SUBURBAN NEWS

As Furnished by Our County Correspondents.

Thompson Creek.

We were glad to see Mr. Tupper so far recovered from his recent severe illness as to be at church last Sunday.

Rev. Johnson who has for some time been making improvements on his farm and holding meetings at the Spring Valley school house, closed his meetings last Sunday night, and is to return to his home in Grand Island this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Farmer's Creek accompanied by Miss Georgie Prather, attended church last Sunday at Spring Valley.

Rev. Johnson preached a good discourse to a large audience at Crystal Springs last Sunday. After the preaching he baptized one.

The young people of Spring Valley, organized a lyceum last Friday night, which should prove successful, as there seems to be several good debaters in these parts.

Wm. Burns and wife are visiting in Colorado at present.

Mr. Frank Burns has removed to his residence on the creek near Crystal Springs school house.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Riley of Harlan county are visiting this week with grand pa and ma Schenck's. Mrs. Riley is Mrs. Schenck's sister, and is well known to many readers of THE CHIEF as "Auntie Riley."

S. R. Polly and G. T. Clark are making substantial improvements in the fenced-around their feed lots; while some of the candidates are fixing up the fences around their political corals.

State Line.

The farmers are busy husking corn. Most corn is turning out about 23 bushels in bulk, but some of it will not weigh that much.

Austin Davis and family attended the world's fair last week. They enjoyed it very much.

H. D. Fishburn, wife and little girl have returned from Iowa. He reports corn good in that state.

Miss Nellie Pickrell, teacher in Dist. 138, Jewell county, Kansas, visited her home near Webber last Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. VanDyke and son Gilbert visited Mr. VanDyke's niece, Mrs. Henderson, Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Watt is on the sick list. Willard Moon and family have returned from Hastings, where they have been visiting the last week.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Cowles.

Quite a number of our young people attended the party at Geo. Latta's Friday night and report a good time.

Miss Savage is back from the world's fair.

A. L. Hildreth is putting up a new house in the south-west part of town, near the M. E. parsonage.

The house was filled to its fullest capacity last Sunday to hear the farewell sermon of Mr. Platt. We are sorry to lose such a good, influential man from our midst.

The first quarterly meeting will be held at the M. E. church next Sunday.

Charley Teal and family will move to Cowles in the near future.

Grace Godwin returned Saturday from the world's fair.

We understand C. C. Boren and wife will make an extended visit to Iowa and Illinois this winter.

W. Hollingsworth leaves to-day for Iowa.

Wm. Boren and family, of York county, have returned home after a short visit with his brother and family.

Born, to S. L. Fuller last week, a boy of usual weight.

Died, Henry Blankey, aged 4 years. The child has always been a cripple and is now relieved of his sufferings.

J. Lockhart and family started for the strip Sunday, where Joe succeeded in getting a claim.

DAN TUCKER.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Catherton.

Thanks to the editor, his world's fair letter.

Flannels are being brought into service once more.

These are awful hard times for the days are getting shorter.

Mr. A. N. Wilson is enclosing his old homestead with a wire fence.

The busiest men to be seen nowadays, are the candidates.

Miss Mary Minix of Holstein, who has been visiting relatives here for some time returned home last Sunday.

The last rose of summer has faded and gone, but autumn flowers will soon be with us in profusion.

Mr. Joseph Lockhart packed his goods and started last Sunday for his homestead in the strip, where he will make his future home.

Rev. Kepler will commence to hold meetings next Monday evening at Catherton.

Riverton.

The death of Mrs. C. C. Gooding occurred Oct. 26th, and the funeral was largely attended. She had many friends who mourn her loss.

Candidates are around shaking hands with our people. L. A. Siegel for county clerk, and Miss Lillie McClelland, for county superintendent were in town Friday. Miss McClelland is thoroughly qualified for that office, and will be elected without doubt.

Mr. Burton who has been sick at the Banks house for 4 weeks, is now nearly recovered.

J. H. Smith the agent of the Home Ins. Co. of New York, is in the city.

Mr. Banks will add 24 feet to his hotel in the near future to accommodate his many guests.

What is the matter with the young man who visits the hotel so much? There must be some attraction.

Miss Nettie Robinson had one of her limbs broken while at play on the school grounds.

Mr. Bean of Red Cloud, was doing business here last week.

Dr. Beck of Red Cloud was here on a professional call last week.

Try This Now.

It will cost you nothing and will surely do you good, if you have a Cough, Cold, or any trouble with Throat, Chest or Lungs. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to give relief, or money will be paid back. Sufferers from La Grippe found it just the thing and under its use had a speedy and perfect recovery. Try a sample bottle at our expense and learn for yourself just how good a thing it is. Trial bottles free at C. L. Cotting's Drug Store. Large size 50c, small 25c.

There was preaching at Penny Creek Sunday, by Rev. Lamb of North Branch. Part of the young folks spent Sunday evening at Mr. Aubushons' and the rest went to Mr. Dickersons.

M. Hutchison's family of Walnut Creek, were visiting Mr. Galbraiths folks the last of the week.

Mrs. Dickerson's mother and sister of Iowa is visiting her now.

Are your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. If given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this Remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 50 cent bottles for sale by Deyo & Grice.

South Side Echoes.

The weather continues fine, and the farmers are putting it to good use husking corn. Some fields yield well while others show a poor crop.

Rev. Horton preached at Pleasant Dale last Sunday night in the absence of Rev. Hummel, who is visiting the world's fair.

Miss Maud Rudd of Red Cloud is visiting Miss Edith Keagle this week.

Mrs. Weaver of Danbury, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. VanDyke. Messrs. Green and Coden of Walnut Creek, are putting in the Brown place to winter wheat.

The campaign seems quiet in our midst, it being a sure fact that Line will retain her title as banner township for republicanism in Webster county. The entire ticket will receive hearty support in these parts, and the nominee for sheriff, will not only get the support of the republicans, but will get a large populist vote in this section.

Quite a number of our citizens were in Red Cloud Tuesday eve, attending the Andrews speech.

Frank Street is able to be around again after a severe illness.

L. A. Haskins is laid up with rheumatism.

Inavale.

Leaves are falling from the trees.

The geese are going south,

'Tis just such gruesome things as this that makes me down the mouth.

But winter with its chilling blast, Brings this thought to my head,

The cold cannot forever last,

I'll be warmer when I'm dead.

The world's fair and its memory will soon be gone. Let it go; perhaps the time will come when the lucky one who saw it, will not be asked "did you see the Ferris wheel?"

At the chicken pie social at L. H. Luce's last week, $15 was cleared and given to Rev. Lawson.

Last week several of the shouters of the populist party came up from Red Cloud to brace up their brethren, with a big meeting; but unfortunately they met Mr. John Hardwick on the street, and in a fair square argument he done 'em all up. Crpt. Houchin and Stephen Bayless, were the principal pop speakers.

Miss Grace Thornton of Chicago, granddaughter of R. R. Pitney, who has been visiting here for several weeks, will return home this week. All who have formed her acquaintance will be sorry to have her depart.

Rev. Hancock is the new minister for this parish. He is an able man, and will no doubt be the cause of much good here during the year. Next Sunday at ten o'clock he will speak at the Inavale school-house, come and hear him.

Mr. L. C. Olmstead and family departed for their new home which will probably be in or near Santa Anna California. They have many well-wishers here, but I shall only speak of two. First Mr. Arthur Woolcott who wears a face, since their departure, as long as the pole in front of the Washington state building at the fair, and mournfully sings in a weak voice, the slightly changed words of the song:

"Darling Co, Darling Co,

I shall miss you this I know"

The other party is Mint Garner. He takes his loss quite philosophically, only occasional saying "he thinks he will have to get a new hat".

Prof Cramer gave a magic lantern show at the school house Saturday eve, which was well attended, and they say quite good. Before closing he kindly allowed those present to vote on the homeliest man and the most popular young lady in the room. Something like 300 votes were cast, at five cents each, of which Miss Barker received a majority, the Prof. presented her with a nice album. About as many votes were cast for the homeliest man, of which Mr. Arthur Wolcott received a handsome plurality, and was presented with a beautiful Jewsharp. There is no doubt but that the awards were made to the right ones. About 20 of the elite young people of the neighborhood enjoyed a nice dance at the residence of Mr. A. C. Hale, last Friday evening, the occasion being the birthday celebration of their daughter Emma.

World's Fair Poetry.

If of mud you are afraid
Just roll up your pants,
For you'll wish you'd longer stayed
In the Midway plianance.

ELI.

Speciman Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Caswell, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his Liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepparn, Harriaburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawaba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by C. L. Cotting, Druggist.

Our denizens were agreeably surprised, about 7 o'clock Saturday evening, to hear in the distance the sweet strains of a cornet band. Then people began to ask each other, what does that mean? And seeing the large procession coming up the street headed by a band. Many inquired, who are they? The mysterious and imposing procession marched to the front of the opera house, and halted where their band (consisting of boys) played one selection most beautifully, whereupon at its conclusion, one of their number advanced and commanded them to form in line, march to the train and go back as far as Blue Hill, where there would be speaking that night by Hon. Mr. Rogan of Hastings. This they proceeded to do, while the large and appreciative crowd of spectators looked after them inquiringly and wondered what the complimentary serenade meant. It soon appeared that they were mistaken in the appointment, and landed in Red Cloud instead of Blue Hill.

THE BEST PLEASER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by Deyo & Grice.
