IN A FERMENT.

The State of Tennessee at Fever Heat Over the Mining Troubles-Bolls Ring Out the Riot Call at Knoxville-Chattauooga Greatly Excited-Troops Hurried to the Scene of Trouble-The Bloters Capture Gen. Anderson.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.-Yesterday afternoon the courthouse bell rang the riot call, and since then the city has been one huge, palpitating nerve. The excitement is intense and beyond doseription.

At 2 o'clock the wires were cut at Coal Creek and the people know that the last step was about to be taken. Shortly thereafter a bulletin was received that an attack had been made upon Camp Anderson, and from news now obtainable the attack must have been a feeler. as no casualities were reported. In a short time another attack was made and then a third. In the last Gatling guns were brought to bear upon the miners with deadly offect. Many wore killed and wounded.

At 6 o'clock last evening the alarming news was brought in that Gen. Anderson had been captured and was being held as a prisoner, with a guard to prevent a hot-headed faction hanging him.

At 4:80 yesterday afternoon the posse summoned by Sheriff Holliway was armed with Winchester rifles. It numbered eighty-five men, among them some of the most prominent business and professional men of the city, and was commanded by Maj. D. A. Carpenter, a grizzled veteran of the late war and a hard and desperate fighter. This posse was joined by the militia, under command of Col. Woolford, numbering probably 100 men. The party was placed on board a train and immediately left for the scene of the troublo.

They were met by a number of citizens of Knoxville, Clinton and Coal Creek, who urged the absoluto madness of going forward without reinforcements. A thousand armed miners, they said, were drawn up ready to fire on them as they alighted from the train and dynamite was everwhere.

Maj. Carpenter heard them through and then turning to his men said: "Boys, I guess we will go on," and they went.

At Clinton the sounds of battle were plainly heard. The possible fate of the Knoxville troops caused the greatest anxiety and thousands of angry, excited men lined the streets and cursed Buchanan for his weakness and the miners for their madness.

At 10 p. m. a reporter who had been under arrest by the miners and had just escaped says that the fighting began at 3 o'clock and continued without cessation until 6 o'clock. During the fight two or three of the leaders of the miners were captured by Gen Anderson's troops

The leader of the mob is the notorious Budd Lindsay, brother of the United States attorney for that district, who has murdered eight or ten in his time. Lindsay put a pistol to Anderson's head and told him he must order his men to surrender or he would shoot. Gen. Anderson answered by a defiant wave of the hand and a firm, "Shoot and be " adding that he would never tell his men to surrender. He was then

Nancy Hanks is Now Queen of the Turf-She Lowers the Record of Maud 5 at

Chicago - A Mile Trotted in 2:07 1-4. CHICAGO, Aug. 18 -- Maud S. is no longer oncen of the trotting turf. The proud position which the daughter of

THE RECORD LOWERED.

Harold has held so long has been wrestled from her, and Nancy Hanks reigns in her stead. Yesterday afternoon at Washington park, in the presence of 10,000 spectators, Eudd Doble drove his beautiful mare to beat her record of 2:09. She not only beat her own record, but lowered the world's trotting record from 2:5%, the time of Maud S., to 8:07 %.

It was about 3 o'clock when Nancy first came up the track. She passed the grand stand while other horses were scoring and received but little recognition. An hour later she was out and went portions of the track at a 2:20 elip.

Doble walked her slowly to the head of the lower turn and then came back to the wire at a gontle pace. After waiting ,a few moments until a drag which had gone around the track close to the pole had left the track Doble drove her back to the sixteenth pole and then came down at a smashing gate. Frank Starr behind the pacemaker, Abe Lincoln, was waiting for him. Starter Walker leaned far over the railing of the judges' stand, his eyes on Doble's face, watching to see if he wanted the word. Just as the mare shot beneath the wire Doble shook his head. Mr. Walker drew back and Abe pulled up to await a second trial.

Back to the distance flag this time and at a gentle trot which increased rapidly as she drew near the wire, a nod from Doble, and "go" flashed from Walker's lips as the mare shot like an arrow toward the turn. There was work for Abe Lincoln now and for the first sixteenth of a mile he lost ground steadily. Then Starr urged him on and he was on Nancy's wheel at the quarter. There was not a sound in the densely packed grand stand as the mare flew past the quarter pole in :315-a 2:06 guit.

As she started along the back stretch, trotting as true as a die, head well up. her feet stricing the ground with the regularity of a pendulum, the crowd began to murmer "She'd never do it; never in the world," but the old timera outlined Doble's gray jacket again-t the picket fence beyond him as he passed them so rapidly that they seemed to be going backward, they held their breath and said nothing. They knew that the record was going. As the more, still keeping up her beautiful gait, wont i y the half mile pole in 1:05%, a may in front of the grand stand called, "1:01 at the half," and a mighty yell wont up from the crowd.

The loud cheers which went up told Doble even before he had slowed up that the record was broken, and as he came back to the judges' stand his face was covered with a smile as wide as White had been engaged in hauling the visor of his cap. He had said that gravel from the pit and many men were Nancy Hanks would beat the record engaged in blasting the roadway three and she had done it.

"Three cheers for Nancy Hanks!" shouted Starter Walker, and they came from 10,000 throats with wild enthusiasm. "Now three cheers for the man who drove her!" and again the air shivered, and hats, coats, handkerchiefs and about everything else that could be thrown upward were sent in that direction. It was fully ten minutes be- stopping, the switch was open and the

Mr. Arnold Morley, postmuster-general.

Mr. Arthur Herbert Dyke Aceland, vice-president of the council of education.

Baron Houghton, viceroy of Ireland without a seat in the cabinet.

RADICALS DISAPPOINTED. Losnos, Aug. 17.-The composition of the new government is the cause of intense disappointment among the radicals. Not a single man, except John Morley, prominently identified with the radicals, has been appointed a cabinet minister, and among the ex-cabinet posts few members of the set have any but the remotest chance of getting a piace. The old set are masters of the situation. Representatives of old whig families and liberal mediocritics having aristocratic connections and never associated with extreme views, have been Mr. Gladstone's exclusive choice. Apart from radical opinion, the cabinet is really composed of quinently reputable men.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT. A Gravel Train Runs Inte an Open Switch Many Inb overs Killed and Isjured. Coshocron, O., Aug. 17.-A construction train on the Toledo, Hocking Valley & Ohio railroad in pharge of Conductor Humphrey and Engineer Clyde miles north. Last night, after the last train had been unloaded, the boarded the cars which men were being pushed ahead of the engine to go to their boarding camp a few hundred yards south of the gravel pit. The train was running at a hazardous speed. When it arrived at the gravel pit, which was to be passed without ain entered the siding with some empty cars. The greater number of the workmen were seated on the first and second cars, The last quarter was trotted in 30% Land when the long train turned in upon the spur had no opportunity to jump. Ten of the cars were piled in a mass of debris and beneath this the poor mortals were crushed. It required two hours to extricate them. The dead were: Frank Galli, an Italian, aged 44, head crushed; William Rafferty, aged 50, head crushed; John Barry, of Newburg, aged 50, head crushed; Joseph Bycoft, of Burlington, Vt., aged 38, throat torn and body crushed; John Halliger, head crushed and disemboweled, aged 50; About twenty others were seriously injured.

FINE WRITING.

Any Kind. siany letters are begun with a phase which is not written, but is spoken or thought, "What shall I say?" And this is especially the case when the letter is to be one of congratulation, or thanks, or condolence, or has reference to somewhat exceptional circumstances. The writer is not satisfied with saying in simple, perhaps commonplace, words what he feels-just as he would speak

He feels vaguely that the occasion requires something unusual, that what he writes must read well, and that he ought to be able to think of some emphatic and eloquent phrases in which to express his sentiments. But if he will think of the letters he has received

The sentences may have been abrupt, and they may have wandered from one subject to another, and back again, and not sounded at all like the letters written by heroes and heroines of stories and they may have ended suddenly without a graceful closing paragraph, but they were genuine and characteristic

Their awkwardness was nothing, since their sincerity was so evident, a sincerity that might have been entirely disguised under labored, bookish, "fine writing."

sational developments were aflost. The sheriff was busily engaged with a large number of deputies summoning prominent citizens to report for duty as a special posse.

There was an immense meeting at the court house at noon and the general commanding the militia made an address. Volunteers came thick and 500 could quickly have been secured, but there were guns for only 130. Col. R. L. Watkins, a prominent and wealthy citizen, was placed in command and the posse marched to a hardware house where 150 men were given Winchester rifles and 100 rounds of ammunition. The posse then entered the militia and the entire company left on a train for the scene of the trouble.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.-The Knoxville Iron Co., lessees of the branch penitentiary at Coal Creek, have given the governor twenty days' notice that they will give up the lease and turn the convicts over to the state authorities. This decision, if laid before the miners, would probably put an end to the whole trouble.

The New York Strike.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 19. - The sixth day of the switchmen's strike in this city closed with increasing complications. The leaders of the strike have witnessed the movement and massing of troops with growing detormination in view the war department is taking to meet every advance of their opponents with a counter stroka.

The leaders of the striking mon said that all the Vanderbilt roads are tied up and inactive at this point. In addition, that the Erie, the Lehigh Valley and the Buffalo Creek roads are like wise paralyzed by the strike. They feel that the movement against the roads has now reached such magnitude in this locality that it may not be necessary for any men in allied trades to be called out at this point. The strikers' reserve is a possible calling out of the switchmen on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western; Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh, and the Western New York & Pennsylvania roads.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 10 -Two supposed small-pox patients confined in a tent near the city attacked one of their three guards while the others were asleep last night, beat him insensible and escaped. The men were taken ill while confined in the county jail on three charges of burglary, and were manacled together. GRAVE APPREHENSIONS.

Washington Authorities Think Seriously of the Labor Troubles.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 .- The present state of affairs in the labor world may curtail the summer plans of cabinet officers if it does not change those of the president himself. While everything is screne on the surface, in army circles there is an underlying current John Flynn, aged 25, back broken. that is seriously disturbed. In a word, the opinion prevails that the coming September, if not the present month, may be a magnified reproduction of September, 1877.

It is pretty well known that the president holds very decided opinions on the subject of mobs. He was very quick to interfere in the recent mining riot at Wallace, Idaho, and his action in the cattlemen's troubles in Wyoming in May was likowise emphatic. The most conservative army men here believe that the multitude of strikes now in progress in the country, coupled with the unusual discontent prevalent among the working classes, is surely leading to conditions with which the authorities of the states wherein trouble is apt to occur will find themselves unable to cope. With this idea quiet steps to ascertain the precise condition of the troops garrisoned in the east and middle west and the sentiment of the enlisted men is also being deftly sounded.

While the authorities deplore the necessity, should it arise, of sending United States troops into a state to put down any uprising, they expect it to come and are preparing themselves accordingly. Politicians scoff at any sug-gestion of this sort, and say that it would be suicide in the president to cherish any such ideas on the evo of the election, but that such a possibility is being seriously contomplated is beyond peradventure.

an Attempted Bobbery of a Train in Colorado Defeated By a Cowboy.

GREELEY, Col., Aug. 17 .-- Last night as the Donver and Cheyenne passenger train on the Union Pacific stopped at the coal chute at LaSalle, two masked men entered one of the cars and with loaded revolvers ordered the passengers to hold up their hands.

Hands in profusion went up instantly and the fellows were on the point of collecting toll from the astonished passengers, when one of the latter opened fire on the robbers. The robbers returned the fire, one of them getting hit. They both then jumped from the car and fled.

LaSalle is the junction of the Union Pacific short line and the Colorado Central, is six miles so the of Greeley and all trains stop there for water and coal. As near as could be ascertained the man on the train who opened fire on the robbers is a member of the Wild West show that has been exhibiting at Denver the past two weeks, and with the show was going to Kausas City.

Several shots were fired through one end of the car by the cowboy in his attack on the robbers.

Sheriff Arthur is organizing a posse to pursue the fellows and it is expected no difficulty will be experienced in capturing them, as one of them is supposed to be wounded.
