

KILLED AT THE POLLS

REVOLVERS USED FREELY AT THE CITY ELECTION IN TROY, N. Y.

The Trouble Began Over a Crowd of Repeaters Attempting to Vote—Mayor Wheelan Says It Was Caused by the Work of Senator Murphy's Healers.

Troy, N. Y., March 7.—A mayor was elected in this city Tuesday, but the record of the election is spotted with blood and scenes such as the oldest resident in Troy has no recollection of. In a darkened room in a family residence lies the body of Robert Ross, who left his home in the morning to aid in the election of the candidate that the Republican party had endorsed.

GENERAL JUBAL A. EARLY DEAD.

Passed Away Quietly in the Presence of His Family at Lynchburg, Va., March 5.—General Jubal A. Early, died Friday night at 10:30. He passed away quietly in the presence of his family and physician, his kindred and several intimate friends.

GENERAL JUBAL A. EARLY. Lieutenant in 1837, appointed a lieutenant of artillery and assigned to duty at Fort Monroe, Va. He saw service in the Florida war in 1837-8, and in the latter year resigned from the army and began the practice of law in Virginia.

Judge Jenkins Listens to Arguments. MILWAUKEE, March 8.—Judge Jenkins is listening to arguments on the application of Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Murphy's Healers Blamed. John Ross said: "I did not fire a pistol. It was murder; deliberate murder; and it was premeditated. Only about an hour and a half before, this man Shea struck my brother, William, full in the face."

OMAHA GROCER SHOT BY A BURGLAR. Frank Ribak Probably Fatally Wounded For a Few Dollars.

Disastrous Blaze at Deadwood. Every Building From the Nye Block to Chinatown in Ashes.

Latest Markets by Wire. Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago Live Stock. CATTLE—Prices were not subject to any considerable change.

South Omaha Live Stock. SOUTH OMAHA, March 8.—CATTLE—Receipts, 2,400 head; 1900 lbs., $3.75 @ 4.25.

TOLD IN A FEW WORDS

EVENTS OCCURRING IN ALL SECTIONS SUMMARIZED.

The Many Happenings of Seven Days Recalled From Columns to Lines—Everything but Facts Eliminated For Our Readers' Convenience.

Thursday, March 8. George Kelley of Galesburg, Ill., aged 9 years, was killed by a falling derrick.

Michigan tax title sharks have been set back by the supreme court finding that such sales are invalid.

Rev. John T. Kellam, of Norfolk, O., one of the oldest Methodist preachers in that state, has become insane.

John Black and ex-Senator Howdill of Barboursville, Ky., accuse C. F. Davidson, ex-governor of the Cumberland Valley bank, of defrauding them of $17,000.

Indiana officials are investigating the prevalence of smallpox in Chicago and may quarantine against the World's fair city.

By a change in the Missouri's channel the big draw at Omaha is now over a sandbar. Navigation is blocked.

Charles A. Barcher and George Howard of the Travelers' Protective association, are collecting money at Pittsburg for a sanitarium for disabled drummers.

At Linden, Mich., near Flint, a platform collapsed and 25 or 30 persons were more or less injured.

While some men were raising a telegraph pole at Clarksville, Tenn., the pole fell on John Wilson, killing him.

At Aurora, Ill., the 2-year-old daughter of John Beller, fell into a pan of hot water and was scalded to death.

McMooan at a dance at Union, Ill., Sept. 23, 1893

Jesse Hickman, a farmer near Glasgow, Ala., cut down a tree near his home. In falling it struck his two daughters, killing one and so injuring the other that she died.

Sam A. Risley, ex-postmaster at West Plains, Mo., committed suicide at Springfield, Mo.

By an explosion in the barrel works of Moosic Powder works one man was killed and three seriously injured.

Omaha gamblers are said to contemplate establishing a Monte Carlo at East Omaha, which is partly located in two states.

At the request of Illinois comrades Thomas G. Lawler has consented to the use of his name for commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.

Rev. Dr. R. W. Patterson was buried from the Second Presbyterian church at Chicago, of which he was for 32 years pastor.

The 2-year-old son of John Ringers was burned to death at Paine, Ill.

James Oglesbee, 18 years old, died at Independence, Ia., from the effects of a fall from a gymnasium trapeze Nov. 7.

General Longstreet speaks contemptuously of the military ability of General Early.

Mrs. Ellen Royce shot twice at G. O. Boyd at Clarksville, Tenn., but missed him.

Mrs. Lease has started quite a craze to become Masons among the women of Kansas.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Bland's Seigniorage Measure Passed by the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The deadlock in the house was broken Wednesday after two weeks of continuous filibustering against the Bland seigniorage bill, and no sooner had the quorum been procured than the house managers brought in a special order to crush the filibustering and bring the bill to a direct vote after two hours of additional debate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The senate held a two-hour session Wednesday, the whole of which was given to a speech by Senator Frye in opposition to President Cleveland's Hawaiian policy.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The long struggle in the house over the Bland bill for the coinage of the silver seigniorage and the silver bullion in the treasury was ended Thursday by passing the bill by a vote of 167 to 139, a majority in favor of the bill of 37.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—A controversy which seemed imminent in the senate Thursday owing to Mr. Voorhes resolution proposing that Mr. Mills of Texas be temporarily assigned to the committee of finance in the absence of Senator Vance was disputed by the withdrawal of the resolution at the request of the senator from Texas.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The house Friday entered upon the consideration of appropriation bills. The fortification bill footing up something over $2,000,000 passed and then the pension appropriations came up.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—In the house today two private bills were passed by unanimous consent, one on motion of Mr. Richardson (Tenn.) to pension Fanny Norman and the other on motion of Mr. Curtis (Kan.) to pension Andrew Franklin, a captain in Captain Armstrong's company in the war of 1812.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The debate on the pension appropriation bills continued all day in the house Monday and at times considerable spirit was manifested. The principal speakers were Messrs. Dooliver, Hepburn, Enloe and Cannon.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The senate held a short session Monday and but little business of importance was transacted. A brief fight was precipitated by the intention expressed by the vice president to refer the Bland seigniorage bill to the finance committee.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—A somewhat amusing episode enlivened the senate proceedings Tuesday inaugurated by Senator Berry's personal explanation. A New York newspaper has included him in a group of portraits of nine Democratic senators whom it charged with being "obstructionists" to the tariff bill.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The debate on the pension appropriation bill was continued Tuesday in the house, the feature of the day being General Sickle's speech criticising the action of Commissioner Lochren.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The debate on the pension appropriation bill was continued Tuesday in the house, the feature of the day being General Sickle's speech criticising the action of Commissioner Lochren.

NEWS OF NEBRASKA.

BRIEF BUT PITHY MENTION OF THE HAPPENINGS OF A WEEK.

News Which Tell the Story of Seven Days' Crimes and Casualties and Other Important Matters Arranged Attractively and Given in a Few Words.

Taken to the Penitentiary. NEBRASKA CITY, March 7.—Charles Tolliver and Joseph Wachler were taken to the penitentiary to serve terms of 16 and 12 months respectively.

White Will Pay His Fine. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 5.—Z. T. White, convicted of libeling Secretary Morton, was put in jail until he consented to pay his fine of $300.

Otoe County Pioneer Gone. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., March 5.—Lathrop Ellis, a resident of Otoe county for the last quarter of a century, died at his home near this city, aged 76.

Convicted of Abusing His Child. BEATRICE, March 5.—John Baker was found guilty under an indictment for incest, his daughter being his victim. Three days was consumed in the trial of the case.

Death of Mrs. Elijah Yates. NEBRASKA CITY, March 6.—Mrs. Elijah Yates, a resident of this city since 1854, died. The deceased was a sister of Major J. W. Postman and well known throughout the state.

Bryan Will Talk at Doane. CRETE, Neb., March 8.—Hon. W. J. Bryan has been engaged by Doane college to deliver an address before the class in political economy Friday on the subject of bimetallism.

Death of an Old Citizen. FREMONT, Neb., March 6.—Jackson Williams, 66 years of age, a well known and highly respected citizen has died. Deceased leaves a wife, but no children. His estate is valued at $150,000.

Voted Bonds For Waterworks. FRIEND, Neb., March 7.—Friend held the most exciting election ever had in the city in regard to voting bonds for a system of waterworks. There were 187 in favor of waterworks and 81 against.

Dawson Mills Burned. DAWSON, Neb., March 7.—The Dawson flouring mills, built within a year at a cost of $15,000, was totally destroyed by fire. Only a small amount of insurance was carried. Incendiarism is suspected.

One Postmaster to Resign. NEBRASKA CITY, March 8.—Postmaster Frank E. Pelvey has announced his determination to resign and will forward his resignation to Washington at once. This sudden move is due to business arrangements.

Champion Corbett Not Guilty. JACKSONVILLE, March 8.—After being out 15 minutes the jury found Corbett not guilty.

McNabb's Victim Is Dead. PITTSBURG, March 3.—Mrs. Louise Rockwell, the actress shot by Pitcher McNabb, is dead.

Letter threatening his life was received by Rev. Mr. Hamp of Terre Haute, who in a sermon accused Catholics of conspiracy.

County commissioners at Lafayette, Ind., reject the petition of 2,170 taxpayers asking them to appropriate $60,000 to rebuild the engineering laboratory at Purdue university.

County commissioners at Lafayette, Ind., reject the petition of 2,170 taxpayers asking them to appropriate $60,000 to rebuild the engineering laboratory at Purdue university.

County commissioners at Lafayette, Ind., reject the petition of 2,170 taxpayers asking them to appropriate $60,000 to rebuild the engineering laboratory at Purdue university.