looking magnificent in Nebraska, and better than for many years.

Don't forget that the fair will positively be the best ever held in Webster county.

Attend the fair this year, if you never do again. It will be worth your while.

We are pleased to note that Nellie Fort, who has been quite sick is slowly recovering.

A portion of the M. E. church Sunday-school held a picnic in the Sleeper grove on Thursday.

Col. Gage, one of the most level headed politicians in the state, was a pleasant caller this week.

F. N. Merwin, editor of the Beaver Valley Tribune, published at Beaver City, Neb., was a pleasant caller this week.

Mrs. A. G. Willis is home from her two weeks' visit in Kearney to the delight of Mr. W. who had been wandering around as if lost.

Frank Potter, of the Argus, talks of going west on a big hunt. Frank has gained some little notoriety as a chicken hunter—especially at the table.

Melvin Putman, pastor of the Christian church, will arrive Saturday from the National Y. P. S. C. E. convention and will preach morning and evening at usual hours. You are invited.

Robert Anderson of Fulton county, Illinois, is visiting with his cousin, Mr. Phillip Barkley. Mr. Barkley has not seen his cousin for 20 years. Mr. Anderson owns a fine farm in Illinois.

J. H. Remsburg had the misfortune to lose his stock of drugs at Riverton by fire Tuesday night. The loss will be about $3,000, covered by an insurance of only $2,000. This will be a severe loss to him.

Mr. Newton Mahaffy had a dog that was supposed to be affected with the rabies, so he despatched it to the happy hunting grounds. The dog was known to have bitten several other canines so it will be well to look out for mad dogs.

The Webster county republican convention has been called for the 28th at 11 a. m., at Red Cloud. The caucuses should be held not later than the 26th. Republicans should turn out in force, and see to it that none but good men are selected to fill the county offices.

Our old friend O. C. Case, we are pleased to know, has opened a law office in the Moon block, and will hereafter dispense Blackstone in his usual manner. Mr. Case's numerous friends will be glad to know that he has again decided to practice law. THE CHIEF wishes him success.

Rev. E. L. Ely, pastor of the Congregational church, has arrived home from his pleasure trip to Helena, Montana. Mr. Ely reports a fine time and many pleasant experiences. We expect an interesting article next week from his trenchant pen in regard to his trip in and through the Rockies.

ODDS AND ENDS

Go to Calmes' for ice cream.
Charley Garber was in the city on Sunday.

H. B. Simons has been appointed a notary public.

Willie Baum has been on the sick list for the past week.

It is now "Dr. J. W. Warren, sah," instead of simple Joe.

Mrs. D. B. Spanogle arrived home from Denver this week.

D. Bedford returned Sunday from his trip to the Pacific coast.

Miss Maggie Campbell has arrived home after several weeks absence in Illinois.

Mrs. L. D. Denney, started for Denver, Tuesday evening, with a view to improving her health.

Mrs. L. D. Denney returned Monday from Blue Hill, where she has been visiting her father.

Our old friend D. L. Groat, called in this week and renewed for THE CHIEF to 1893. Thanks.

Mrs. Barnard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Perkins, and son Albert of Chicago, are visiting in the city.

Every testimonial regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla is an honest, unpurchased statement of what this medicine has actually done.

Young man do you want a practical education? If so, attend the Beatrice Business, Normal and Short-hand College. Send for catalogue. 51-4

Dr. McKeeby, went to Superior, Thursday to read a paper before a joint meeting of the State Line and Republican Valley Medical Societies.

Coroner Schenck having removed to Franklin county, his office became vacant and the Supervisors appointed Col. J. W. Warren, to fill the vacancy.

The Windy-pendants have no more hope of carrying Webster county this year than they have of flying. The facts are that this is a republican year and republicans are going to win.

Hon. W. E. Andrews' speech before the Webster county teachers' institute on Wednesday evening was a masterpiece of eloquence, and the gentleman made many friends in this county.

When it comes to choosing between bluster and common sense the people of the 5th district can be relied upon to vote for Mr. Andrews for congress.

We understand that a measure is on foot by the A. O. U. W. boys of this city to get up a big picnic for the members of the order in South-western Nebraska, to take place in Red Cloud, about August 1. By this method a big turnout could be secured, and the gathering would be of great benefit to the membership and the order generally.

Hon. W. E. Andrews, the next congressman from the 5th district was in Red Cloud this week. The gentleman creates a good impression wherever he goes and Red Cloud is no exception. This is a year for republicans, and with a good clean man we can sweep the field, and Mr. Andrews is the man. No republican need be ashamed of him, as he is a bold, fearless, clean leader.

A Point for You.

In view of what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others, is it not reasonable to suppose that it will be of benefit to you? For Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other diseases of the blood, for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Sick headaches, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, catarrh, malaria, rheumatism, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy.

Hood's Pills cure sick headaches.

State Convention Epworth League, Hastings, Neb., July 22-24, 1892. Agents in Nebraska may sell tickets to Hastings for this occasion on the certificate plan, July 18-24, inclusive. A. Tobie, corresponding secretary, will sign certificates. A. CONOVER, Ag't.

The Bloody Shirt.

For three or four years back the democrat have been pleading for a cessation of the ceremony known as waving the bloody shirt. If somebody mildly suggests that the republican party is not responsible for the public debt which it "will take as many bushels of wheat to pay now as at the close of the war." That somebody is admonished not to wave the bloody shirt. If somebody asks under his breath, why the Omaha convention of the Independents did not refer to pensions in their platform he is answered by a scowl and an exclamation "Bloody Shirt!" Now fair play is said to be a jewel. Recently an assemblage of exbrigadiers C. S. A., Assembled in Middleborough, Ky., and passed a set of resolutions the purport of which we gather from the answer which we copy,

GRAY GARLES, Buzzards Bay, Mass., July 7th, 1892.

J. W. CAMPBELL, Esq.,—My Dear Sir:—I desire to thank you for sending me a copy of the resolutions adopted by the Democrats of Middleborough. I do not wonder that those presenting the resolution speak of the force bill as a horror of republicanism. Such doctrines as it embodies are a direct attack upon the spirit and theory of our government and while such a measure especially menaces the welfare and prosperity of the South it must be condemned and denounced by all those everywhere who love their country and have the best claim to be numbered among those who believe in the principles of true democracy. Very truly yours,

GROVER CLEVELAND.

Ah, cheek sublime, Oh, trust supreme in the forgetfulness of the people. The man whose pulses never quickened during the bloody conflict which made this country free indeed. The man who when compelled by the fear of conscription to go through the motions of doing something in the struggle, sent a pardoned criminal to represent him on the battle field. The man who poses as the lover and defender of so many of the down-trodden and oppressed as happen to have votes, writes to men who object to having their methods of conducting elections subject to the vulgar inspection of an officer of the law, and says in effect, that republicans do not love their country. From such a man to such men this is a terrible indictment. No honest elector ever fears the presence at the polls of an officer. On the other hand no wreath are felt the halter draw with good opinion of the law. They say to us "As long as we are the under dog don't wave that old shirt when we get on top the old grudge stands."

It is a fixed and immutable law that to have good sound health one must have pure rich and abundant blood. There is no shorter nor surer route than by a course of DeWitt's Sarsaparilla.
