

We make it a Point

To clean out all undesirable stock twice a year with a Bigger Fall Stock than ever bought at the lowest prices ever known. We are prepared to give the people of Webster county more for their money than ever before.

Boots AND Shoes

Bought of us are guaranteed to give satisfactory service. You can look a long while before finding a better place to spend your money for FOOTWEAR than with us.

Blakeslee & Kaley.

BRIEF MENTION.

Seed buckwheat at McNitt's.
Boyd Munsell is home from the fair.
R. M. Martin is taking in the fair this week.
A. T. Ormsby of Denver is in the city this week.
Dr. Tulley is taking in the world's fair this week.
Lew Hummel is attending the world's fair this week.
A. H. Spracher, wife and niece went to the fair last week.
A. Mohart has the finest line of lamps that we have seen.
Ernest Brown is in Chicago this week taking in the sights.
J. B. Wright, who has been ill for some time is able to be around again.
Ed. Brown and wife left Saturday for a week's visit to the world's exposition.
Miss Sylvia Cook and Mrs. Noland, sisters of Mrs. M. R. Bentley are in the city.
Boyd & Overing are still doing an immense business, making many sales each week.
John Marsden was in Tecumseh this week negotiating for some blooded horses.
Chas. W. Kaley, L. P. Albright and Jas. McNeny returned from Lincoln Saturday.
A. Mohart has just received his assortment of lamps for this season, and they are fine ones.
Mr. Guilford has returned from the strip. He says he don't need any land in the territory.
A few of the members of the senior class gathered at Mr. Abel's the other night for a social visit.
Menzo Campbell of New York City, and M. H. Cone of Axtell, Kansas, are the guests of J. H. Davis.
T. L. Olmstead, owner of the Leach farm near the city was in the city this week looking after his interests.
John Barkley lost a valuable mule and when questioned as to the cause of its death said it died of over-sleep.
H. C. Richmond who "tramps" in the interest of the Red Cloud Chief, was a pleasant caller Monday.—Blue Hill Leader.
J. S. Gilham and son Harry left last week for a visit to the world's fair. Mr. Gilham goes to Connecticut before he returns home.
The A. O. U. W. lodge paid Mrs. Huffman $2000 in two weeks after the death of her husband. This is certainly a good showing for that already popular order.

Noah Wagoner, a respected citizen of this community who has been in southern Kansas for some time has returned home, and says there is no place like Nebraska.

Mr. C. Boren who was editor of THE CHIEF in 1888-9, or 15 years ago, was a pleasant caller at this office last Friday. We are glad to note his prosperity in another business.

The republicans in convention assembled, honored Webster county by nominating Mr. C. W. Kaley, of Red Cloud, for one of the regents of the state university.—Blue Hill Leader.

Miss Trix Mizer left Saturday for Chicago where she will meet her mother who is on her return trip from Ohio, and after spending a few days in the white city visiting the fair they will return to Red Cloud.

E. L. Moore, familiarly known as "Kiddie" Moore, left Saturday for Chicago and after a short visit to the fair, he will return to his home in Manchester, Iowa. Kiddie has made many friends here who much regret his departure.

The Ladies Home Journal offers one year at the New England Conservatory of Music to every girl who will secure one thousand subscribers before January 1st, 1894. Miss Campbell, one of the enterprising music teachers of this place, will make the effort to secure the desired number of names. THE CHIEF wishes her success.

The editor of THE CHIEF left Monday for Omaha, where he goes as a representative to the grand lodge K. of P. now assembled in that city. On Wednesday he was joined by his wife and daughter Ethel, and his niece, Miss Clark, and all go to Chicago to visit the fair. After a visit at the fair Mrs. Hoerner and daughter will go to Clinton, Ill. for a few weeks visit, and Mr. Hoerner with Miss Clark will visit her home and that of Mr. Hoerner's sister in Flint, Michigan. We hope the Big Injun will get through all right.

CITY NEWS.

For fresh fruit see McNitt.
School supplies—Deyo & Grice.
The best bread in the city at Calmes.
Miss Emma Moede went to Endicott last week.
Go to Calmes for bread, pies, cakes, ice cream, etc.
Buy your stoves of A. Mohart and save money.
The famous Gem cooks and ranges at A. Mohart's.
Heath & Milligan's paint for sale by Deyo & Grice.
McNitt will take eggs in exchange for flour, feed and oil.
Lloyd Richardson returned home Friday from Fairbury.
D. F. McFarland is taking in the world's fair this week.
Miss Mollie Ferris left Saturday for a visit to the world's fair.
When you want a good cooking or heating stove see W. W. Wright.
Blakeslee & Kaley have been fitting the interior of their store this week.
Reese Thompson and wife left last Friday for a visit to the world's fair.
Minor Bros. are closing out their heavy stock of boots and shoes at cost.
Miss Myrtle Jones was up from Guide Rock visiting old friends for a few days last week.
You can see the largest and cheapest lace and chenille curtains in the city at Miner Bros.
Will Thompson and wife went to the great white city last Friday to see the sights at the fair.
Wright's is the place to get your heating or cooking stoves. Don't fail to see them for bargains.
If you want a good lamp cheap, see Deyo & Grice. They have a new and complete assortment.
For the largest, best and cheapest line of ladies and misses cloaks, capes and shawls, go to Minor Bros.
Geo. Overing left Tuesday for a two weeks trip in the interest of the Red Cloud Granite & Marble Works.
Chas. H. Larmer and Miss Camille Giudici of Superior, were married at this place by Father Quinn last Monday.
Mrs. G. W. Miller, daughter of D. F. Scammon, of Grand Island, accompanied by her grandson is visiting in the city this week.
F. E. Goble has sold his interest in the Trader's Lumber Yard and Vio Fulton will now take the management of the same.
The ever genial Vince Solldiday, the B. & M. conductor came to our sanctum while in town this week and handed us two dollars telling us that he couldn't do without the Great Family Weekly.
This week Johnnie Marsden purchased a beautiful monument for his father's grave. It was furnished and designed by Boyd & Overing and is called a dark Rutland and is something very elaborate indeed.
The Western Normal College of Lincoln is now a prosperous institution, and starts this year under very favorable auspices. Its president, Mr. Wm. M. Croan is an acknowledged educator of much ability and from what we can learn the college is enjoying a splendid growth.
R. B. Fulton has in his possession a genuine hard-tack bearing much resemblance to a common soda cracker, which he while in service sent home to his mother in 1862. She stowed it away and in rumaging an old trunk a few days ago some one found it and sent it to Mr. Fulton at Red Cloud.
Mrs. Charlott Knolls of Salt Lake City sister of Mrs. Wm. Parkes of this city mother of Mrs. Geo. Leming formerly of this place now of McCook, died at her home in Salt Lake last Saturday p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Parkes had just returned from a visit to Mrs. Knolls when they received a telegram announcing her death.
The Adelphian Quartet gave their entertainment last Monday night as per announcement. The boys are the possessors of rich, clear, and well cultivated voices, which blend harmoniously in the rendition of the choice vocal selections comprising their extensive repertoire. Their entertainment was given at the Congregational church, and like all things at that place, the house was filled to its utmost capacity. They were frequently encored, and should they ever come here again they will be assured a full house.

ODDS AND ENDS.

All kinds of hardware at Wright's.
Window glass, putty, &c., at Cotting's.
New hay can be had by leaving orders with McNitt.
Frank Martin was down from Grand Island this week.
Joe Holcomb was in Wilcox the latter part of last week.
Miss Nora Nice was visiting in the country this week.
Dr. McKesby made a professional call in Superior this week.
The infectious house fly will soon be relegated to obscurity.
Geo. Nease a former switchman on the B. & M. is back to the city.
P. W. Shea and wife are taking in the sights in the white city this week.
Mrs. J. A. Reed and little daughters were visiting in Lebanon this week.
A. Clark added his name to the list of the Great Family Weekly this week.
Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pope left Monday for a visit to the festivities in Chicago.
Go to Calme's bakery for tobacco, cigars, candies, fruits, bread, lunch, &c.
Miss Grace Fort entertained a few friends last Friday at her pleasant home.
Underwear for everybody. The greatest variety within reach of all.—Chas. Wiener.
Walter McCord, who has been absent for some time, returned to this city Monday.
Sam Kiser and Jack Reid are sixteen miles down in Kansas building a house for Geo. McMurry.
Ed. Ranney, son of our County Clerk Ranney, is here from New Jersey visiting parents and friends.
Miss Mable Truman and Miss Dora Hedge went to Omaha Thursday to attend the state convention of the Y. P. S. C. E.
Kill the mites and other insects that infect your chicken house by using Carbolineum. Sold only by Cotting, the druggist.
Go and see Wright's. They have the finest line of heating stoves that have ever been brought to Red Cloud before. See them before buying.
A car load of rock salt for sale at L. P. Albright's flour and feed store.
O. R. Pitney of Inavale has been honored by the nomination of float representative in the 40th Dist. to fill vacancy.
Wanted: The people of Red Cloud and vicinity to remember that the Harvard Painless Dental Parlors are here to stay, in the opera house block.
E. J. Overing came home off the road Sunday and left Monday. He reports business in the interest of the Red Cloud Marble Works first class.
Nebraska is blessed with beautiful weather. In the summer and autumn the nights are especially lovely and the air at all times is fresh and invigorating.
Red Cloud is well represented at the world's fair this week; more so than any town of its size near here. About forty of our citizens are attending the fair this week.
County Superintendent Hunter was on the sick list part of last week and this, which interfered somewhat with his visitation of schools in which work he has been actively engaged.
Wm. Richardson living six miles south east of this city sold in the last year hogs amounting to $2,680.00 the last sale amounting to $975.00. He still has some left, valued at $800.00. Mr. Richardson don't complain of hard times.
Mrs. Bentley and family removed to Lincoln Monday of this week where they will reside permanently. They are an excellent family and having resided here a good many years have made many sincere friends who regret their leaving very much.
Red Cloud was well represented on the diamond last Saturday, the second nine playing the North Inavale club at that place, and the high school nine playing the Cowles school. Both clubs were thoroughly soaked, the former by a score of 20 to 25, the latter being 13 to 43. The "kids are all right at home, but when they leave they get rattled."
A novel and artistic wheel ornaments the front of Henry Cook's drug store. The wheel is automatic and revolves constantly, supporting three shelves the bottom shelf, being perhaps 20 inches in diameter, and the top one about eight. The shelves are laden with various samples of notions which undergo the same noiseless revolving process all day long.
A sister of L. A. Haskins who has been visiting him from Elroy, Wisconsin, and whose daughter Maud was seriously injured by being thrown from a horse a few weeks since, has resolved to give her the best medical treatment, and accordingly moved to the city, and now occupies the property opposite the Baptist church. Miss Maud is now under the care of Dr. Damerell and is said to be improving.

Little Lord Fauntleroy

Was a beautiful child but he had one drawback, his face was covered with pimples. His grandfather bought a bottle of Haller's Sarsaparilla and was so pleased at its results that he took 4 bottles himself and cured his rheumatism. For sale by Deyo & Grice.

TO CORRESPONDENTS

During the next two weeks correspondents will please send all correspondence intended for publication to Roy Tatt, local editor, as the editor will be absent for two weeks.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

S. F. Spokesfield was in Hebron this week.
D. M. Platt is visiting the fair this week.
Mrs. Tomlinson is on the sick list this week.
Mrs. J. C. Myers left for Chicago last night.
Wall paper and window curtains at Cotting's.
John Garber was in Hastings last Wednesday.
Cactus Tar Soap only 5 cents a cake at Cotting's.
Den Lindsay went to the Chicago fair Tuesday.
Rail road work on the B. & M. is improving slowly.
Grant McFarland and wife returned from Lincoln Monday.
Ed. Ranney and his mother were visiting in Riverton Tuesday.
Jeff Ward is carrying his arm in a sling the result of a painful boil.
Mrs. M. E. Huffman left this morning for Palmyra, Ill., on a visit.
Will C. Cret, special agent of the Lancashire Insurance Co. was in the city this week.
The Cowles school will play the Red Cloud south school a friendly game of ball in this place Saturday.
Mrs. J. C. Warner left last Saturday for Omaha where she will meet her husband and they will go to the fair.
"Orange Blossom" is safe and harmless as a Flax Seed Poultice. Any lady can use it herself. Sold by C. L. Cotting.
Morris Stern and wife left Saturday for Chicago to visit the fair. Mrs. Stern will spend the winter in Philadelphia.
Mrs. M. W. Dickerson left Saturday for Chicago where she will join her husband, and after a short visit to Wisconsin will return home.
Mr. Hull, the new minister of the M. E. church, discoursed two eloquent sermons at that church and was listened to by a large congregation.
Uncle Dick Payne of Otto proved up on his claim this week and is comfortably prepared to spend the balance of his days in Webster county.
W. N. Blankbaker & Fisher Phinnamore of Walnut Creek were in this city Wednesday. While here Nick paid this sanctum a pleasant call.
T. J. Blankbaker of Walnut Creek came to Red Cloud Wednesday to perfect arrangements with Dr. Mc Keeby for an artificial foot, having lost that member about a year ago.
Patrick Gouldie and Miss Katie McCouley, living in Line precinct, were married by Father Quinn this week. Both are well respected young people and have many friends in the country.
Dr. L. D. Denney who is now consulting physician with the O. E. Miller Hernia Treatment Co. of San Antonio, Texas, is in the city for a few days. He reports business flourishing in his new location.
The populist of Garfield township announce speaking at Kent's school house Tuesday night and accordingly the house was filled to satiety. Capt. Houchin, J. L. Miller and W. B. Householder made some good speeches in favor of that party.
We noticed the statement of the Peoples Bank of Oct. 7th, ending just six days of business, which exhibits an excellent line of deposits and gilt edge loans. The projectors of this flourishing enterprise are well pleased with the prospects and the people are not reluctant to give them their patronage.

Mrs. L. D. Oatman and son Roy, in company with Sammy Spry and Miss Bertha Houcline, attended a party at Frank Kuehn Tuesday night, and on their return home one wheel of the buggy smashed down throwing its occupants to the ground. The team sped homeward and the tired people were obliged to walk that distance in the dark.

Ray O. Becker, an old Red Cloud boy, son of A. U. Becker a former prominent business man of this place, was married last week in Lincoln to an accomplished young lady of that place. The wedding was a quiet affair and soon after their marriage they departed for Kewanee, Ill., where Ray is successfully engaged in the banking business. THE CHIEF wishes the deserving young couple a long and prosperous life.

Our Shoe Stock
Is more complete than ever. Buy your shoes of us and get your money's worth.—Chas. Wiener.

The Chicago Clothing Store.

Having recently moved into the room formerly occupied by S. F. Spokesfield, we wish to call the attention of every close buyer in Webster county to this fact:

That you are buying goods in the dark without first posting yourself as to what honest prices mean.

No use of taking any merchant's word for anything any more. Simply come and see who is doing the business in Red Cloud, who has the most stock, &c. We will sell you your

FALL - BILLS

This Season if Good Goods, Nice Fitting Clothing and Extremely Low Prices are any object to you.

We want your money and will get it if you give us half a chance, and will in return give you More and Better Goods than any other merchant in the city. Come and see us.

A. GALUSHA, Mgr.

WRIGHT! WRIGHT! WRIGHT!

Wright is the Man.

He has the largest line of Stoves in Red Cloud.

You can not afford to miss seeing his stock before buying as you will lose money.

W. W. Wright, the Hardware Man.

Jos. C. Holcomb,

—PROPRIETOR OF THE—

Holland House Livery Stable,

Has the best rigs in the city and the most reasonable prices.

Your orders solicited and fair treatment guaranteed. Barn North of the Holland House.

A Puzzle To many ladies is how to keep their hair in curl on rainy days. The solution is easy. Ask Deyo &amp; Grice for Nonpareil Hair curler and the puzzle will be solved.	Itch. To cure the itch take one box of Haller's Australian Salve and thoroughly anoint the body, use Haller's Sarsaparilla four times a day for thirty days and an absolute cure will follow. For sale by Deyo &amp; Grice.
New Restaurant. Mrs. J. A. Frame has purchased the city bakery and restaurant and solicits your patronage. Fresh bread, pies and cakes every day.	Go to Wrights for school-house heating stoves. Best in Red Cloud.
Lost. Between Red Cloud and Sherwood, Kansas, a black coat containing a re-backed daybook with valuable notes, and accounts with the signature F. F. Scott. Finder will call at this office and receive reward.	Republican Central Committee. The members of the republican central committee are requested to meet in Red Cloud on Saturday, October 14th, 1893, at one o'clock p. m. at the office of Randolph McNitt. All are requested to be present. R. McNITT, Secretary. S. E. COZAD, Chairman.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder.

The only Pure Cream of Tartar Powder.—No Ammonia; No Alum. Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.