A BALLAD OF LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING.

Tie a subtly sweet suggestive phrase,
But the simple soul who is lured thereby
Will make a sorrow for many days.
In secret oft will be mosn and cry
And vote the thing a tremendous lie,
For it means, this phrase that sounds so fair,
A world of trouble and toil and care
And a wild distracting wish to go
Away from it soon and anywhere.
I speak of the things whereof I know.

It means to shrink 'neath the stern amaze
Of the lordly butcher's and baker's eye,
Apologising in meek dispraise
For your modest wants. To rave or sigh
Over the pangs of the boughten pie.
Tie to pray a strong, heav'n reaching prayer
For the meal a man pronounces "square,"
And to be once more in life below
Free from that peace destroying snare,
I speak of the things whereof I know.

Ye who have 'tempted this life to share,

Pause ere ye enter the tiger's lair;
Consider the truth I fain would show.
For with hand on heart I firmly swear
I speak of the things whereof I know.
