

Shoes, Cheap!

We have a few
Boots and Shoes Ourselves!

($8,000 worth) and positively
WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD

We will sacrifice our entire stock for cash at lower prices than ever before made in Red Cloud, and will meet any and all competition. Remember we guarantee BEST GOODS, LOWEST PRICES, GREATEST VARIETY.

Blakeslee & Kaley.

For
Accurate
Abstracts of Title
And
Cheap
Farm Loans
Call on
J. H. Bailey,
Red Cloud, Neb.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. Melville Putman is in Chicago. Royal patent, try it, Red Cloud Produce Co.

Attorney McNeny went to Omaha last Monday.

The high wind on Sunday, blew down Cotting's sign.

H. D. Ranney was in Blue Hill this week on business.

Monogram, try it, warranted, Red Cloud Produce Co.

Miss Fuller of Cowles, was visiting Mrs. Sapp this week.

Rev. H. L. Barg and wife of Alto were in Red Cloud this week.

L. M. Vance returned from a business trip to Kearney Tuesday.

Mrs. Sapp was visiting in Blue Hill this week for a few days.

Barney Jones was down to Superior Sunday seeing his best girl.

Miss Cora Garber, began attending high school last Monday.

Cearlie Dickerson and Will Mentgen drove to Blue Hill Sunday.

Thad Mc Nitt returned from a very pleasant trip to Lincoln last week.

G. R. McCrary returned from a prolonged visit to the big fair Tuesday.

David Paul and son of Cowles, were doing business in this place Tuesday.

Cream of the earth the only strictly high patent flour, at the Red Cloud Produce Co's.

Willis Fulton and wife of Riverton, passed through here Tuesday on their way to St. Joseph, Mo.

Eld. Ely, who has been on an extended visit to Chicago and Peoria, Ill., returned home Tuesday.

Miss Cora Garber, Jessie Kellogg, and Jessie Johnson returned Saturday from a long visit to the world's fair.

For windmills, steel and wood, pumps, pipes, tanks, and fitting of all kinds, go to Jas. Peterson the pump man.

All the late novelties in hats and caps for men, boys and children are now on sale at the Golden Eagle Clothing Store.

There will be no session of the September term of the district court, Judge Beall having adjourned the same sine die.

A. H. Gray and wife, and the Misses Laura Smith, Lillie and Gertie Waldron, were sojourning in Kansas a few days this week.

The evening services at the Congregational church begin at 7:30 o'clock hereafter and the bell toll accordingly.—E. L. Ely, Pastor.

Miss Ray Letson left Tuesday for Peru, Neb., whither she goes to attend State Normal. Her many friends here wish her much success.

If you know of a man with a small family, who wants to live on a farm, and either rent or work for wages next year, send him to Geo. R. Chaney.

Special attention is given to the scientific fitting of spectacles, by Dr. Cullimore who is to be in Red Cloud September 23th, with Dr. McKeely.

The good die young—but they are using Haller's little German Pills now and honest men will soon be a drug in the market. For sale by Deyo & Grice.

Next week, the republicans will have nominated their ticket, and then follows the democratic convention. When all three are in the field, the battle will become interesting and the scramble for office immense.

It was not our intention to omit mention of one of the best flouring mills in the country, in the Riverton "write up" last week. This mill is doing a good business. Its proprietor is Isaac Sheperdson, and its manager is Mr. F. M. Hopkins.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of L. H. Fort, for the office of county clerk before the republican county convention. Mr. Fort is an experienced gentleman in that line and fully qualified to fill the position. If nominated and elected he will make an excellent officer.

CITY NEWS.

For fresh fruit see Mc Nitt.

New window curtains at Cottings.

R. B. Fulton was in Riverton this week.

Go to Calme's for bread, pies, cakes, ice cream, etc.

J. D. Crans returned from St. Joe on Wednesday.

There is talk of a high-toned wedding in Red Cloud soon.

Joshua L. Martin has been appointed P. M. at Blue Hill.

Percy McBride was taking in the St. Joseph fair this week.

Miss Maude Greenlee of Blue Hill was in the city on Saturday.

Mr. Musser and family leave Wednesday for the world's fair.

When you want a good cooking or heating stove see W. W. Wright.

Dave Kaley and M. W. Dickerson left Wednesday for the world's fair.

H. C. Wolf came in this week and helped THE CHIEF financially. Thanks.

Mrs. Sada J. Bailey is quite sick again at the home of her brother in Riverton.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will give a social at Mrs. G. W. Knight's this Friday night.

Rev. Mr. Mills of University Place, near Lincoln, was the guest of Mr. Rife this week.

Rev. J. Cheatham of Otego, Kan., was visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Stoffer, this week.

C. H. Smith and wife left for Wetmore, Kansas, this week, overland, to be gone thirty days.

Miss Webb, who has been visiting with Mrs. M. R. Bentley, has returned to her home in Omaha.

The nine-year-old daughter of Noah Perry died Wednesday evening at six o'clock, after a lingering illness.

Dr. G. E. McKeely and wife are home from an extended trip to the world's fair and to their old home in Wisconsin.

Rev. A. P. Hull will be the next minister in the M. E. church in this city. Mr. Hull comes highly recommended.

Lanney Smith says he is actually stuck on Job's comforters, and that his cheek is somewhat enlarged therefrom.

The new water system is being prosecuted with vigor and the council expects to have the work completed in a few days.

A. J. Bragg of Guide Rock was a pleasant caller this week while in Red Cloud on business, and renewed for the Great Family Weekly.

Read R. M. Martin & Son's ad on the third page of to-day's paper. They are cutting prices in two. If you want a bargain, see them.

Mrs. Anna Perry, daughter of Wm. Barrett, living in Carlisle, Arkansas, sent some specimens of cotton grown in that state to her father this week.

Rev. J. A. Chapin, who has labored in the pastorate of the M. E. church in this city for the last year, goes to Surprice, Neb., to preach the coming year.

Ball playing in the streets should be stopped before someone is badly injured. The other day a fellow got hit on the side of the head with a base ball which came near knocking him down.

Elmer Kaley is now in Chicago at the World's Fair Business College, which position he recently secured over a large number of students at the Burlington Business college in a competitive examination for the same.

Elders Armitage and Harr, Seventh Day Adventists, are in the city and will remain here for about six weeks. They will occupy the Baptist church during their stay. There will be preaching on Sunday morning at 10:30 and at 8 p. m. All are invited.

John Shultz of Guide Rock received a deed this week from Gov. Crouse and Commissioner Humphrey to the south-west 1/4 of the south-west 1/4, and lot 1 and the north-west 1/4 of the south-west 1/4 section 9-1-9—university land which he has fully paid for.

Mr. Waine's little boy run a nail in his foot the other day, but nothing much was thought of it, but in a few days the wound became inflamed to such an extent that lockjaw was evident, and a physician was called. The little fellow is getting better.

A. H. Gray, of the Phenix Ins. Co. and Geo. Simon State adjuster for that insurance company went to Rosemont to adjust a fire loss for J. C. Allen of that place whose house was burned on the 7th, inst. with an insurance of $2000, and was fully paid and Mr. Allen made happy.

BRIEF MENTION.

C. M. Calmes was in Riverton yesterday.

Judge Bailey was in Guide Rock Wednesday.

Lawyer Chaffin was in Superior Wednesday.

The best bread in the city at Calme's bakery.

Mrs. Aaron Conover is home from Kearney.

Buy you a fine pocket knife at Cotting's drug store.

Will Kellogg left on Thursday for Chicago and the east.

Mr. Weatherald is in the city this week from Hebron.

Men's fine clothing made to order at Wiener's Tailoring House.

Keep an eye on prices. I lead and others follow.—James Peterson.

Go to Calme's bakery for tobacco, cigars, candies, fruits, bread, lunch, &c.

Mr. Hines and wife of Cowles were doing business in Red Cloud this week.

Mrs. Crone and daughter left Wednesday for a visit to Huron, South Dakota.

Michigan fine salt the standard brand at $1.35 per barrel.—Red Cloud Produce Co.

If you want celery fresh and crisp go to the post office fruit and vegetable stand.

Miss Adalla Woods of McCook is visiting with her father J. O. Lindley and family.

W. S. Garber, Geo. Holland, W. T. Auld and R. D. Bedford were in Superior Wednesday.

Well made and serviceable clothing for men, boys and children at reasonable prices, at Wiener's.

Take your prescriptions to Cotting's drug store. Pure medicine and accurate compounding guaranteed.

The W. C. T. U. ladies of this city entertained a number of visiting sisters at Mrs. A. O. Berg's this week.

In order to close out organs and sewing machines, I will give you a bargain. Come and see me.—James Peterson.

Mrs. James Murphy of this place and her daughter, Mrs. Francis of McCook, left Wednesday for a visit in Seneca, Kansas.

J. A. Boyd returned from an extended trip from the valleys of the Beaver and Sappy having received over $1200 worth of orders for monuments.

Dr. Cullimore, eye and ear surgeon of Omaha, will meet patients in his specialties, in Red Cloud at Dr. McKeely's office Tuesday, September 26th.

O. C. Bell and wife returned from a visit in the east. Mrs. Bell having been in Chicago, and Mr. Bell attending the G. A. R. encampment in Indiana.

The stock of dry goods, groceries' boots and shoes formerly owned by S. F. Spokesfield will be closed out during the next 30 days. Read their advertisement.

E. J. Overing returned from a western trip last week. He reports sales being good having sold upwards of $1000 worth of monuments besides erecting $600 of work, already sent out.

The two daughters of Mr. Alf. McCall are attending the Fremont Normal college. Mr. McCall believes in giving his children the best advantage of the excellent educational facilities that Nebraska affords.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla does what no other blood medicine in existence can do. It searches out all the impurities in the system and expels them harmlessly through the proper channels. This is why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is so pre-eminently effective as a remedy for rheumatism.

S. H. Puntenny, General northern agent for the Red Cloud marble works came in last week from an extended trip through the Minden, Hastings and Kearney countries. Mr. Puntenny leads in his sales of any of the firms agents. This speaks well for Mr. Puntenny he having to compete with the Hastings, Grand Island and Kearney.

We had the pleasure of meeting, this week, Mr. John Irons, the aged father of Mr. Wm. Irons of Inavale. Mr. Irons lives in Iowa; he is 83 years of age, and had the honor of voting for Gen. Jackson for president. He is hale and hearty and looks like he might live a round 100 years. He leaves this week for the Cherokee strip to see another son. He is the father of 14 children.

Talking about candidates for county offices, we wish to make a statement in regard to the office of county superintendent. Mr. D. M. Hunter, the present incumbent, is a man who has in every way filled that important office the best that it has ever been filled, and has brought it up to that point of excellence that is so much desired by our people. He should be re-nominated and elected without regard to party.

Mrs. W. M. Huffman has engaged the Red Cloud Marble and Granite works to erect a handsome family monument in memory of her late husband and other members of the family now resting in the Webb cemetery. The monument represents the trunk of a large oak, with ivy vines entwined about the body of the tree, the top cut off, and an open bier resting against a score block. The whole is a unique and artistic piece of work, and does credit to the firm she bought it of.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Jas. Blair is home from Chicago.

Mrs. Tait has been quite ill this week.

C Wiener returned from Chicago last Saturday.

Have you seen those nobby suits at Wiener's?

W M Dickerson returned from Omaha Saturday.

Do you want the best shoe on earth? Wiener has them.

M S Marsh and wife have returned from a visit to the world's fair.

Mr. J S White and daughter, were down from Blue Hill Thursday.

H Chaplin came in this week and helped the big Injun financially.

A great many children of an advanced age are attending school here now.

G W Francis has our thanks for a renewal to the Great Family Weekly.

Mrs Rutledge of Missouri is visiting her brother and relatives in this city.

Congressman McKeighan expects to return to Washington about the first of the week.

Mrs Morhart and little children returned home Thursday from Hot Springs, S D.

The Methodist folks of Cowles are making arrangements to build a parsonage and have $300. subscribed.

On next Monday the editor of THE CHIEF has been holding down the newspaper business in Red Cloud for ten years.

The band boys will give a "pie" social at the KP Hall, Tuesday evening, Sept 26th. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs BF Mizer and little children, left Thursday for an extended visit to her old home in Port Washington, eastern Ohio.

Dr. Larrick of Oberlin, Kas, chatted a few minutes with his old friend Wm. Crabill while passing through this place Wednesday.

This week Capt. Munsell, living south of the river brought in to this office, some sugar cane measuring 12 feet in length.

Word has been received from Messrs. Mohart and Case, who are sojourning in Hot Springs S. D., that their health is much improved.

Mrs John Tomlinson, wife of our deputy sheriff, has been experimenting, raising huckleberries, and she finds that they can be raised successfully in Nebraska.

Dr. Grant Cullimore, consultant oculist to Mo. Pacific Ry. at Omaha, has arranged to meet eye and ear patients in Red Cloud, with Dr. McKeely, September 26th.

Young man do you contemplate getting married? Wiener the clothier will fit you out in style, and leave you with money enough to take your wife to the Columbian Exhibit.

Will close out what flour Mr. Spokesfield had on hand at $1 per sack for the best and 75c for White Bread. Other things in proportion. Cheap for cash at Spokesfield's old stand.

The following are new subscribers:—M Sherman, L S Myers, F L Smith, D M Platt, John Sheperdson, John Irons, Miss Mattie McCall, Rev M Berg, C H Miel, E Stewart and W G Hoffman.

In another place in to-day's paper we give space to a portion of Hon. W. A. McKeighan's speech made in the opera house on the 19th. THE CHIEF is a great newspaper and publishes all the news.

An exchange speaks of the introduction of a compulsory law somewhere in the east making old bachelors of a certain age take unto himself a wife. If it was in vogue here, several good citizens of Red Cloud would have to be getting out and hunt up a wife to take care of them.

When THE CHIEF was first published, John Penny, living then in Garfield township paid $5 for the first copy, and Mel Sherman was the first subscriber enrolled. During the early days, money was quite scarce but Mel Sherman paid his subscription in gold nuggets. "Why can't they do so now" is the plaintive cry of our esteemed devil.

Do you notice that THE CHIEF's circulation is rapidly growing every week? People appreciate a good paper, one that is full of news, and that is what they always have in the Great Family Weekly. We give more news and more general matters than any paper in Webster county, and the only ALL HOME printed paper in the county.

Mel Sherman is home from Wisconsin where he has been visiting with his daughter Miss Jessie. He says people over in our sister state wonder how it is that as great a paper as THE CHIEF can be published in as new a country as Nebraska, while up in their country which has been much longer settled papers as a general thing are not near the equal of the more prosperous Nebraska papers.

Thomas Blair a blacksmith in the employ of George Barth of Blue Hill came to Red Cloud on Wednesday and after becoming "how come you so" started in to paint the town red white and blue, he ran against policeman Geo Miller who escorted his highness to the tender care of Jailor Tomlinson for the night. On yesterday morning he was taken before police Judge Bayley who assessed him $5.00 and trimmings.

This Week

We receive the stock of

Fine+

+Clothing+

That will catch you.

WE HAVE OUR

FALL HATS

NOW IN!

Elegant Stock,

All the new Styles.

We want to show you our stock.

Chicago Clothing Store.

Opposite Postoffice.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Horace Spanogle went to the world's fair Thursday.

Mrs. L. M. Vance and children are visiting in Kearney.

Bert Grice and wife have returned from a pleasant trip to the world's fair.

Prof. A N Allist teacher of the public school at Bladen was in Red Cloud this week.

Red Cloud is to have a new bank, to be known as the People's, with J L Miner as President.—Superior Sun

Mrs. M. R. Bentley entertained a few friends on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Allen Ayers' 60th birthday.

A Presbyterian minister of Hastings will preach morning and evening at the M. E. church next Sabbath. All are invited.

A Red Cloud second nine and the Guide Rock nine fought it out on the diamond Thursday with a result of 10 to 29 in favor of Red Cloud.

Mayor Wiener has issued this order to stop ball playing in the streets. This is the right move and THE CHIEF hopes it will be prosecuted with vigor.

J. Tedmore Colvin the piano tuner, of Hastings, is in the city, on his semi-annual tour. Since in our city last he has grown a very handsome mustache which adds 100 per cent to his ability, as a piano tuner.

The Misses Lillie and Gertie Waldron, who have been visiting Miss Laura Smith for three weeks returned to their home in Norton, Kan. to-day. Both are pleasant young ladies and have made many friends here.

Red Cloud Produce Company's price list:

Best high patent flour per sack,	.95c
Good No 2 " " "	.60c
Bran per 100 lbs	.50c
Shorts " " "	.60c
Chopped feed (corn and oats)	.75c
Corn meal (bolted) per sack,	.30c
" " " "	.15c
Old oats per bushel,	.25c
Corn " " "	.25c
Best Michigan fine salt per bbl.	$1.35
Free delivery.

The following are the new appointments made by the M. E. conference held at Beatrice, for the Hastings district. R. G. Adams, presiding elder; Blue Hill, George Shuman; Broomfield, H. G. Claycomb; Carlton, E. F. S. Darby; Clay Centre, A. J. Marsh; Cowles, F. E. Smith; Denverport, H. Curtis; Doniphan, E. J. Baird; Edgar, T. H. Worley; Exceter, W. F. Kline; Fairfield, E. J. Randall; Fairmont, A. A. Randall; Geneva, J. A. Baker; Grafton, E. W. McMillen; Guide Rock, H. B. Seymour; Harvard, T. S. Fowler; Hastings, J. W. S. Deau; Kenesaw, F. A. Colony; Lawrence, A. M. Ferry; Nelson, G. A. Hobson; Oak, J. P. McVey; Red Cloud, A. P. Hull; Rese. land, R. E. Neal; Superior, R. Pearson; Sutton, J. W. Royce.

For Sale.

A good boat, 16 feet in length. Cheap for cash. Enquire at this office.

Sweet and Dainty Dishes

For

The Dinner and Supper Tables

Can always be prepared quickly by using

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

It is distinguished as being the only pure Cream of Tartar Baking Powder—free from ammonia, alum, lime or any other adulteration. All other baking powders leave traces of alkali or acid in the food. Dr. Price's is without a rival and is indispensable where the finest as well as the most wholesome food is desired.