

CHICAGO CELEBRATES.

THE WINDY CITY GOES TO SEE THE EXPOSITION.

An Enormous Multitude that Required the Wagon Gates to be Opened for Its Admission—Description of the Night Pageant—A Magnificent Spectacle.

World's Fair Grounds, Oct. 10.—Sixty-year old Chicago has been honored as none in the New World has ever been. Chicago Day closed upon the world's fair in a blaze of glory and a grand illumination from the electric power and pyrotechnics.

Seven hundred thousand people—doubtless the greatest crowd that ever congregated—visited the fair on Chicago day, breaking the greatest one-day record at Paris by an overwhelming majority—completely smothering the "big day" figures of any other exposition ever held.

The Procession of Floats.—The crowning glory of the anniversary day was the pageantry which 700,000 thousand people viewed within the gates of the Columbian city last night soon after the sun went down.

Chicago in 1812, a trading post, was next portrayed. Chicago in war and peace followed in floats which called forth thunders of applause from the multitudinous throng.
