One of the grand musical treats our citizens have ever been permitted to enjoy. A spicy program of vocal and instrumental music, selected from the best authors, has been arranged by our brass band boys, to be rendered at the opera house in the near future. Watch for the date and do not fail to attend, lest the golden opportunity of a life-time be lost from hearing the greatest musical effort ever undertaken by home talent.
THE CHIEF would like to have 500 new subscribers. It shall be our endeavor to print the best republican paper in the county, but aside from politics we propose to make it the best and newsiest country paper in the county. Trial subscriptions, 25 cents for three months. We shall have continued stories, short stories, Talmadge's sermons, news of the week, besides the county and local news. Subscribe now. We want a good correspondent in every township in Webster county. Will some person, male or female, send in the neighborhood news every week. We will send THE CHIEF, and furnish material to write upon to any person who will send us in the news regularly. We should like to have the news from every school district.
P. W. Shea, the genial democratic ex-candidate for state senator from this district was defeated, but considering the fact that a report that he had withdrawn from the race had gained currency throughout the district, his vote was phenomenally large. Shea is composed of the right stuff to be a winner, and we hope will be given another trial by the party at some future time.—Superior Times.
