+The Most Abundant Crops+

A WATCH BOW (RING) THAT WON'T PULL OFF! In the History of our country,

Never Burglar-Always

Comes OFF! Is the latest official report from Washington.

As the volume of business is directly proportioned to the abundance of crops it follows that we are on the Threshold of Exceptional business activity

We have therefore proceeded with our misgiving to lay up the largest and most complete stock of good reasonable goods ever in the city before. At the head of the list of good reasonable goods is the

Jas. Boss Watch Case,

Of which we carry a full line, and following are KELLAM & MOORE'S

Perfected Crystal Eye Glasses!

will be fitted by one who understands fitting glasses as they should be. We fit glasses for any kind of an eye that can be with glasses.

Glasses fitted for Astigmatic eyes, Myopic or Hypermetropic Ainsmetropia, or Strabismus, Color-blindness or any other optical defect.

Some choice winter apples left at D. M. PLATT'S.

F. A. Swezey of Blue Hill, was in the city Tuesday.

The editors of the Argus were in Hastings Monday.

Mrs. Letson has returned from her visit to Deadwood, S. D.

Call on W. W. Wright for all kinds of stoves and hardware.

Charles Mitchell is going to Lincoln to be treated for his hearing.

C. F. Evans, who has been on the sick list for some time, is on the streets again.

Wright has the finest stock of heaters in the valley, and sells them at way down prices.

Do you buy groceries? If you do, you should call on Sherwood & Albright. They keep the best.

Don't forget that for heating or cooking stoves you should not fail to see W. W. Wright. He will save you money.

The young ladies band will serve supper on Dec. 23. Place not decided on yet. Everybody should turn out and help them.

Charlie Gust has sold his interest in the meat market of Harris & Gust to Dwight Jones, and Mr. Jones took possession last week.

The Webster county Auxiliary to the Womans board of the Nebraska Columbian Commission will meet at the residence of Miss Molly Ferris on Saturday, Dec. 3rd, at 2 p. m. S. C.

There will be a social given by the G. A. R. Post, W. R. C., D. of V's, and S. of V's, at the K. of P. Hall, Saturday eve, Dec. 3rd, for the benefit of Garfield Post No. 80, of Red Cloud. Come everybody and have a good time.

THE CHIEF would like to have 500 new subscribers. It shall be our endeavor to print the best republican paper in the county, but aside from politics we propose to make it the best and newsiest country paper in the county. Trial subscriptions, 25 cents for three months. We shall have continued stories, short stories, Talmadge's sermons, news of the week, besides the county and local news. Subscribe now. Sample copies free on application.

AROUND TOWN.

Pine tar at Deyo & Grice's.

New goods at the music store this week.

All sizes of window glass at Deyo & Grice's.

Cotting has the finest lamps you ever saw.

Try the new shoemaker at Blakeslee & Kaley's.

Mrs. I. H. Hammell has gone to Okarcho, Oklahoma.

That dollar and a half vase lamp at Cottings is a beauty.

Miss May Hummell expects to go to Oklahoma in January.

First class work is done at the Golden Eagle tailor Shop.

Curt Evans is on the sick list, having a severe case of the mumps.

Do not buy a stove until you see those fine heaters at Wright's store.

A very large crowd was transacting business in this city last Saturday.

Remember Wiener is closing out his men's and boys' boots at less than cost.

If you are going to paint this fall, go to Deyo for your material and save money.

Rev. J. A. Chapin is holding revival meetings in the M. E. chapel near the depot.

The boat oil heating stove in the market at A. Morhart's. See it before buying.

Deyo & Grice are having a nice wall paper trade this fall. Their stock is large.

The old reliable corner drugstore is in better shape than ever to take care of its large trade.

G. W. Dow, who has been in Newcastle, has arrived home. He reports the Red Cloud people out there as prospering.

The Hon. Col. Gage of Franklin, was in Red Cloud, Tuesday on business, in relation to the Laird estate, of which he is administrator.

Mrs. Allbaugh, and family of Wisconsin, relatives of Mrs. D. J. Myers and the Sellars family were in the city this week. They departed for Oklahoma on Wednesday.

The B & M folks, although having virtually taken away the division station, still maintain division here. Two crews come in from Wymore and return, one crew from Hastings and two from McCook.

A young man by the name of Gangbin who was teaching school near Guide Rock, came to Red Cloud Monday, and was taken down with symptoms of typhoid fever. His parents are in California.

Go and see Wright's stock of hardware, stoves and so forth, if you want to see the handsomest, best and cheapest stock in the market. He sells the best goods as cheap as others sell inferior goods.

No matter what people may do or say, Red Cloud will get to the front. There are always people in a community who kick against everything, but a town, like an individual, can never prosper and be too parsimonious.

C. Wiener has taken the agency for Dr. Jaros Hygiene underwear. It is recommended by leading physicians in the United States. Used by the army and navy and the principal cities use it in their fire and police departments as an almost sure preventive against rheumatism.

The electric light poles are being taken down and will be placed in the alleys. This is a good move on the part of the company. The poles look ungainly in the streets. The lights will be placed on high poles at right angles which will have better effect than being placed across the streets. The plant will soon be in operation again.

LOCAL NEWS.

An endless variety of those 20c books at Deyo & Grice.

Hon. W. A. McKeighan goes to Washington Monday evening.

Look out for Deyo & Grice. Their line of holiday goods is a surprise.

"Whatsoevers" at First Baptist church Friday evening, Dec. 16.

Step into Deyo & Grice's and get a set of Humes History of England 6 vol. $1.20.

Henry Anderson who has been in Utah for several years has returned to this city.
