

Spring Goods! Arriving!

Throw off the heavy Winter Shoes and Buy Something Suitable.

We can truthfully say that a better line of desirable footwear has never been offered the people of Red Cloud than is now to be found in our Store and

At prices lower than you have been obliged to pay heretofore.

Working shoes, Oxford Slippers, Fine
Heavy, coarse. See them, buy them.

BLAKESLEE & KALEY.

THIS IS HOW IT STANDS.

In Webster County, Nebraska, according to the American Newspaper Directory for 1894, now in press, the Red Cloud Chief has a larger regular issue than any other paper.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

Page 1—Forecasts, Educational column, Shade Trees, Pleasant Party.
" 2—Talmage's Sermon, etc.
" 3—Dedication Cowles Church, Pleasant Entertainment D. of V. A Good Showing, etc.
" 4—Editorial, City News, etc.
" 5—City News in General.
" 6—Correspondence,
" 7—Miscellaneous.
" 8—State and General.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Rich was in Guide Rock Sunday.
Miss Belle Spanogle is home from her school.

Austin Riley of Lawrence was on our streets Saturday.

Miss Laura McBride is home from a month's visit.

The assessors are getting in their work all over the county.

Dr. J. S. Emigh and family visited in the country on Sunday.

O. C. Teel is getting up a county directory of Webster county.

Jon. W. Warren and W. W. Wright are putting in city water.

Mrs. Peck, daughter of Dr. Spencer, arrived from Kansas City this week.

Charley Robinson and wife and Miss Sarah White were in Cowles Sunday.

Donald Warren, who has been in Gage county during the winter, has returned to Red Cloud.

Isaac Ludlow has moved his family into the Henderson property, where he will live for the coming year.

D. J. Judson has been on the sick list for some time, but is able to be about again, which we are pleased to note.

We hope that Mayor Roby will see to it that the horrible sidewalks of Red Cloud are taboed during his administration.

Mrs. Harmon of Bloomington, Mrs. Shepard of Guide Rock, who were visiting with their mother, Mrs. Rich have returned to their respective homes.

Red Cloud boy.—"We got'er hen over our house, wot's a great jumper?"

Mary Ann—"How's that Johnny?"

"Why'er jumps two feet at'er time."

The "audible" smile of Frank Cowden our new postmaster was heard on our streets this week. Frank is receiving the congratulations of his friends on his good fortune.

Warner & Warren, real estate agents, have dissolved partnership, and J. C. Warner, will continue the business. Joe is a rustler and is selling some choice lands in Webster county.

Phoenix like, the Plattsmouth Herald has risen out of its ashes, by which it became "incorrigible" some weeks ago. We wish the Herald a long life and many years respite from the fiery demon.

It seems to us that the city is fooling away its money when it continues to put up sheet iron smoke stacks at the water station and have them blow down and burn out every two or three months. Why not build a brick one and save money.

Mr. Winters and family, Mr. Morhart and family, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Putman, Misses Lillie and Pearl Smith, Flossie Ranney, Jessie McKeehan, Bertha Talbot, Ida Butcher, and Messrs. Henry Clark, Irving Cummings Elmer Simons, Frank Goble and Horace Spanogle were in Cowles on Sunday attending the dedication of the Christian church at that place.

Our new city officers should display a generous amount of enthusiasm all along the line this year, and if possible make Red Cloud hum as she has never hummed before. A just and equitable financial basis should be adopted, one that will not be narrowly contracted nor niggardly dispensed with, but upon the broad basis of enterprise and thrift and general "pushitiveness" that is compatible with the interests of a growing city and a substantial commercial center.

BRIEF MENTION.

Joe Williams was in the city Friday.
J. L. Greenlee was in the city Tuesday.

Garden making is all the rage just now.

John Tomlinson returned from Omaha Saturday.

F. E. Goble was in Lincoln on business this week.

Rev. Snow of Bladen was in the city Wednesday.

T. W. Auld was in Denver this week on business.

Rev. G. W. Hummel left for Smith Center Tuesday.

Oscar Patmor is suffering with hemorrhage of the lungs.

L. H. Beckwith is a new subscriber to the Great Family Weekly.

Dr. Chamberlain was visiting in Clyde Kan., the fore part of the week.

J. Wratten of Bladen dropped in this week and paid up to '96. Thanks.

Miss Carrie Brakefield, who is teaching school at Hastings is home on a visit.

The election on Tuesday was one of the most spirited held for years in Red Cloud.

J. C. Warner has all the vacant houses in town for rent. If you want one call on him.

Miss Atwater returned from Fairfield Saturday, where she has been spending vacation.

Anyone wanting a good wheel right cheap will do well to apply at this office; or will trade.

Chancy Warner returned to Lincoln Tuesday after a short vacation to his home in this city.

With a good rain our farmers will be prepared to plant an increased acreage of corn and other cereals.

April fool day came on Sunday, but the children did not forget to get in the usual amount of foolishness.

J. Wratten, one of the prominent citizens of Bladen, was in Red Cloud this week, and while here made this office a cordial visit.

G. S. Green, one of the old timers in this vicinity, returned from California Tuesday where he has been taking in the mid-winter fair.

Joe Grandstaff and wife of Bladen were in the city this week. Mr. Grandstaff is a prominent farmer of the north part of the county.

The Misses Waddell, who were visiting at their home in Aurora during vacation, returned Saturday to take up their duties at this place.

Our business men are all busy with the opening of spring in meeting the demands of an increasing business, and the return of prosperous times.

Now is your chance to have a suit made to order cheap at Wiener's. Ten per cent reduction on all suits ordered during the month of April for cash.

Howard Reynolds of Inavale was the victim of a serious accident on last Monday. While shelling corn he was caught in the power and had one of his feet badly crushed.

The people of Red Cloud ought to take pains to clean up their premises and put them in shape for spring. A little painting and cleaning makes a town look nice. Try it property holders.

Some of our moneyed men ought to put up some nice dwelling houses in Red Cloud to rent. People can not get good houses to live in at present, the demand is so great. It would be a paying project.

The S. of V. band gave an open air concert Saturday evening, which was largely attended, the streets being crowded with music-loving people. The band is now learning some fine pieces of high class music, and we predict a grand future for them.

Monday evening about nine o'clock the rapid fires of the fire bell created a deal of excitement among the quiet denizens of our city. After obtaining the hose carts and dragging them up one street and down another until the suburbs were reached, the fire was located somewhere between one and nineteen miles out on the prairie. The boys were afraid they couldn't get water, so concluded to go no farther.

A FEW EXTRA.

For calomining see F. P. Hadley.
Miss Grace Fort is home from Lincoln.

H. W. Ranney was in Riverton this week.

L. P. Albright returned from Lincoln Friday night.

If needing spectacles see Dr. Cullimore in April.

Clark Storey of Cowles was on our streets this week.

Any one in need of carriage painting should call on F. P. Habley.

Chancy Warner came home from Lincoln Friday night on a visit.

The scan. mag. case at Blue Hill was decided in favor of the plasterer.

F. P. Hadley will hang your paper cheaper than any other man in town.

The public schools have again taken up their work after a week's vacation.

Fireman Tubbs and wife, who have been east on a visit, returned Friday night.

Attorney Walters of Blue Hill was doing business at the county seat on Monday.

The elected candidates for office were duly serenaded by the band Tuesday evening.

Frank Cowden's appointment as postmaster at Red Cloud has been confirmed by the senate.

Miss Campbell returned from Alma Saturday evening, where she has been on a short vacation.

Election is over. The republicans keep up their rep. Hur-r-r-r-r-raw oysters for the democrats.

Ten per cent reduction will be made on all suits to order at Wiener's during the month of April for cash.

Go to McNitt for your Mammoth Clover, German Millet and White Russian oats if you want good seed.

Wanted—Fifty head of cattle to pasture this summer; 25c per head per month.—U. G. Knight, Inavale, Neb.

We will pay you 27 cents for corn and sell you goods cheaper than any merchant dare sell you.—Chicago Clothing Co.

SEE DR. CULLIMORE, Eye and Ear Surgeon, meets patients in Red Cloud, April 23d and 24th with Dr. McKeeby.

Reform is the watch word, Retrenchment the cry; We'll save up our money, Root hog or die.

Mrs. Cheetham has returned home from Red Cloud, where she has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Stoffer.—Burr Oak Herald.

Three buggy loads of Modern Woodmen of America of this city visited their Guide Rock brethren on Monday evening. The boys had a big time.

The wind is still in full effect And comes with awful force; It blows your eyes plum full of dirt And makes your language coarse.

E. J. Overing, of the Red Cloud Marble and Granite Works, was in the city on Wednesday of this week and made this office a pleasant call.—Republican City Democrat.

Clarence Jones has received sufficient guarantee to start his bath house, and is now preparing the rooms for that purpose. He expects to be ready for business in about two weeks.

Dr. Beck received a sample of "forbidden fruit" from Florida this week which resembles a very small tomato, and the doctor took great pleasure in fooling a number of our people with it.

We have been informed that postmaster Cowden has determined on leaving the postoffice where it is. This will settle the fear entertained by some that it was to be moved to other quarters.

Last week's Red Cloud CHIEF was a "hummer." Printed on tinted paper, and full to over-flowing with the brightest new "ads." The CHIEF is a splendid paper by the way.—Burr Oak Herald.

Fred McKeeby returned from Omaha Tuesday evening, where he has just graduated and is now a full fledged M. D. THE CHIEF hopes that in all his trials through life Fred will have lots of "patience."

There should be many public improvements for the coming year. The sidewalks should be repaired, the water mains should be extended, the houses should be numbered and the streets lettered. We must get there.

The Red Cloud Chief, one of the enterprising all home print papers of our sister state, Nebraska, is printed on colored paper in celebration of Easter every week. The CHIEF is a newspaper in every sense of the word.—Smith Center Journal.

The people of Webster county should make extra efforts to make the Webster county fair a success. Of course we can't have a Midway Plaisance, or a Grecian Paristyle or things like that, but we can have a grand exhibition if people will take hold of the fair in earnest.

Miss Clara McMillan has been wisely retained as deputy by our new postmaster, Frank Cowden. Miss McMillan has served the public faithfully for seven years as deputy postmistress and her selection for four years more at a raise in salary, is just about right, and Mr. Cowden is to be congratulated on securing her services.

CITY NEWS.

Mrs. P. W. Shen is in St Joe on a visit.

Ernest Bolton was in Omaha this week.

Charley Besse was in Kansas City this week.

John Polinsky returned from Omaha Monday.

Go and see the bargain shoe counter at Wiener's.

Dr. Saunders returned from Beaver City Sunday.

M. R. Bentley is building an addition to his residence.

N. W. Kingsland was in Omaha on business this week.

Thad McNitt and Harry Gebble were in Superior Sunday.

Go and see Calmes for all kinds of bread, cakes, candies, &c.

See Dr. Cullimore's dates in Red Cloud with Dr. McKeeby.

The lunch room at the depot is being refitted with a new platform.

Mr. Grusel of Blue Hill was in Red Cloud this week on business.

Earl Arnold, one of Red Cloud's former boys, is visiting in the city.

Mrs. Chas. Platt departed Monday for a visit with relatives in Long Island.

Wm. Irons of Inavale and U. G. Knight were pleasant callers this week.

Misses Nellie and Jessie Walsh returned Saturday to their home in Stockham.

Miss Margaret Miner now glides around the city on a handsome new safety.

Miss Addie Reigle returned to Hebron Saturday to take charge of her school at that place.

The lawn tennis grounds are now completed and the young folks are enjoying themselves.

See J. B. Wright for new and second hand furniture. His prices for new goods are way down.

EYE and EAR SURGEON, Dr. Cullimore in Red Cloud on April 23d and 24th with Dr. McKeeby.

Tommy Penman has beautified his residence property with a nice fence and many trees of various kinds.

More goods are being sold for a dollar at the Chicago Clothing Store than any where else in this country.

Curt Evans has everything you want in the second-hand furniture line. See him Blue Front, south Webster street.

Miss Nettie Hunter, of Rushville, Indiana, sister of County Superintendent Hunter of this city, is visiting here.

The Haskell & Bosworth Produce company shipped four carloads of eggs last week. Eggs seem to be plentiful after Easter.

H. C. Probasco, one of the teachers in the first ward schools has resigned and the board has elected Prof. McCrary to fill his position.

Everything in hats just received all the new styles and colors; elegant line of childrens caps; all the new novelties at the Chicago Store.

J. A. Tulleys was in Norfolk this week attending the state encampment of the Knights Templar. He represented Cyrene Commandry of this city.

Cyrene Commandry Knight Templars elected officers this week as follows: Robt. Cochrane, E. C.; C. W. Kaley, Generalissimo, D. M. Platt, C. G.

J. Tedmore Colvin, the well-known piano tuner, is in the city attending to the pianos he has charge of. He thoroughly understands his business.

The suspect, arrested for house-breaking, gave his name as Charley Dunn. He was taken before Judge West and the case was continued until Monday.

Remember our childrens clothing is cheaper and better made than ever. Reinforced seats and knees, elegant patterns and low prices.—Chicago Clothing Company.

Mr. C. S. Bennett of Lincoln has moved to Red Cloud. He will live in the Friable property in the north part of the city. THE CHIEF welcomes him to Red Cloud.

Cheapest suits ever shown new ready for you every suit at lowest prices, workmanship best in the country and best fitting goods ever brought to the city.—Chicago Clothing Store.

Dan Lindsey is boring a well on the Griffith's farm west of Red Cloud on what is known as the Barber west eighty. Dan is going until he finds water if it is a thousand feet, but he expects to get a flowing well long before that.

J. Rushton, J. Sanborn, C. S. Bennett, L. H. Beckwith, Mrs. Shear and numerous others have added their names to THE CHIEF this week. We should like to make our list 2000 this year, and, if a good all home print paper is any incentive, we are bound to do so.

Our particular friend, Ted Colvin, the piano tuner, went out hunting this week near Amboy. He went after game and he got it. He saw some tame ducks in the creek and, thinking they were wild, fired and killed three. Just about that time the owner appeared on the scene, and Ted says that afternoon's sport cost $1.10 per head, total $3.30, and the farmer kept the ducks. He says next time he will look out for ducks and shoot jay birds.

The Golden Eagle Clothing House.

Established 1883.

BETTER BARGAINS IN MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING WERE NEVER OFFERED THAN WE ARE OFFERING THIS SEASON.

Hard times prices prevail with us.

Call and see for yourself.

C. WIENER, Proprietor.

A FEW TREWTHS.

Read Miner Bros., new advertisement this week.

Jan. Pickering of Utah was in the city this week.

Dr. Chamberlain went to Blue Hill Wednesday.

Mr. Graham has moved into the Tomlinson property.

A great many new families are locating in Red Cloud.

J. L. Miner shipped a carload of hogs to Omaha this week.

Wiener has put in a bargain shoe counter. Call and see it.

Remember that McNitt keeps both the top and bottom onion sets.

Go to J. B. Wright's for fine new and second hand goods, Moon block.

Miss Veda Shepard of Bloomington was visiting Mrs. Rich this week.

New designs in gasoline stoves that beat the world at W. W. Wright's.

Miss Beulah Grimm is back from Republican City, where she has been visiting.

Two pair of pants with each suit and cap to match, they are bargains.—Chicago Store.

You can buy shoes at two-thirds the original price at Wiener's bargain shoe counter.

Read Miner Bros. advertisement in another column and see what you can get for $2.50.

World's fair portfolios at Miner Bros. with every $2.50 purchase. Read their ad in this issue.

Plow shoes at 75 cents, $1.00, $1.25, $1.35. All excellent bargains at these prices, at Wiener's.

Charley Platt is moving his dwelling to the center of his lots, and otherwise beautifying his home.

Little Seward and Bessie Jones of Pawnee City are visiting at the residence of R. M. Martin this week.

Wiener is ready to take your measure for a spring suit. Piece goods and samples are all in. Please call.

J. A. Tulleys of this city was elected Right Eminent Grand Commander of the Knight Templars of the state.

The town has been infested this week with foreign rug vendors. Nine times out of ten people pay these fellows twice as much as they can be purchased for at our stores.

Last evening a large number of young folks made a very agreeable surprise party on Mrs. Tubbs, sister of Mrs. A. G. Willis, at the latter's residence. The evening was spent in playing games music, etc., and last, but not least, a fine supper. All present report a splendid time.

PENCIL PICKINGS.

See those new refrigerators as Wright's The first book printed was the bible.

S. F. Spokesfield was in Guide Rock this week.

Mrs. Frank Smith was in Salem, Kansas, this week.

E. H. Price of Blue Hill was in Red Cloud this week.

A sister of Mrs. M. R. Bentley arrived in the city this morning.

Missoula, Mont., laborers are boycotting people who patronize the Chinese

E. A. Hall formerly of Red Cloud will be here on the 7th and 9th.

Miss Willa Cather was home from Lincoln on a vacation this week.

Days which begin in darkness and storm often end in a glorious sunset.

The city council has ordered 500 extra feet of hose for the fire department.

Wm. Shean and wife of Aurora are visiting relatives in the city this week.

Geo. Ricketts and wife departed yesterday for the east to look for a location

Steven and Norman Morrison have returned to their home in Ravenna, Nebr.

The Congregational tea at Aid. Martin's Thursday evening was a grand success.

Sacramento saloon-keepers refuse to pay high license, and 300 have been arrested

Indianapolis street-car stablemen are out, and the carpenters stick for eight hours.

A. J. Tomlinson had his house flooded the other day by the bursting of a water pipe.

Mrs. J. K. Sanborn, who has been quite sick, we are pleased to note is convalescing.

Mrs. Upton, a former resident of this city, who has been east on a visit, is in the city this week.

A. H. Gray, the insurance man, has moved his office into the north-west room of the Moon block.

Small boy (aside)—"Gee whis," but those Little Giant Pills take the cake. Sold and warranted by Deyo & Grice.

The new members of the school board elected on Tuesday were: T. C. Hacker and Geo. O. Yelser.

Dr. Sawyer's Family Cure is the result of experience, skill and honesty. It is a positive cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney Troubles. Sold by Deyo & Grice.

Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, and the German emperor will hobnob for a few days at Abbazia.

Early Risers, Early Risers, Early Risers the famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, dyspepsia and nervousness. C. L. Cotting.