There ought to be made a special tap for the street sprinkler on the water main. Every few days the mains break, and it is the opinion of many that it is the strain on them from the sudden opening and closing of the hydrants.

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails why then—keep right on trying, and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try, again."

The following editors called at these headquarters on Thursday: Mr. Stine, of the Superior Journal; H. M. Crane, of the Bloomington Argus; Henry Ludlow of the Campbell Press; C. W. Daggett, of the Riverton Guard; and F. P. Shields, of the Blue Hill Leader.

The other day at Republican City, the passenger train, arrived and departed as usual, but as it pulled out coming east, it scared the Omnibus team, and when a half mile from the depot the team and bus collided, killing the team and injuring the bus and tearing the steps off of the sleeper. It was a close call all around but no one was injured.

It has been stated by Mr. McKeighan that F. P. Shields, of the Blue Hill Leader, offered to sell out to him for $250. This Mr. Shields positively denies and defies Mr. McKeighan both from the stand and otherwise to show the telegram or anything signed by him wherein he offered to sell out for sum of money. Mr. McKeighan should put up or forever hold his peace.

The city council should pass an ordinance, if there is not one now in force, prohibiting steam engines from passing through Webster street or 4th Avenue. It is positively dangerous to life and limb, and especially hazardous if there should be any teams frightened thereby. We do not wish to bar any one from using the public thoroughfares, but then all care should be taken to prevent accidents to our citizens and if traction engines are allowed to perambulate our main streets, without regard to the safety of our citizens, then one must prepare for numberless accidents which are sure to follow such demonstrations.
