$15,000 TO LOAN TO WORTHY STUDENTS.

GRAND ISLAND
Business College

No money required to receive an education at this college. The only conditions of admission are a good moral character and an ambition to secure an education. This college has not as yet failed to be loaned during the present year to young people who wish to attend our school, but have not the ready funds. All the time needed will be given in which to pay the loan; and a student can take a full course to graduation without a dollar to begin with.

IT IS BETTER TO PAY AS YOU GO; but if this is impossible you cannot afford to start in life without an education when you have an opportunity like this. Ten states represented in the attendance and fifty graduates last year. Board in private family $2.00 per week.

We teach the Electric Short-Hand which can be learned in less time than other systems. After you have read the circulars of all other schools, send for our catalogue and we will leave it to your judgment which school in the west ranks first in standing. Address,

"COWARDS AND DESERTERS"

The Names Northern Democrats Apply to Union Soldiers When They Talk Their Real Sentiments.

The following extract from the Raleigh News and Observer of Sept. 16 is an account of a speech delivered in that city by ex-Congressman J. H. Murphy, of Iowa, Sept. 15. It seems from this that the northern Democrats fully agreed with their southern associates in hating Union soldiers, and don't hesitate to say so when they think they are out of hearing of the old soldiers themselves:

"The speaker next called attention to the infamous pension system. It now amounts to $150,000,000 per annum. In a few years more at the present rate of increase it will reach the limit of our revenue. It was a shame that we should have to put our hands in our pockets to pay pensions to a lot of cowards, deserters and bounty jumpers."

J. H. Murphy was a member of the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth congresses from the Davenport (Ia.) district, a native of Massachusetts, and posed in his candidacies and while in congress as a friend of the soldier. This is the way he talks when he thinks he is alone with the southerners and is privileged to express his real sentiments.

Mr. Cleveland's letter as a round whole is as impermeable and elastic as caoutchouc.—New York Sun.

A COMPLETE REVERSAL.

Cleveland's Election Means Control of House, Senate and Presidency.

Chairman Carter has presented the situation in plain, unvarnished language. In a conversation at the Fifth Avenue hotel in New York he said:

The people of this country are called upon to say whether they desire to substitute the policy of free trade for the policy of protection; to substitute the wildest state banking system for the present reliable currency; to abandon the shipping policy and the trade treaties known as reciprocity. There should be no doubt about the result. This is not a free trade country. The people do not favor wildcat currency. They are in favor of reciprocity. They desire the merchant marine of the United States re-established, and are opposed to free trade and bad money and the reactionary policy of the Democratic party.

The common sense of the people stands as a bulwark opposed to any policy which by any possibility may result in hurrying the nation down from its present prosperous condition into commercial chaos, industrial distress and financial ruin.

I think the people understand that both branches of congress would necessarily be Democratic in the event of President Harrison's defeat. We cannot lose the presidency and save either the senate or the house.

We are therefore confronted with what must seem to the ordinary citizen as an appalling proposition—to promptly and absolutely revise the policies under which our present prosperous condition has been brought into existence.

Republican Tariff Good for Silver Miners.

Governor Prince, of the territory of New Mexico, in his annual report to the secretary of the interior says: "Mining has had its ups and downs during the year, but at present it is flourishing, and now that cheap Mexican labor has been got out of the way the miners receive fair American compensation for their work." The report adds: "It would be hard to imagine a case in which the present tariff has been of such immediate and obvious benefit as that upon silver and lead ores."

Democratic success next month means that for the first time since 1861 the Democrats will control house, senate and presidency and be able to reverse the tariff system under which our splendid prosperity has been built up. You will be responsible for this reversal if you do not vote for Harrison and see that your neighbors do so.

Vote the Republican ticket.

GEMS FROM GROVER.

Some Extracts from President Cleveland's Pension Veto.

It is sad but true that in procuring pensions there exists a widespread disregard of truth and good faith; the race after these pensions would stimulate weakness and pretended incapacity and put a premium on dishonesty and mendacity.—Veto of Dependent Pension Bill.

The number of instances in which those of our soldiers who rode horses during the war were injured by being thrown forward upon their saddles would indicate that these saddles were very dangerous contrivances.—Veto of Alfred Denny Pension Bill.

Her pension is asked for entirely because of her needs and the faithful service of her husband and her own. This presents the question whether a gift in such a case is a proper disposition of money appropriated for pensions.—Veto of Sally Ann Bradley Bill.

The soldiers of our civil war, in their pay and bounty, received such compensation for military service as has never been received by soldiers before since mankind went to war. The really worthy have been provided for at soldiers' homes.—Veto of Dependent Pension Bill.

Though twelve neighbors of the pensioner testified that he was free from neuralgia and disease of the eyes before enlistment I am of the opinion that the evidence against the pension was quite satisfactory.—Veto of Bill Pensioning H. L. Kyler.

Every relaxation of principle in the granting of pensions invites applications of pensions without merit and encourages those who for gain urge themselves to become dishonest.—Veto of Elizabeth S. De Kraft Bill.

This officer was undoubtedly brave and efficient, rendering his country valuable service, but it does not appear to have been of so distinguished a character, nor are the circumstances of his widow such as to render a grant justifiable.—Veto of Bill Pensioning Widow of Commodore Marchand.

I believe that if the veterans of the war know all that is going on in the way of granting pensions by private bills they would be more disgusted than any class of citizens.—Veto of June 23, 1892.

I cannot spell out any principle upon which the bounty of the government should be bestowed through the instrumentality of the flood of pension bills that reach me. The theory seems to have been adopted that no man who served in the army can be the subject of death or impaired health, except they are chargeable to his service.—Veto of M. A. Daugherty Bill.

Whatever else may be said of this claimant's achievements during his short military career, it must be conceded that he accumulated a great deal of disability.—Veto of Wilson Pension Bill.

DEMOCRATS LIKE IT.

They Commend the Paper Which Calls Union Soldiers Murderers and Thieves.

Hundreds of Democrats are the most able in the state, including generals, colonels, captains and privates in the Confederate army, and whose names we have permission to use, have complimented and congratulated the editor of The Globe on his utterances concerning the "incompetent, corrupt, disgraceful and dishonest" administration of the pension office under Republican rule. Nor was this all. They have told us that when we charged that the heavy, dirty, sneaking, disreputable and despicable scoundrels who have fastened themselves upon the pension rolls of this country were murderers, thieves, bandits and libertines that we told the solid, honest truth.

And when we said that there were half as many thieves and such who raped and plundered the south on the pension rolls today as there were in the penitentiaries of a dozen states we only told the truth.—Durham (N. C.) Globe.
