SENATOR KYLE thus accounts for the small populist vote in South Dakota: "The day before the election a blizzard set in, with the wheat standing in shocks in fields all over the state. As a result hundreds of populists did not go to the polls, but worked steadily throughout the day in their effort to get the crop threshed and out of the way of the weather. Those who worked in the field were populists."

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER is having a massive oaken case, similar to a book case, put into his stable. It has doors of polished oak, with brass hinges and heavy plate glass. NATUANIEL & BARRY, of Bristol, N. H., is the oldest living ex-governor in the United States. If he survives until September 1, 1896, he will be a cen-tenarian. He was a boy of very humble parentage, became a tanner, as Gen. Grant did, and in 1861 was elected governor of New Hampshire. He is still a man of considerable physical and of unusual mental vigor, partly, he thinks, for the reason that he has not touched tobacco for thirty years nor spirituous liquors for more than sixty.

THE late election was considered remarksbly quiet; nevertheless some thirty murders were reported. It seems that nothing can be done in the United States without murder. It will be a good thing when the blunt criticism of me foreigner stings us into a sense of shame at occupying the position of the most bloodthirsty nation on earth. With over seven thousand murders reported in the census year comes the re-section that we are losing more life by murder than other countries lose by

Miscellaneous

Ox his return home Minister Egan was given an enthusiastic reception at Lincoln by his friends. Ar the late election Douglas county east nearly 25,000 votes. Lancaster county cast about 15,000. THE "unterrified" jollified at Omaha over the election of Cleveland, and, according to the Bee, "kicked up an infernal racket." APPLICATION was made in the supreme court for a writ of mandamus to compel the clerk of Clay county to issue certificates to the republican candidates for the legislature on the grounds that the independent candidates, who received a majority of the votes, had been indorsed by the democrats, and in printing the official ballots the names of the independent candidates had been placed on the ticket twice. At the same time another contest from Knox county was started which, if successful, will unseat an independent representative and seat a republican. If these changes are made the legislature will be tied on joint ballot. Gov. Boyn has commuted the sentence of John and Virgil Reddick from imprisonment in the state penitentiary for one year to imprisonment for seven months and fifteen days. The boys were placed in the penitentiary on the 15th of May last and were sent up from one of the counties in the northwestern part of the state for stealing a quantity of wheat from their employer. It seems that the boys had some difficulty in collecting their pay from him and they took the wheat and sold it in order to get even. Their mother is a widow and in destitute circumstances. She wrote a very affecting letter to the governor, and the judge and prosecuting attorney in the case united in seconding her appeal for elemency. JUDGE JOSEPH B. CLARKSON, whose body was supposed to be resting at the bottom of Honey Creek lake, Ia., arrived in Omaha the other day the picture of health. His story of his wanderings reads like a romance. He says that to all intents and purposes his mind has been a blank for the past three months. While at the lake he was seized with an irresistible desire to tramp over the country. When he went to the lake he took a second suit of clothing, and, leaving his old clothing and all his valnables in a boat to throw his friends off the scent, he disappeared. During his wanderings he knew who he was, but concenled his identity, and refrained from writing home. The day before his return proofs of his death were sent to the insurance company.

Good luck was too much of a surprise for Charles F. Ruggles, a laborer on the new bridge at East Omaha, and he dropped dead from joy during a game of cards the other night. A number of laboring men were sitting in a quiet game in the boarding house office on the island, and nearly everyone had put up his pile. Ruggles staked his last cent. He held three aces, and on the last round drew the fourth. One glance at the hand was enough. Without a word he fell over onto the floor

A LIVELY snow storm prevailed in parts of the state on the night of the

NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE.

The Democrats and Populists Have a Ma-

Jority in Both Branches. The republicans have elected 16 senators and forty-eight representatives, the democrats 4 senators and 11 representatives, and the populists 13 senators and 41 representatives. The fol-lowing is the result by districts:

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 18.-Abraham

Hass, of Montreal, has begun suit here to recover 160 acres of land in the northern part of the city, partly platted, and 26 lots in the center of the city, the whole worth about a quarter of a million dollars. Haas came here in 1857 and bought the property. When he left he placed his business in charge of his brother, who paid the taxes till 1872, when, supposing Abraham had been drowned in the St. Lawrence river, he secured title to the land as the nearest heir. He has since sold it. A firm of attorneys has taken the case and expects to establish Haas' title.

Both Had Eczema

In Its Worst Form After Physicians Failed, Hood's

Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured. Great mental agony is endured by parents who see their children suffering from diseases caused by impure blood, and for which there seems no cure. This is turned to joy when Hood's Sarsaparilla is resorted to, for it expels the foul humors from the blood, and restores the diseased skin to fresh, healthy brightness. Read the following from grateful parents:
