

BLAKESLEE & KALEY

ARE MAKING
EXTRA
Low
PRICES
ON OXFORDS.

Woman's Dongola Oxford, pat. tip.....	$1.35
Women's plain Dongola Oxfords.....	1.25
Women's Tan Oxfords square of opera toe.....	2.50
Women's Prince Alberts hand turn.....	2.50
Women's Prince Alberts M. S. turn.....	1.35
Misses Tan Oxfords 1st quality, 13-2.....	1.35
Child's Tan Oxfords 1st quality 9-12.....	1.15
Opera Slippers, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

We have also a large line of Men's Boys' and Youths' Low Cut Shoes, and a cheaper line of Women's and Misses Oxfords ranging in price from 65c to $1.00.
We are pleased to show our goods.
Blakeslee & Kaley.

FRED E. MCKEEBY, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,
City and country calls promptly answered.

MOON BLOCK, RED CLOUD.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

- Page 1—Washington's Life. Weather Bulletin. Other News.
- " 2—Captured a Train. Coxy Convicted. Breckenridge Again, Nebraska News. Congressional. Special Markets.
- " 3—Country Correspondence.
- " 4—Various Items of Interest. Cyclone at Eabon. The City Council. McKeighan will not be a senatorial candidate.
- " 5—General City News.
- " 6—Told in a Few Words. Vote Early and Often.
- " 7—Talmage's Sermon.
- " 8—Educational. "My Queer Old Wife. Other Items.

LOCAL NEWS.

Ed Highland was in the city this week.

A. M. Walters of Blue Hill was in the city this week on legal business.

Hon. Jas. McNeny is home from his trip to Salt Lake City and the west.

Porter Hedge of Lincoln was visiting Anderson Hedge and family this week.

Mrs. Fred Howard is visiting in Hastings and Fred sighs as only a widower can.

Miss Belle Spanogle who has been visiting relatives in Grand Island and Omaha, returned home last Monday.

John Dickerson is the finder of a gold breast pin marked with "E. W." on the face. Owner can get same by calling on him.

Shea & Turnure have just received a car load of choice Northern, Beauty's and Hebron potatoes. They are fine for table or seed.

G. W. Lindsey has a very fine set of Elk horns, sent him by Mark Warner, who lives at Ten Sleep, Wyoming. They are beauties.

Shea & Turnure carry the largest and choicest line of dried and evaporated fruits west of the Missouri river. Drop in and be convinced.

The aroma from a delightful quadruped, known in polite language as a skunk, pervaded the atmosphere in the vicinity of Webster street one day this week.

A pelican was captured a few weeks ago which the papers of that city claim it is a native of the Mediterranean sea. What strange things stray into Red Cloud.—Superior Sun.

Mel Sherman is now traveling for the Warder, Bushnell and Glessner Co. He sells the Champion Binder. He has quit fixing bicycles, having turned his bicycle business over to Wm. Million.

The editor received an invitation this week to be present at the graduating exercises of the Spencerian Business College of Washington, D. C., in which our young friend, Roy Kenney, graduated on the 8th instant.

Landlord Ranney is cleaning up and renovating the Holland House in nice shape and will put that well-known hostelry in first-class condition, so that the traveling public will find it a pleasant place to stop when in the city.

Harry Pond is now a full-fledged water commissioner, having been appointed by Mayor Roby on Wednesday night. He immediately filed his bond with A. Morhart, B. F. Miser and J. A. McArthur as sureties. Mr. Pond's appointment meets with the approbation of the people of Red Cloud.

Harris Noble, an old settler of Webster county, who located on Walnut creek some 20 years ago, has to-day one of the finest farms in the county. He has a fine dwelling house and ample granaries, orchards, etc., and the beauty of it all is he don't owe a cent. He says: "Send me the best paper in the county," and THE CHIEF goes.

The Fire Department have decided to establish a hose team in the south ward. It will be located in Jackson's addition. The company is putting in the entire outfit at their own expense. They surely deserve great credit for their efforts to protect the property of our citizens. THE CHIEF congratulates them on their ambition in protecting the interests of the people.

BRIEF MENTION.

For kalsomining see F. P. Hadley. Price our wall paper.—Deyo & Grice.

Go and see the bargain shoe counter at Wiener's.

Mrs. Ducker returned from Beatrice last Monday.

See Mrs. Rich for fine millinery, prices way down low.

Anyone wishing a good cornet cheap call at this office.

Call at the Wegmann gallery and see temples of his work.

J. A. Tulleys was in Clay county on business this week.

Wiener has put in a bargain shoe counter. Call and see it.

J. Nustein departed Tuesday for Missouri to visit with relatives for a month.

Go and get one of those fine Paris trimmed hats at Mrs. Rich's.

Any one in need of carriage painting should call on F. P. Hadley.

Go to J. B. Wright's for fine new and second hand goods, Moon block.

Farm for sale. I will take city property for part pay.—V. WILLIAMS.

Mrs. H. H. Hurley and child of Denver are visiting her parents in the city.

Miss Rogers, the expert trimmer of New York is at Mrs. Rich's millinery store.

Two pair of pants with each suit and cap to match, they are bargains.—Chicago Store.

You can buy shoes at two-thirds the original price at Wiener's bargain shoe counter.

A. H. Gray represents the St. Paul Fire Marine and hail insurance company. See him.

More goods are being sold for a dollar at the Chicago Clothing Store than any where else in this country.

Go to McNitt for your Mammoth Clover, German Millet and White Russian oats if you want good seed.

Curt Evans has everything you want in the second-hand furniture line. See him Blue Front, south Webster street.

Cutting the druggist is selling lots of wall paper, low prices, pretty patterns and fair treatment are what counts.

You have put it off too long but call at the Wegmann gallery at once and he will make you the finest photos you ever had.

Remember that when cleaning house $1.00 will buy enough wall paper to paper an ordinary bed room.—Deyo & Grice.

WANTED.—Ladies to use some very nice perfume. Some new and very exquisite odors just received.—Deyo & Grice.

Everything in hats just received all the new styles and colors; elegant line of children's caps; all the new novelties at the Chicago Store.

Pure sugar syrup, pure open kettle New Orleans molasses, pure country sorghum and pure fruit and wine vinegar can be had at Shea & Turnure's.

During the summer months every family in Red Cloud and vicinity should be provided with a jar of preserved Canton ginger for sale by Shea & Turnure.

Remember our children's clothing is cheaper and better made than ever. Reinforced seats and knees, elegant patterns and low prices.—Chicago Clothing Company.

When you get ready to buy children clothing come and see us look at our combination suits extra pair of pants and cap given with every suit.—Chicago Clothing Co.

Mr. M. Purdum of Cherokee, Kan., a brother-in-law of C. C. Cox, accompanied by his wife, are visiting in Nebraska for two weeks. We acknowledge a pleasant visit from him.

The next county alliance meeting of Webster county will be held in Blue Hill, Saturday, May 26th, at 2 p. m. instead of May 19 as formerly ordered. By order of committee.

Cheapest suits ever shown new ready for you every suit at lowest prices, workmanship best in the country and best fitting goods ever brought to the city.—Chicago Clothing Store.

Wm. Patrick and daughter of Paw Paw, Ill., was in the city this week. While here he made an offer to Charley Besse of for his 200 acre farm on the river bottom, at $32 per acre.

Just received, from New York, at Mrs. F. Newhouse, a nice assortment of parasols, sun umbrellas, black and other laces, ladies neckwear, Hamburgs, white and black summer dress goods, etc.

There are thousands of tons of buckwheat hulls ground annually by some spice mills in the United States which being mixed with a cheap Singapore pepper is sold as the pure article, and it is a well known fact that nine tenths of the stuff finds a market west of the Mississippi river. We handle only the pure article and will forfeit $100 if not found as represented.—Shea & Turnure.

CITY NEWS.

Everet Dyer is home from Kansas City.

F. E. Gobie returned to Lincoln yesterday.

Morris Stern was in Nemaha county this week.

G. F. Stapleton is a new subscriber to THE CHIEF.

A. D. Ranney was down from Blue Hill Monday.

House plants of all varieties at Mrs. J. H. Smith's.

Dr. Spencer of Riverton was in the city yesterday.

Geo. Overing returned from Kansas City Wednesday.

Every body buys their fashionable hats of Mrs. Rich.

O. A. Truman of Franklin was in the city last Saturday.

Dr. Moranville returned from his western trip Thursday.

Mr. Hunter of Rockfort, Mo., was in Red Cloud last Saturday.

J. D. Crans and daughter, Marguerite, were in the city this week.

Now is the time to call on Wegmann and have your picture taken.

A. Phillips of Blue Hill was in Red Cloud the first of this week.

Remember that McNitt keeps both the top and bottom onion sets.

A. Morhart is laying brick walks on the inside of his residence lots.

C. C. Stout and F. W. Laughlin of Bladen were on our streets this week.

J. C. Warner sold his fine trotting horse to a man in Omaha, the other day.

No. 15, the local passenger from Kansas City, now stops at this place for supper.

Thos. McCartney departed for Philadelphia to visit with relatives for a month.

We guarantee the Lincoln paint to be equal to anything on the market. C. L. Cotting.

A. H. Gray represents the St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance company. See him.

Hon. J. S. Gilham has been engaged to deliver the Memorial address in Guide Rock.

Willcox and McKillan have purchased the old Republican plant, and will continue the belt.

J. H. Davis and Mr. Wren sold the Ldw farm on section 6-2-12 to Mr. Brown of Thayer county.

A good rain visited this section on Wednesday to the glory and satisfaction of a great people.

Will West has resigned his position in McFarland's store to take the position of street commissioner.

Rev. H. D. Platt was in Red Cloud Sunday and preached two excellent sermons in the Congregational church.

P. W. Shea left Tuesday morning for St. Joseph to meet his wife, who returned with him Thursday evening.

Miss Grace Bodine, who has been visiting in the city several weeks went to Neodesha, Kan., yesterday morning.

S. F. Spokesfield is going to put in a complete line of groceries in connection with his dry goods store in the Moon block.

THE CHIEF hopes that the old soldiers will see that Memorial day as well as Decoration will be properly observed in Red Cloud.

R. B. Fulton fire and lightning insurance, Western White Bronze, monuments and cemetery goods. Office with Traders Lumber Co.

The interior of D. Stoffer's barber shop has been nicely clothed in a new coat of paint. N. E. Robinson was the handsome artist. (He paints.)

We have been informed by Boyd and Overing that they have rented their south room to a gentleman who will soon start a barber shop.

F. Bradbrook returned home from Missouri Wednesday. "Brad" says he isn't stuck on the way they hold democratic conventions down there.

Emma Parkes had a very pleasant birthday party last Friday evening. Quite a number of guests were present and enjoyed the evening very much.

Joe Fogle the harness man, located in the Chaney building North Webster St. for first-class work, substantial harnesses, saddles, collars and hardware.

New subscribers this week are as follows: J. F. Smith, N. Longtin, G. F. Stapleton, Frank Cowden, Mrs. Julia Kellogg, John Tamman and Harris Noble.

What is the matter with Red Cloud sportsmen getting up a base ball club? There is good timber in this city for a good team if some one would just start the "ball rolling."

A special to the Omaha Bee from Guide Rock dated the 9th says: A frame barn in the south part of the town belonging to George Reeves was discovered on fire at 11 o'clock. The barn with a horse and buggy were consumed. The building was fired by his little grand son.

The street commissioner by the advice of the committee on streets and alleys is lowering the tile at the juncture of Seward street and 4th Avenue. We have been informed that the cross walks will be lowered and that the work of expending the poll tax will be carefully done by the new council. Good.

Herbert Richardson, the other day became so elated over the advent of a little boy in his family, that he stopped his horses in the field climbed the barb wire fence and ran pell mell a mile to tell Grandpa Parkes that he was "daddy." He came to town and bought $7 worth of paregoric so as to have a supply on hand.

R. K. Orchard says that up in his neighborhood, near Inavale, potato bugs are sitting on the high blades of grass waiting for the potatoes to come so that they can get breakfast. Our agricultural editor could not be persuaded to believe this story if he had not known that Bro. Orchard had at one time been a sailor on the "Ocean Blue."

AROUND TOWN.

Mr. Kilroy is home from Lincoln.

J. C. Warner was in Lincoln this week.

Henry Kohler of Blue Hill was in the city this week.

Chas. Fawcett ex-county treasurer was visiting the hub this week.

Miner Bros. shipped a carload of hogs to Kansas City this week.

C. F. Lambrecht came in this week and said: "Send THE CHIEF right along."

Robt. Martin Jr. and W. Jones, who have been in Kansas, are home again.

Mrs. E. J. Ducker was in Beatrice this week attending the Epworth convention.

Charley Smelser and wife, who were visiting in the city, have returned to Riverton.

John Wilhelmson is presiding over the meat block and cleaver in Frank Lindsey's meat shop.

A man by the name of Davis, living in Kansas, was badly hurt this week by a run-away team.

D. F. Scammon found a buggy spread this week. Owner can have same by calling on him.

Mrs. E. B. Robinson of Hastings, mother of Charley and Nobe Robinson, was visiting in the city this week.

A large number of our young folks held a grand picnic party at Smith's lake one day this week in honor of Miss Bodine, who left for her home on Thursday.

A man in Webster county owned a piece of land, and by not having a county paper, lost it. He did not know that the lease had expired and another fellow bought and now wants $1000 for it. Penny wise and pound foolish.

The City Bathing Parlors are now open for the public. This is one of the nicest institutions ever established in Red Cloud and one certainly worthy of the patronage of the people. They are run in connection with the reading room.

The Misses Clara and Mabel McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Warren, Rufus Miksch and Jake Beaver have been summoned to Omaha next Tuesday to testify in the Red Cloud postoffice case in which a young man was interested for tampering with the mails.

Carried at the residence of the bride's mother in Line township, Miss Jennie Williams and Mr. Benton Kever, on Saturday. The bride is a resident of this vicinity, and the groom is a resident of Missouri. They will reside here in the future. Wm. VanDyke saying the mystic words that made the two hearts beat as one. May joy be theirs.

F. P. Hadley is a young painter of more than ordinary ability. Those who desire to have house painting done should not fail to call on him as he is an expert at his trade. He recently painted Mr. Ed McFarland's dwelling, and it is really a fine job and Frank is to be congratulated on the progress he has made.

On next Tuesday night, the members of the choir of the M. E. church will render that beautiful cantata, The Ship of Life, at the opera house. This is said to be one of the best entertainments that has ever been produced in Red Cloud. The prices of admission have been fixed at 15c, 25c, and reserved seats at 35 cents, which can be had at Deyo & Grice's drugstore.

The list of letters remaining at the postoffice called for up to May 11th Andrews C. D., Fleck Maggie, Johnson Mrs D. B., Phillips A. A., Potter Thos.

The above letters will be sent to the dead letter office on May 24, 1894 if not called for.—FRANK W. COWDEN, postmaster Red Cloud, Nebraska.

Station Agent Conover hung up the red lights at the depot the other day, and announced that it was dangerous to fool with "dad." Upon investigation it was learned that the cause of his strange conduct emanated from the fact that his heart was filled to "statuity" on account of a little girl that his wife presented to him this week. Congratulations of THE CHIEF extended.

Leland Parker a young man of sterling qualities and the son of E. O. Parker of Guide Rock, was found dead in his room in Denver, Colorado, one day last week. He had been a very trusted employe of one of the large newspapers of Denver and having become broken in health, asked for a week's layoff, which was granted. He immediately took to his room, and never left it. He had a bell boy to bring his meals to him, but finally one day when the lad went to the room he found it locked and reported the same to the proprietor, who broke open the door and found him dead. His body was shipped to Guide Rock for interment. THE CHIEF extends its condolence to the sorrow stricken family.

There will be a meeting of the Republican League Club over the postoffice on Wednesday evening, May 10, '94, to select delegates to the state convention, and to elect officers for the ensuing year. W. S. GARDNER, Pres.

R. McNITT, Sec'y.

Notice.

A special meeting of the committee of the Pleasant Hill Cemetery association will meet on May 23, at 4 p. m. sharp, at Pleasant Hill school house. All interested are invited to attend.—C. C. Cox, Secy.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, 'DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE.

A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

The hot Weather

Is Coming!

You can buy all kinds of Suitable Clothing!

For that kind of weather, Also,

Light Weight Underwear!

AT WIENER'S.

Our prices are as low as can be sold

DUCKER'S CASH

DRY GOODS HOUSE.

We have secured better bargains than ever. One lot 5 cts standard silver gray calicoes, per yard only

Special Prices on Shantung, Pongees, Canton cloth Llama cloth, Percales, etc.

We Have Some Very Handsome Patterns.

One lot of indago calico only 5 cents.

On Saturday Morning

We will start a Clearing sale on all our wool dress goods. We have not time to say much about it, but will say to our customers that we can save you money on a Wool Dress.

We have got an elegant line of wool goods.

G. A. DUCKER & CO.