Republican State Ticket.

For Supreme Judge, T. C. O. HARRISON, Grand Island. For Regents of the State University, H. D. ESTABROOK, Omaha. C. D. WESTON, Hay Springs. C. W. KALEY, Red Cloud.

Republican County Ticket.

For Treasurer, J. S. WHITE. For Clerk, L. H. FORT. For Sheriff, JOHN RUNCHEY. For Superintendent, D. M. HUNTER. For County Judge, D. F. TRUNKY. For Coroner, I. B. STANSER. For Surveyor, W. E. THORNE.

Republican City Ticket.

For Supervisor, A. H. KALEY. or Assessor, JOS. W. WARREN. For Justices of the Peace, SAM'L WEST, T. W. MENDENHAL. For Constables, G. A. MILLER, J. G. SAPP.

John B. Stanser will fill the office of county coroner with honor.

Vote for the best accountant in this county for county clerk. He is L. H. FORT.

Vote for T. O. C. Harrison for he is the ablest candidate that is running for supreme judge.

Remember W. E. Thorne, our candidate for county surveyor is one well qualified for the office, and should by all means be elected.

The hand of the populist was eminently visible in the selection of Dick Garber as an independent candidate for sheriff by petition.

The Sherman law is at last repealed by both houses. What next is as uncertain as the wind, except that congress will be in session for some time yet.

J. S. White the candidate for treasurer on the republican ticket, is making an excellent canvass, and will no doubt be rewarded with the number of votes required to elect.

D. F. Trunkey has already filled the office of county judge with marked credit. He will fill it again just as creditably if elected, and the voters should see to it that he is elected.

John Runchey is the republican candidate for sheriff, and a better selection could not have been made in the county. He is a staunch and reliable republican and has peculiar qualifications for that office. Vote for him.

D. M. Hunter is attending to the many duties devolving upon him in the office of county superintendent. But he will expect every voter who desires that office well administered, to go to the polls and give him their most hearty support.

Next Tuesday is election day. When you look at your ticket, you will find T. O. C. Harrison for supreme judge. The office is important; you want the best timber. He has shown more credentials than any other candidate, and his ability is far superior to his opponents. Vote for him.

Remember, without regard to party, it is but courtesy and justice to vote for our own Chas. Kaley for Regent of the State University. As the Hon. W. E. Andrews said in his speech the other night, "Mr. Kaley has always stood up for you and Webster county, now stand up for him." Give him every vote in the county.

Some one says voters do your duty. Now what is your duty? Is it your duty to support with your vote some astute monstrosity of humanity, who pictures in the caliginous future some munificent salary, and whose only aim is to attain that office regardless of his ability to discharge its duties? Vehemently no! There is too many unprincipled hegs of that character all ready imposing their disgraceful illiteracy and inability in public offices at the expense of the people now. Size up your candidates. Choose the ones that are intellectually qualified with honor in proportion, to fill the office to which they aspire with candor and equity. No honest man, with sound judgment as well, can conscientiously vote for another who is unqualified, and whose sole aim is to capture the salary attached to the office to which he is an aspirant. No honest and intelligent man will support such timber, and thereby sustain and perpetuate the most damnable impositions ever perpetrated on the masses; that of ignorant candidates.

AN ELOQUENT ADDRESS BY

The Polished and Earnest Hon. W. E. Andrews at the courthouse Tuesday night.

Owing to some difficulty in securing a house, it was not ascertained positively until Tuesday afternoon, whether the distinguished Mr. Andrews would speak here Tuesday night or not. Bills were struck that afternoon however, announcing his intention to speak at the court-house that night, and accordingly the house was filled to satiety. To assert that Mr. Andrews is eloquent, is not extolling in an adequate measure. His speech here, though with no extraordinary preparation or effort on his part, was a most masterly production, clear, concise, stastical, and delivered with such peculiar oratorical force, that every one present were profuse in their praise of the thorough, practical address to which they had listened. The speaker was introduced by attorney James Gilham, with very appropriate remarks, after which Mr. Andrews, immediately began his speech on the important political issues of the day. We regret that we cannot publish at least a part of his speech verbatim, but following are a few brief notes, indicating the line of thought followed by the speaker. The first question that presents itself is, what is it to be a republican? To be a republican is to be governed by the republican form of government, and to be an heir to the political faith of Hamilton, Blaine, and other prominent benefactors of the party. We do not hesitate to trace the republican party to its origin or refer to its administration at any time. They have given all equal rights. have made no distinction between colors, and have accomplished millions in the perpetuation of the government. What was the financial condition of the country in 1861 when the republican party assumed control of the financial affairs of the government? they found a depleted treasury, and the national credit at a discount. The standing army was in bad shape, and the national affairs were not in a very reassuring condition by any means. The straightening out of national affairs was not a frivolous task. The condition of affairs demanded the wisest thought of the wisest men. The national debt had reached the enormous sum of six billion eight hundred million dollars. The party eventually reclaimed the country. The republican party were not to blame for the indebtedness of the country.—Here the speaker gave some practical illustrations with different coins of ore which he obtained when visiting in the west last fall.—When Jefferson became president, he began the fixing of a money standard. Hamilton was secretary of the treasury, and they selected the standard dollar. This country had little commercial relation with England at that time. For information since that time take the record of commerce. We have nearly as much silver in circulation according to money, as gold. (a free silver coinage illustration) You take a load of wheat to the mill or and have it ground, and after the grinding is done he loads it back in your wagon, making full as much in weight and measure, as you had before the grinding. You ask him his price for the grinding and he charges you nothing; he then has the wagon box enlarged so as to hold half again as much, which he fills, and again you ask him his price and he tells you nothing; you then inquire the reason and he tells you that the company employing him instructs him to do business that way, and he did it as a cheerful duty. Then you ask him who is at the head of this company, and he tells you it is controlled by Uncle Sam. You mount your wagon and start home singing, when your neighbor hearing your cheerful song, asks the reason of his happiness, you explain the circumstances, and at once he wants some of the flour. You tell him that you have none to spare except for cash, and tell him to have his own wheat ground, and he replies—I haven't got any to grind. I want to add to the gold, all the silver that will remain at a parity with it. We believe in protection to American interests. By and by we shall have as firm a monetary system as the foundation of Pike's Peak. To the republican party, we can look for better legislation than any other. The speaker condemned the action of Senator Stewart of Nevada, for his action in congress, and his reluctance to stand boldly and acknowledge that he made a mistake. He charged each and every republican to stand by the party, to vote for Harrison and Kaley, and elect a full county ticket. We submit the above desultory gleanings, hoping that of the many people who were prevented from hearing his speech can form some faint idea of the address from an able and logical man.

LOCAL NEWS.

See Dr. Cullimore's date in Red Cloud. Seward Garber was in Omaha this week. M. L. King-land is on a prospecting tour in the west. Vote for Chas. L. Winfrey for constable, nominated by petition. L. M. Vance and family have moved to the L. H. Rust property. D. Best of Cowles, is here a few days, taking medical treatment of Dr McKeoby. Miss Katie Lear living south of Riverton, was visiting friends here last Monday. Alva Sellars, of the Nation, was up to Bladen and around the country this week. Miss Jennie Wilson a pleasant and accomplished teacher of Riverton, was shopping in this city Monday. Mr. A. C. Hosmer, wife and daughter Ethel have returned from a visit to the east and to the world's fair. Flour! Yes you can buy flour at the Produce Exchange, one door west of the post office from 60c. to $1.10 per sack. The republican meeting at Cowles Wednesday was an enthusiastic one, and Judge Witcox made an excellent speech on the issues of the day. Dr. Cullimore of Omaha, eye and ear Surgeon will meet patients in Red Cloud, at the office of Dr. McKeoby Tuesday November 21st. Grand fall and winter opening of cloaks and jackets at.—R. M. Martin and son, Tuesday and Wednesday November 7th and 8th. J. F. McGee, of Chicago. Teach your children how to save. Just think, one penny a week for a year will buy a large bottle of Haller's Sure Cure Cough Syrup and cure coughs for the whole family. For sale by Deyo & Grise. The Produce Exchange keeps the regular brands of the mill where the flour is made. We have none made expressly for us out of some inferior grade and sacked in a flashy sack with a high sounding name. J. A. Baum returned from Chicago Wednesday night, where he and wife have been attending the fair. Owing to the sickness of his little boy who is with relatives in Lincoln. Mrs. Baum will remain a few days in that place.

R. M. Martin and son are great advertisers, and as a consequence great dealers. We invite your attention to their advertisement this week, in which you will find many offers of bargains. It will pay you to see them at once. The wisest course in politics is to vote for the best man, and you cannot be mistaken. So, in the use of blood-purifiers, you can't be mistaken if you take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because all parties agree that it is the best—the Superior Medicine. Try it this month. The Relief committee of the churches of Red Cloud, will meet at the office of the County Supt. of Public Instruction, at the court house on Monday afternoon, November 6th, 1893, at one o'clock. Every member should be present. D. M. HUNTER, Pres. ROSE EMIGH, Sec. Hallowe'en eve has passed away, and we are not called to chronicle any serious damage done by mischievous nocturnal marauders in our city on that night. Many small houses were overturned, gates unhooked, buggies moved out of town, wagons turned over, signs pulled down etc., but no one hurt. It is a consoling thought that Hallowe'en only comes once a year. The little daughter of Mr Geo Scott died Tuesday after a short illness. Little Beuhla was but three year old and was a lovable child. She was taken sick but a few days ago, and in spite of the best medical skill, her constitution was beset by a complication of diseases resulting in her death. The interment took place at the Scott burying ground Thursday, and occasioned a large attendance. In their hour of bereavement The excellent family has the sympathy of the entire community. We believe that every citizen of this county irrespective of party should vote for D. M. Hunter for county superintendent. He filled the office for nearly three years, giving general satisfaction, has done school work in the county for nearly ten years, is a resident citizen of the county and as such has an interest in the advancement of the educational interests of the county. He knows every teacher, every school and is known personally and by reputation to all the people. Since the schools opened this fall, he has visited thirty two of them, has held six educational meetings, and has done the clerical work of his office besides. He will certainly be re-elected next Tuesday.

A FEW MORE.

L. Baum now of Chicago, is in this city again. Henry Kohler of Blue Hill is in this city this week. A. C. Hale and wife of Inavale were in the city Thursday. Boyd & Overing have been fixing up their marble work's office. Aug Zerwich the pope's candidate for sheriff, was in town this week. Go to Wrights for school-house heating stoves. Best in Red Cloud. Jule Sapp is making a vigorous campaign for the office of constable and will be elected. New method to learn German, Take Haller's little German Pills. For sale by Deyo & Grise. Mr. James Hale called at our den Thursday, and ordered Tax Cider sent to his brother in Mo. for a year. L. M. Crabill, proprietor of the street car line is having his cars nicely painted, which greatly beautifies their appearance. L. A. Haskings is crippled with rheumatism, but managed to hobble to this office, and renew his subscription with the hard collateral. The republicans go before the people with this issue of THE CHIEF with flattering prospects for the election of the entire state and county ticket. Ranney McNitt and A. M. Walters of Blue Hill made speeches to an enthusiastic crowd of republicans at the Wagoner school house, in Garfield township Wednesday night. The following are the new subscribers since our last issue: John Clark, J. Shreffler, Tipp Mann, James Hale, T. B. Hale, Miss Dora Henderson, J. Harwood and S. H. Pirtney. We learn just as we go to press that Mr. and Mrs. Blakeman living between Riverton and Franklin were driving near the railroad track when the train was coming east Friday, and the horses took fright and ran away, throwing them out and hurting them severely. D. M. Hunter, our popular candidate for county superintendent, requires no recommendation from other counties. His attainments as a scholar, and his efficient services in the office to which he will soon be elected the second term, have made a favorable impression on the people of our county, and they will see that he is not defeated. The "Si Perkins" theatrical troupe held the boards at the opera house last Tuesday night to a large audience. Mr. Burton would be classed among the best of his profession as a comedian, but had very poor support. They introduced but one specialty during the evening, that being an excellent cornet solo. The scenery was first class, and the orchestra was one of the best on the road.

Eye and Ear. Dr. Cullimore consultant oculist to Mo. Pac. railroad at Omaha, will be at the office of Dr. McKeoby in Red Cloud, November 21st, Tuesday for consultation and treatment of diseases of the eye and ear, and scientific fitting of spectacles. For Sale. A fine young stallion, iron grey, high grade, about 1200 pounds, gentle and will work in team. Cash or good note. See, GEO W BARKER OR H E FORD. Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkon, Ky, for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Deyo & Grise.

A. R. R. Amboy, Red Cloud and Riverton, make us good flour as is made in that state. Why buy foreign made flour when you can get just as good a make at home, and thereby make a better market for the farmers' wheat. You will find all brands made at the above mills at McNitt's Produce exchange.

For Farm Loans

Use Haller's Barb Wire Liniment for all cuts on cattle and horses; it is the best on earth. For sale by Deyo & Grise. Boarding. I will furnish first class board at my house one block north of the Holland house, for $3.50 per week. MRS. FRANK DICKERSON. Mr. Moore, the postmaster at Bradshaw, Va., after reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, concluded to try a small bottle of it. He says: "I used it in two cases for colic and three for diarrhoea with perfect satisfaction. I have handled and used a great deal of patent medicine but never tried any that gave as good results as this." For sale by Deyo & Grise. Remember that L. P. Albright sells more flour than any other store in Webster county. If you want flour see him for he keeps the best.

Severe Case of Sore Throat. "I will tell you what I have found Hood's Sarsaparilla to be. It cured me of a severe case of Sore Throat, and although I had medical attendance, he failed to do any better. It was the only remedy that cured me. I have since used it in several other cases, and when the best physicians have failed, it has cured them." The Pain Was Terrible. The trouble was in my legs, and we were afraid they would have to be amputated. My grandmother urged us to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, but we thought it was of no use, as we had spent hundreds of dollars, which had proven useless; but father said, "We will try a bottle." Soon after Julius began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the pain disappeared, and in a short time he was perfectly cured." EMMA CHASE, 61 Park St., 27th Ward, Cleveland, O. Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient, yet easy in action. Sold by all druggists. 25c.

Republican Valley Association.

The Republican Valley Association of Congregational churches held its annual meeting at this place, commencing Tuesday, October 31st. Twenty churches were represented by thirty-nine delegates and ministers. The more important discussions and addresses were on themes as follows: Sermon, The Incomparable Christ, Rev. H. S. MacAyeal of Cambridge. Responsibility of Churches for the Intellectual Awakening of the Young, Prof. A. B. Fairchild of Doane College. Work of the Sunday-school, Rev. J. D. Stewart of Aurora. The Field, the Force, the Work, Rev. H. Bross of Lincoln. Review, "The Larger Christ," Rev. Francis Lawson of Riverton. Rural Evangelization was discussed by Rev's G. E. Taylor, A. E. Ricker, E. L. Ely, H. D. Platt, J. H. Beitel, W. P. Pease, Mr. R. M. Cochrane and others. The Sabbath, its obligation and proper observance, was discussed with much spirit by Rev. H. S. MacAyeal, Rev. A. E. Ricker and others. The women's meeting on Thursday morning was a marked feature of the gathering. At this session addresses were made by Mrs. A. C. Hart of Franklin and Mrs. S. C. Dickerson of Red Cloud. At the closing session, resolutions were passed, expressing the appreciation of the association and of the cordial hospitality of the people of Red Cloud. For the cure of headache, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, and all derangements of the digestive and assimilative organs, Ayer's Pills are invaluable. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take, always reliable, and retain their virtue in any climate. The killing of Mayor Harrison in Chicago, was one of the most dastardly deeds that ever blackened the pages of American history. No punishment could be so severe for the arrogant demon. Remember the nature of your national vote does not govern your action in the county election. Vote for the men who are qualified. These men are to be found on the republican ticket.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On last Thursday, Thomas McCartney a well known and successful farmer, living about five miles south of the river in Smith county, Kan., came to town, and about 3 p. m. started home. His team was rather fractious, and when nearing the railroad tracks, took fright at the moving cars, and ran across the tracks, and fell into the lines with the engine, a fall that until the moment which was his fate, he had not struck a rough place, and a bolted out. Getting out the front end, he went between the horse, and would probably have been crushed, had it not been for getting tangled in the lines, thus dragging him for a long distance under the horses which were frightened by his presence so near their heads. He himself became loosened, and was forced, notwithstanding the cold, to be picked up by the team went speeding home, and carried to Dr. Moranville's office where it was found one of his ribs was fractured, and a compound fracture of the other rib in the left shoulder, and was otherwise seriously injured about the neck and face. He received the best medical attention, and at last accounts was doing well.

Don't Forget! That's what Brody's Pills called out to him—don't forget to get a bottle of Haller's Sarsaparilla, it's so nice. For sale by Deyo & Grise.

ERROR CHIEF.—I see the republicans of your county have placed in the field as a candidate for treasurer, an old Iowa boy J. B. White he is not only white by name, but white by nature, a true fighting republican from "away back."—Mr White was for twelve years a citizen among us, a christian gentleman, an honest industrious public spirited republican; he is a man that will let no vegetation grow under his feet in whatever the undertakes. He is unassuming and practical and will make the county a vigorous successful treasurer. His old friends are glad to hear of his nomination and will be better pleased to know of his election. B. F.
