Obituary.

KERCHEVAL - On Tuesday morning, Nov. 8th, 1892, at afteen minutes past three o'clock occured the death of Mary Elberta Kercheval 18.573 75 at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Browster, in this city. She 1,307 56 came with her father, J. W. Kercheval from Blue Hill, Nebrasks, some three or four weeks ago intending to spend the winter here and enter the university. Her father left her strong and well when he went on east for a short visit. When he returned to Mt. Pleasant he found her not feeling quite herself, although nothing serious was thought of at the time; but they day he left for his home in Nebraska, alarming symptoms were developed and in one short week the disease, typhoid pneumonia, had run its course, and the form was still,

"Bertie" as she was familiarly called, was but sixteen years of age, a bright attractive girl, just at the time the Hon. F. B. Beall, Judge of the Disof life when the world seems all sunchine.

About two years ago she came to Mt Pleasant to visit her grand parents, and during a revival meeting that was then in progress, she became converted and united with the M. E Church. Her life has been one of a beautiful, cheerful, Christian character.

The funeral services were held at the Asbury M. R. church on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. W. G. Thorn speaking words of comfort to the bereaved parents.-Free Press, (Mt. Pleasant, lowa.)

Catarrb, Not Local, But Com stitutional.

Dr. Dio Lewis, the eminent Boston physician, in a magazine article says: "A radical error underlies nearly all medical treatment of eatarrh. It is not a disease of the man's nose; it is a disease of the man, showing itself in the nose-a local exhibition of a constitutional trouble." Therefore, he argues, the use of snuff and other local applications is wrong, and while they seem to give temperary relief. they really do more harm than good. Other leading authorities agree with Dr. Lewis. Hence, the only popular method of oure for estarth is by ing a constitutional remedy likeHood's Sarsaparilla, which reaching every does eliminate all impurities and makes the whole man healthier. It removes the cause of the trouble and restores the disease membrane to proper condition. That is the practical result is proven by thousands of people who have been sured of caterrh by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla,
