THE CHIEF

Friday, Nov. 18 1899

Every state officer on the republican ticket was elected.

The Omaha Daily Public an independent paper has gone to the wall, and still there's more to follow.

Nebraska will increase her population by immigration more than fifty per cent during the next two years.

It has been rumored that Friz Richardson, Capt. Houchin, and many lesser lights are aspirants for the Red Cloud post-office.

Every Republican should gird on his armor and stand firm in the faith. A defeat is only temporary but the good work of the republican party is not dead and will never die.

An effort is being put forward since the election, by the democrats, to officer the National alliance, and otherwise capture that institution claiming that it is a democratic adjunct.

There are a great many reforms that the next legislature should look after, and one of those reforms should be to simplify the Australian ballot system. It is cumbersome in many respects.

Corn shucking is all the rage but huskers are scarce, and in many instances can not be secured for love or money, yet a political party said before election that there were a million tramps in the country.

All ready our politicians are trying to surmise who will be the next postmaster of Red Cloud. A great many of our people would prefer Sam Temple, and as far as this paper is concerned we should like to see him appointed.

The democrats are very joyful at present, but in a few weeks people will be clamoring for that party to put into execution some of the reforms that they have been howling about and when they fail as they surely will, then hear them roar.

After January 1, 1893, the Adams Express Company will succeed the Wells-Fargo Express on the Burlington Route. This change will be hailed with satisfaction at least if the new company will reduce the outrageous prices which have made the Fargo Company wealthy.

The republicans of Nebraska and Kansas are certainly to be congratulated on the turn of the tide. Two years ago both states were overwhelmingly independent, and by a scratch are independent yet as far as the legislature is concerned, but in each the republicans have reduced the majorities from ten to fifty thousand.

It will be worth the while of every one of our readers to notice the report of the Farmers & Merchants Banking Company, in another place in to-day's CHIEF. It is a matter of congratulation to see that our business men and farmers are reaping the results of a bounteous crop and a profitable business as the bank's business plainly shows, there being something like $112,000 deposits on hand. It is a source of gratification to our people to see the volume of business increasing as it is an evidence of returning prosperity.

25 corn huskers wanted. Can use men with or without teams. HENRY C. CUTLER, Red Cloud, Neb.

We find a good program for Thanksgiving exercises given in the North Western Journal of Education for November.

Program for Thanksgiving Day.

RED CLOUD, NEBR., Nov. 17, 1899.

Teachers:—It is in line with educational progress and the teaching of patriotism that Thanksgiving Day be recognized by the schools. On Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 23d, the following program could be used by every school. The program is copied from the North Western Journal of Education for November. Let us teach the children to be thankful to Him "from whom all blessings flow."

[This program is taken from a very complete program found in "Special Day Exercises," by H. R. Pattengill, Lansing, Mich. This is a pamphlet containing numerous exercises.]

The schools should not fail to observe this day in this Columbian year. If possible have something for every child. The exercises should be held in the school house on the afternoon preceding Thanksgiving. The room should be decorated with autumn leaves, evergreens, red berries, etc. Clusters of red, white, and yellow corn may be tastily arranged; also bunches of wheat, oats, grass, sunflowers, pumpkins, turnips, beets, etc. A flag should be draped across the wall above the teacher's desk. If there are any poor people in the neighborhood or town, suggest to the children that each one bring an apple, potato, turnip, loaf of bread, pie, some article of clothing not outworn. These may be distributed under direction of teacher.

PROGRAM.

1. Song—"America" by the school.

2. President's proclamation read.

3. Governor's proclamation read.

4. Invocation and responses:

Teacher: Let us remember amid all our many blessings to be thankful to the good Father of all mercies who has spared us to enjoy another Thanksgiving festival.

Pupils: Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him and bless His name.

Teacher: The year past has been one whose blessings far outnumbered its ills. We should remember to-day its many comforts and forget its few trials. First with devout and earnest hearts we should give praise to the Giver of every perfect gift.

PUPILS: O, give thanks unto the Lord for He is good: for his mercy endureth forever.

5. "Harvest hymn,"—J. G. Whittier.

7. Recitation—"We Thank Thee." First Pupil: For gainful hours of pain and loss, For strength that grew beneath the cross, For gold refined and freed from dross, We thank thee, Lord.

Second Pupil: For cheerful ease and calm content, For hours in gentle gladness spent, So sweet they ask not how they went, We thank thee, Lord.

Third Pupil: And, O! for mercies numberless— For succor in our soul's distress, In perils we but dimly guess, We thank thee, Lord.

All: We have no words and little wit To frame such words as may befit Thy grace, and yet, thou knowest it, We thank thee, Lord.

8. Song—"Beulah Land." Gospel Hymns, page 305.

9. Poetic Responses.

Let twelve girls, representing the months, ask the questions of twelve boys.

Girls: Have you cut the wheat in the blowing field, The barley, the oats, and the rye? The golden corn and the peasy rye? For the winter days are nigh?

Boys: We have reaped them all from shore to shore, And the grain is safe on the thrashing floor.

Girls: Have you gathered the berries from the vines, And the fruit from the orchard trees?

Boys: The dew and the scent from the rose and the thyme, Is the hive of the honey bees?

Girls: The peach and the plum and the apple are ours, And the honey comb from the beehive's flowers.

Boys: The wealth of the snowy cotton fields, And the gift of the sugar cane,

CHICAGO CLOTHING STORE.

OPPOSITE POST OFFICE.

TRACHER: Next with hearts overflowing with gratitude, remember the parents and friends, whose devotion and earnest labors for us, whose love and cheer have united us. PUPILS: We live for those who love us, For those who know us true, For the heaven that shines above us And awaits our spirits, too; For the cause that looks assistance, For the wrong that needs resistance, For the future in that distance, And the good that we can do. ESSAY—"Why is Thanksgiving Day Observed." 6. "Harvest hymn,"—J. G. Whittier. 7. Recitation—"We Thank Thee." First Pupil: For gainful hours of pain and loss, For strength that grew beneath the cross, For gold refined and freed from dross, We thank thee, Lord. Second Pupil: For cheerful ease and calm content, For hours in gentle gladness spent, So sweet they ask not how they went, We thank thee, Lord. Third Pupil: And, O! for mercies numberless— For succor in our soul's distress, In perils we but dimly guess, We thank thee, Lord. All: We have no words and little wit To frame such words as may befit Thy grace, and yet, thou knowest it, We thank thee, Lord. 8. Song—"Beulah Land." Gospel Hymns, page 305. 9. Poetic Responses. Girls: The peach and the plum and the apple are ours, And the honey comb from the beehive's flowers. Boys: The wealth of the snowy cotton fields, And the gift of the sugar cane,

The savory herb and the nourishing root; There has been nothing given in vain! Boys: We have gathered the harvest from shore to shore And the measure is full and running o'er. Girls and Boys: Then lift up the hand with song! And lift up the hand with a gift! To the ancient Giver of old The spirit in gratitude lift! For the joy and the promise of spring For the hay and the clover sweet, The barley, the rye, and the oats, The rice, and the corn, and the wheat The cotton, and sugar, and fruit, The flower and the fine honey comb, The country, so fair and so free, The blessing and glory of home. The School: Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving! Thanks giving! Joyfully, gratefully call to God, To God, the "Preserver of men," The bountiful Father of all. 10. Address by the teacher or some patron. Additional poems for recitations may be found from the poems of Longfellow and others and from readers.
