THE CHIEF
Circulation, Per Week, 1450.
A. C. HOSMER, Editor.
LARRY TAIT, Asst. Local Editor.

A LAWN SOCIAL—The lawn social given at the residence of Eld. Putman on last Friday night under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church, was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable affairs of the season. The young people comprising the society which gave the sociable are of the most refined families, and are themselves well cultured, polished, and active Christian workers. Those young ladies who had given the invitations, extended every possible courtesy to those present, of which there was about 100, and after music instrumental and vocal, and a general, social, intermingling of the guests, refreshments consisting of the most luscious watermelons ever created, were served abundantly in the front yard, which was well seated and profusely decorated for the occasion with Japanese lanterns. After two hours of solid social enjoyment and innocent health-giving laughter, the guests dispersed, with good feeling toward their hosts, and an increased profound respect for the young people of the Christian church.

WHO THEY ARE.—We have heard of the following names that will come before the republican county convention next Wednesday, the 27th. For treasurer we have heard of J. S. White of Blue Hill, T. G. Wilder of Cowles, P. A. Beachy of Red Cloud, O. McCall of Line township, and L. P. Albright. For sheriff, the names of Porter Hedge, Mr. Ranney, Dick Garber and H. A. Shinkle. For superintendent of public instruction, D. M. Hunter is the only candidate that we have heard of. For county clerk the names of L. H. Fort and H. E. Pond have been made public. For the office of county judge we have not heard of any names so far. For surveyor we presume Mr. W. E. Thorne of Bladen will be nominated. There seems to be no candidates for coroner. Any of the above names would make good material for county officers.

A NEW FIRM—This week THE CHIEF takes pleasure in announcing that the Kirschbraun-Haskell Produce Co., of Omaha, has purchased the produce business of our esteemed friend, M. W. Dickerson. The new firm came to Red Cloud highly recommended, and will buy goods on the same liberal plan that Mr. Dickerson did. Mr. N. W. Kingsland, an experienced gentleman in that line, will manage the business and as he comes well recommended our people may rest assured of fair treatment. THE CHIEF takes great pleasure in welcoming the new firm to the city, and hopes they will do a fine business.

SOLD OUT.—This week M. W. Dickerson & Co., sold their produce business to the Kirschbraun-Haskell Produce Co., of Omaha. Mr. Morris Dickerson has been in the business in Red Cloud for a great many years, and by his square and honorable business methods has made hosts of friends, who will be sorry to hear that he has decided to leave the business circles of Red Cloud. This paper in conjunction with "Dick's" numerous friends wish him much prosperity in the future and hope that his future may drop into pleasant places where over he may decide to locate. Here's hoping that he may reap a magnificent harvest of this world's goods.

CLEAN UP.—If cleanliness is next to Godliness, we would suggest that the cutting down, and the cleaning up of a few weeds, which mar the appearance of our pretty city, be attended to right away. Now is the time a great many strangers visit the city, and 'tis only natural, that they judge our city from its outward appearance. While the majority of our citizens are careful about this subject, some are decidedly reckless, letting the weeds which surround their house grow so high as to render it entirely obscure.

Summer weakness, that tired feeling, loss of appetite and nervous prostration are driven away by Hood's Sarsaparilla, like mist before the morning sun. To realize the benefit of this great medicine give it a trial.
Sure, efficient, easy—Hood's Pills.

THE FIRE FIEND—On Thursday morning about five o'clock, the quick silver toned peals of the fire alarm announced another fire in Red Cloud. In a brief period hundreds of our citizens, of both sexes, were making a fast time to the scene of the conflicting elements, which were located in the unoccupied residence of Mrs. Sada J. Bailey, on the corner of Walnut street and the 8th avenue. The fire seems to have been the work of an incendiary, as it originated on the back stoop on the north side of the house, but the quick response of our efficient fire department saved the structure from being a total loss. The household goods were all removed, but the house will be badly damaged. The house and contents were insured for $1200 we are informed. It was only a few months ago that the barn on the same place was burned accidentally, but why any one should set the lady's house on fire is a mystery that is insoluble.

THE M. E. CHORUS—The M. E. church choir is now a regular organized body, having elected officers and organized in a business like manner. There are sixteen members in the choir at present and all are first class singers. At the last meeting of the choir the following officers were elected:
Leader.—L. P. Albright.
Manager.—Wm. Tulleys.
Secretary.—Miss Nellie West.
Treasurer.—Mrs. Emma Martin.
Librarian.—Miss Susie Rife.
Board of directors.—Prof. Caster, L. P. Albright and Wm. Tulleys.
Organist.—Mrs. Beal.
The singers are as follow:
Soprano.—Mrs. Martin, Miss Nellie West, Miss Flossie Ranney.
Alto.—Miss Rose Enigh, Miss Susie Rife, Miss Blanch Cummings, Miss Blanch Sellars.
Bass.—L. P. Albright, Geo. Overing, Wm. West, Henry Richmond.
Tenor.—Prof. Caster, C. C. Cowden, Robert Martin, Wm. Tulleys.
This is the only organized choir in the city, and are now in a prosperous condition. They contemplate giving a cantata in the near future. Success to the choir.

Dandruff is due to an enfeebled state of the skin. Hall's Hair Renewer quickens the nutritive functions of the skin, healing and preventing the formation of dandruff.

Card of Thanks.
The good people of Red Cloud have been so kind and have shown so many attentions to my dear wife during her protracted illness, and in the hour of my sad bereavement have given me such sincere assurances of their sympathy, that I would take this opportunity thus publicly to express my heartfelt gratitude to one and all. Such sublime devotion cannot fail of its intended purpose, to one in my bereavement. May a kind Providence bless you all and spare you from sorrow, is the hope of yours truly,—CHAS. WIENER.

Caucus Meeting.
The democratic electors of Walnut creek township will meet in caucus, in school house No. 3, on Wednesday, Sept. 27, at 4 p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county democratic convention to be held at Blue Hill Sept. 27th, and to transact such other business as may come before the caucus.—THOS. BLANKENBAKER, Com.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will give a social at the residence of Mrs. F. V. Taylor, Friday evening, September 22d. Supper served from six o'clock until ten. All are cordially invited to attend.

Hood's Cures

Mr. G. A. Stearns
Purifies the Blood
"I was attacked with a painful itching and swelling. Red blotches came out on my body. I could hardly see. Words cannot express my suffering. When I had taken six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla all traces of the disease had disappeared, and I am now perfectly well." G. A. STEARNS, Gravity, Iowa. Be sure to get Hood's, Hood's PILLS cure all Liver Ills, Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Sick Headache.

Lost.
From my pens, two small black and white pigs, weighing about 25 pounds. A liberal reward will be given.—C. H. CUTLER.

Mayor's Notice.
To whom it may concern:
Hereafter all ball playing in the streets must be stopped. All persons violating this order will be prosecuted.—C. WIENER, Mayor.

Notice.
The members of the County Central Committee of the Peoples' party are called to meet at J. H. Bailey's office in Red Cloud Saturday, Sept. 30th, 1893 at one o'clock to organize and transact such other business as may come before the meeting each member is expected to be present. AUSTIN RILEY, chm. STEPHEN BAYLES, sec.

Resolutions.
At a regular meeting of Charity Chapter No. 47, Order of Eastern Star, September 19, 1893, the following resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS: It has pleased our Heavenly Father His providence to remove from the conflict of life our beloved sister, Fannie Wiener, reminding us that the messenger who called her home will come sooner or later for us all, and Though she has passed beyond the reach of praise, yet we deem it fitting to express our appreciation of her gentle and benevolent life, of her sympathy for and kindness to the poor in the hour of their distress. In that, her ear was never shut to the cry of the needy, and her hand ever open to administer to their necessities.
RESOLVED: That, while we bow in humble submission to the will of the Most High, we no less mourn the loss of our dear sister so recently taken from us, and shall ever strive to follow her example in deeds of kindness and charity to the poor and needy; and that we have lost a friend and companion dear to us all.
RESOLVED: That we sincerely sympathize with our bereaved brother in his severe affliction and loss, and other sorrowing ones, and express a sincere and earnest hope that this great bereavement may be overruled for their highest good.
RESOLVED: That a copy of these resolutions be sent by the secretary of this order to our brother, C. Wiener.
RESOLVED: That these resolutions be spread on the records of this Chapter. CARRIE MCKEELY, W. M. P. D. YEISER, Sec'y.

The World's Fair.
Can not remain such without blooming look and radiant complexion which health alone imparts. Park's Tea, by clearing the blood of impurities, makes the complexion regain the hue of youth. Sold by C. L. Cotting.

Leave your orders with Deyo & Grice's if you want your trunks and valises hauled to the depot. LEN AULTZ.

C. L. Cotting, the druggist says he has not 5000 rolls of wall paper on hand for he has been selling lots of it this year. He still has a fine selection, and some new patterns just opened.

Remember that L. P. Albright sells more flour than any other store in Webster county. If you want flour see him, for he keeps the best.

WANTED: The people of Red Cloud, and vicinity to remember that the Harvard Painless Dental Parlors are here to stay, at the opera house block.

Sherwood & Albright have been in business just one year and the boys have done a fine business. They have our best wishes.

Home-seekers' Excursions.
September 12th, and October 10th. If you contemplate changing your location, it will pay you to take advantage of the Burlington Route's Home-seekers' Excursions of September 12th and October 10th. On those dates, round trip tickets to the Cheap Land regions of western Nebraska, eastern Colorado and northern Wyoming will be on sale at very low rates. Nearly 50 per cent saved. Burlington Route agents will sell round trip tickets to southern points—Texas, Oklahoma, etc.—at considerably reduced rates. Ask the local agent for full information.

The World's Fair.
Reports from Chicago are a unit in demonstrating what a great many people have all along asserted, viz: that visitors to the World's Fair can find first class accommodations at very moderate figures. The fact is, there is very little difficulty in securing a good room at $1.00 a day. That surely is reasonable enough for anyone! As to the cost of getting to Chicago, the Burlington Route's local agent will gladly give you full information.
