Dedicatory Services.

The dedication services of the Christian church at Cowles were held last Sunday, Prof. Givens officiating. Owing to the fine weather the people were able to come from all parts of the surrounding country. Red Cloud, Blue Hill, Guide Rock, Inavale and Amboy were well represented. At 11 o'clock the church was filled with people. Elder Putman took for his text Hebrews 11:6, and spoke upon the principle of faith, showing its effect on the world in the history of the past and present. We give some of the points made:

"The life of Enoch was painted out by the Apostle as a life of faith and yet the writer of Genesis made no mention of faith in giving the biography of his life. His life pleased God, and without faith it is impossible to please Him. Wherever you find a stream you know there must somewhere be a fountain. Wherever you find a man walking in the favor of God and loved of God you know he must be a man of faith.

Nature, herself, points us to faith. Where reason ends, there faith begins. The man who looks up into the heavens and sees a few stars with the naked eye and then puts the mighty telescope to his eye, which brings to his vision numberless stars before un- seen, does not throw away the natural eye as being of no account. So, when man looks about him and sees the im- pressed will of God in the rock, with the tree and the flower, he is able to reason that there is an intelligent being who has planned all this wonder- ful creation, but when he puts the telescope of faith to his eye, and says by faith we understand that the world was framed by the word of God, so that things which are were not made from things which do appear. He does not discredit the reason that taught him about the Creator. Faith is the energy of this world in motion. In all ages it has been men who believed; who have made their lives felt in the world.

The great difference in the world is a difference between faith and un- belief. Some men are true, others false; some have a purpose, others are drifted about by every current that blows. The difference is a difference between faith and unbelief. We feel this difference in our association with men, but how much more God feels it. The Savior illustrated this when he spoke of two men praying. One prayed because it was his custom; the other because he believed, and while the latter's prayer wasn't clothed in nice language, yet God heard it and blessed him.

The highest enthusiasm that will ever be kindled, the dimmest thrill that will ever quicken the human heart will always be the thought of pleasing God."

At the close of the morning service the Cowles people royally entertained all who came from a distance. At the afternoon service the church was filled and many were unable to gain admittance at all. Elder Putman spoke from Matt. 16:18.

He spoke of the Divine foundation of the Church of Christ, the beginning of the church, the New Testa- ment as being the Divine Creed of the church, the unity of the church, the organization of the church, and the church in the past and present.

Enough money was then raised to pay for the church building with the exception of about $150. The propos- al to build a new church was started about one year ago when the Chris- tians found themselves obliged to meet in Mr. Hager's grove. At that time it was expected that the building would cost about $800, and, owing to the hard times, it seemed a big under- taking. By their diligent efforts, however, and the generous assistance of friends outside of the church they were able to push to completion the handsome building they now occupy which cost, in round numbers, $1450. The amount of cash actually paid out was about $1200, the rest being do- nated in work.

Fuller and Gilbert were large don- ors to the cause. Too much credit could not be given to E. L. Fawcett who was chairman of the building committee, the other members being C. W. Fuller, and Henry Waller. This church was organized by W. H. Winters and the work has been car- ried on by Eld. Putman, who has been driving to Cowles in the after- noon, while preaching at Red Cloud. He found there about 16 members they now number about 50. There is cer- tainly a bright future for these earnest people.

The evening service was well atten- ded and the meetings are being car- ried on this week by Eld. Putman, assisted by Prof. Givens.

A Good showing.

MR. EDITOR.—Six months ago I came to Red Cloud. Having been appointed by "Bishop Walden" Pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church in this city. We were received with great kindness by the people. Thus far we have found it a very pleasant church to serve. Every Sab- bath we are greeted with large congregations of very intelligent people.

Congregations and Sabbath school numerical strength greatly increased. Sabbath school numbers 165, and is in a very prosperous condition. Epworth and Junior Leagues are succeeding fine. Thirty-five have been received into the church in the past six months.

Finance is in splendid condition; no old bills for janitor or other purposes are pressing us. Under leadership of L. P. Albright we have one of the best choirs in the city. All are wel- come to our services. Come let us wor- ship together.
