REPULSE OF COXEY

HE MADE NO SPEECH AND BROWNE IS LYING IN JAIL.

He and Christopher Columbus Jones Arrested-Thousands Witnessed the March. Leaders of the Army Surprised the Police by a Flank Movement.

WASHINGTON, May 2.- The march of Coxey's commonweal army, which started from Massillion, O., on Easter Sunday, ended Tuesday by the interrup-tion of the police. Fortunately there were no casualties and Tuesday evening General Coxey addressed his burlesque army in camp, while Marshal Carl Browne slept in a prison cell and Christopher Columbus Jones, leader of the Philidelphia commune and the comedian of the movement endeavored to appropriate a share of the martyrdom in an adjoining cell. The performance enacted within the shadow of the capitol Tuesday is without a counterpart in the memory of Washingtonians.

More than 200 city police reinforced the Capitol officers. Detectives from several cities were sprinkled through the crowd, for the concentration of lawless local characters gave just grounds for apprehensions of trouble apart from the presence of the Coxeyites. It was shortly after 1 o'clock when the army halted in the public street south of the Capitol grounds. Its 5-mile march down from Brightwood through the principal streets of the city had been witnessed by thousands. There were 500 men in line, Mrs. Anna L. Diggs, the Populist agitator of Kansas, in a barouche; Coxey's 17-yearold daughter, in white, on a cream colored steed, representing the Goddess of Peace; Carl Browne on a great gray Percheron stallion; Jacob S. Coxey, his wife, the infant Legal Tender Coxey, together in another carriage; Virginia La Vallete, said to be an actress, on horseback, draped in an American flag as the Philadelphia commune's Goddess of Peace; the unemployed carrying white flags of peace on staves and the nondescript banners, setting forth the doctrines of reincarnation, good roads and enmity to plutocrats, sprinkled through the caravan.

Crowd Followed Browne. Marshal Browne halted the procession there in the street, walked back to Coxey's carriage, the general kissed his wife, then the two moving spirits of the affair forced their way over the plaza to the Capitol steps, their men, acting under orders, standing in their tracks. After Coxey and Browne passed, a yelling crowd of several hundred men, most of them following Browne, conspicuous because of his unique costume. Tramping and tearing its way through the costly shrubbery the mob went, while the squad of mounted police, which had headed the parade, dazed for a moment by the unexpected move, charged reck-lessly into their midst.

Coxey was fronted by the police as he took off his hat to speak on the steps, and his demand for his constitutional rights, as he called it, being refused, thrust upon them a printed protest, which proved to be a well worded epitome of Populistic doctrines. Meanwhile Carl Browne was being literally dragged by the collar of his coat through the crowd towards the nearest station after he had made a fight to retain his banner.

Riot For Five Minutes. Two police captains, a lieutenant and sergeant thrust mildmannered Coxey, without violence, back across several hundred feet of humanity. Mounted police were forcing their horses amon? the people, many of them cracking their clubs over the heads of the nearest persone, women were shrieking in terror, men were yelling fiercely, some were being knocked down and trampled upon. For five minutes there was riot in the section of the mob in front of the east steps, which occupied about an acre of the asphalt. Then the two agitating spirits having been removed and half a dozen particularly belligerent men having been taken in by the police the disturbance was quelled without serious in-juries to a single person. Somehow the army was started off toward its new camp, between double lines of police, followed by a mob of thousands, cheering like demons for Coxey and Browne. Within an hour the Capitol grounds had almost regained their normal quiet with only a few hundred people strolling

Coxey Has No Complaint to Make.
"I have no complaint," Coxey said, "to make as far as the police are concerned. They treated me with great consideration, but they had to carry out the law, even if it was an unjust one. My speech, however, at the Capitol is over and I shall not again attempt it. It would be no use. The American eagle did a good deal of squealing, but that was to be expected. The authorities pinched him rather hard. He'll have his say, however, sooner or later,' The most serious chapter of the affair for Washington, is the problem of what is to be done with the army, remains unsolved. Coxey has no intention of leading his recruits away. He still declares that the movement has just begun, that they will stay here until congress pro-vides for them by passing his bills.

MOB LYNCHED WILSON.

Electric Lights Turned Out and Police Overpowered MISSOURI VALLEY, Ia., May 2 .-"Reddy" Wilson, the murderer of Marshal Whitney, was lynched here at 9 o'clock sharp this morning by a masked

The parties were all unknown. They made the electric lights shut down and disarmed the policemen. Excited crowds were waiting all evening for the affair to happen, Masked parties battered the jail door in and captured Wilson in the dark. Wilson did not have time to say a word, but was taken to a tree just outside the court yard and swung off. There was no shots fired. The whole thing was orderly as a lynching could be. At 5:80 all was quiet again. SOVEREIGN THREATENS FOR KELLY. TOLD IN A FEW WORDS Claims It Is Simply an Issue Between United Railroads and Organized Labor. DES MOINES, May 3.—Grand Master Workman Sovereign arrived in Des Moines Tuesday with the avowed intention of throwing the influence of the Knights of Labor into an effort to secure a train for Kelly's army. In an interview, Mr. Sovereign said that his action was determined upon at a meeting of his executive board held in Chicago "What will you do if you are refused a train?" "I can only repeat," he replied, "that Kelly shall not walk out. The army shall ride though every road in Iowa be tied up. I do not say that the Knights of Labor could take such action of itself, but with the aid of the American Railway union such a move would be successful. That organization and our own are very close together. When I left Mr. Debs in St. Paul his last words were that anything we ordered his people would stand by and I made a similar proposi-

"This thing is simply an issue between united railroads and organized labor and if we cannot win here, we might as well stop fighting. The issue is a square one and we will meet it. We are in sympathy with Coxey and Kelly movements as it attracts public attention and invites discussions of the interests we represent. I am reliably informed that the majority of Kelly's men are members of labor unions, and we will neither let them starve nor walk out of Des Moines."

RIOTS OCCUR IN CLEVELAND. Seven Thousand Unemployed Men Parade and Trouble Follows. CLEVELAND, May 2 .- Seven thousand unemployed paraded the streets Thursday after listening to speeches in Monumental square. In the line were many unruly spirits. While on the Central viaduct a motorman refused to stop his train while the procession passed and the mob attacked and wrecked a car. Later nearly 100 shots were fired over another car which was compelled to stop. Several persons were knocked down during the march and others were injured by missiles thrown by the mob.

On Pearl street another riotous scene occurred. A street car was totally wrecked by the mob and the motorman assaulted and, perhaps, fatally injured. A policeman, who was on board, drew his revolver, but before it could be used the mob closed in on him and he received very rough handling. Pistols were fired in every direction. Many plate glass windows were smashed and a panic ensued in the crowded thoroughfares There were many narrow escapes, but fortunately no one was killed outright. In Monumental park the marchers peacefully disbanded.

GREAT NORTHERN STRIKE SETTLED. American Railway Union Successful In

Their First Big Strike. St. Paul, May 2.—After being tied up for 18 days almost completely from end to end, the Great Northern railroad sys-tem will now resume work, the great strike being declared off. It is practically a victory for the American Railway union and President Debs, although the committee for the commercial bodies for the result. Various conferences were held by the committee with President Hill and with the labor leaders. Mr. Hill was pronounced in favor of arbitration all along and agreed to a system of arbitration if the men would resume work. Finally the committee got them to meet Tuesday afternoon, and the result is that the strike has been declared off and the men will return to work at once. The conference went over all details, and Mr. Hill made great concessions to the men, the result being that the whole difficulty was settled then and a Mass of Ruins. NEW ORLEANS, May 1 .- Shortly before midnight a disastrous fire broke out in the kitchen of the St. Charles hotel, and at 3 o'clock only one wall was standing. As nearly as could be ascer-tained, five lives were sacrificed. One man leaped from the fourth story, and was almost instantly killed, while four men and one woman were seen to leap from the iron staircase leading from the rear of the building, and were lost to view, into the court, which looked to be almost a solid mass of flames. One of these men succeeded in reaching the street, but nothing has been seen of the others.

NEW ORLEANS HOTEL BURNS. St. Charles Hotel, the Finest In the South,
