

Chicago Clothing Company.

Received their complete spring purchases this week. They were given a pointer early in the season not to buy spring clothing earlier than May 1. They acted upon this advice, if and you will call at their store you will at once see that they did the proper caper in doing so.

$20 suits for $16. $18 suits for $14. $16 suits for $13. And by the way Lots 6070, 6842, 3004, 3148, 6710 and 4483 at $13 are the best values in men's suits ever shown in Nebraska. Suits from $13 to to three dollars in endless varieties. Correct styles and colors in hats, either in FUR, WOOL OR STRAW. We go any merchant one better in the way of prices on Underwear.

A. GALUSHA, Manager.

THE COUNTRY NEWS

MANY INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS.

Furnished by Our Able Corps of Country Correspondents, Especially for the Readers of The Chief

Bladen.

School closes Friday, May 25, with a picnic in Mr. Thorn's grove.

Many of the farmers are putting their small grain ground into corn.

Miss Mianie Cauffman is stopping this week with Mrs. A. P. Johnson.

Snyder and Toothacre started a fire Saturday in their first kiln of 85,000 brick.

Enterprising farmers of this vicinity shipped out two carloads of hogs Tuesday.

W. H. Fuller of Red Cloud was in town Tuesday making some repairs on his building.

Quite a number of people from Campbell attended Bryan Bros. special sale last Monday.

Quite a number from here attended the school exhibition at Plain View Tuesday evening.

C. E. Hicks and family and A. P. Johnson and family drove out to A. Cauffman's Sunday.

L. B. Thorn returned last Thursday from the western part of the state and reports it very dry.

W. M. Grannis, who was seriously injured in a run away, we are glad to say is able to be out in his carriage.

B. Leo has turned his mill loose and is doing lots of grinding to make up for lost time and catch up again.

T. E. Munson held the lucky number on the dishes at Hartman & Burden's, Tommy Riggins drew the gun.

Mrs. Arohard who has been visiting a few days with her parents A. Cauffman returned to her home at Wymore Tuesday morning.

Jack Frost struck a heavy blow Saturday morning knocking out the fruit, cutting down the potatoes, corn and other vegetation.

Stillwater.

Sanford Croxton shelled corn last Friday.

Mr. Denney's have moved into their new house.

John Kohzack from near Red Cloud was visiting relatives in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

J. C. Haught and others shipped a carload of hogs to Kansas City last Thursday.

L. D. Wells has put up a new steel tower and Aremotor wind-mill at the house, from which he will irrigate his garden and other shrubbery.

Quite a number of young fellows of this vicinity were down near Guide Rock fishing last Friday and Saturday but they had more experience than fish when they came home.

SIMPSON.

Well, Mr. Hoamer most people don't want to write only when they have good luck but I like cold weather so my name indicates but last night was just six degrees too cold for all kinds of vegetation as nearly everything was killed by a hard freeze.

Mr. Harry Cox closed a very successful term of school the 18th, his second term at Willow Creek. The

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Willow Creek.

Chas. Dickerson and the Misses Smith and Ward of Red Cloud were visiting Mr. Stanser's last Sunday.

W. S. Hodson student of Burr Oak high school was visiting Wm. Richardson's last week.

Mr. A. J. White's were visiting Mr. Lippincott's last Sunday.

The boys of Garfield are organizing a base ball club.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Gray of Red Cloud were visiting Geo. Amack's last Sunday.

JUNDO.

patrons and pupils gave him a surprise in the afternoon by bringing in cake and ice cream which they ate by a roaring fire. Harry goes to southern Kansas with his aunt, we wish him a joyous visit.

Dennis Finn is working for Mr. Moushang.

Mr. Wilder's daughter, Mrs. Minnie Jones, of Colorado arrived home the 6th of May.

Grandpa and grandma Norris have been very sick but are some better.

Rev. Steeley was visiting on the creek a few days ago.

Clem Bruner and Will Fraser, two of Red Cloud's students, Sundayed on the creek the 13th.

Mr. Carpenter lost a valuable horse a while back. MANITOBA.

Amboy.

Dry and windy at present.

The frost Friday did a lot of damage.

Most of the farmers are through planting corn.

Fred Frase and wife returned from Harlan county last Wednesday.

Walter Cox returned from Republican City last Monday.

Sylvester Frisbie is home again.

Mr. C. C. Cox's sister and brother returned to their home Saturday.

The meeting Sunday afternoon was quite interesting.

Joe Saladen and family was visiting at W. Saladen's Sunday.

Mr. G. W. Baker sold some hogs Monday.

Harry Cox went to Pittsburg, Kansas, Saturday to stay sometime. He will be missed much by his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker spent Sunday in Red Cloud.

Elva Teabworth of Guide Rock is the guest of her sister Mrs. C. H. Frisbie.

Mr. and Mrs. Knutson of Blue Hill spent Sunday at Mr. Cookrall's.

Wamer.

Corn planting is over.

Some small grain has been put in corn.

Rain is much needed but the early corn is doing well.

Rev. Elwell has changed his appointment at Lone Star from evening to morning, hereafter there will be Sunday-school at 10 o'clock and church at 11.

Mr. Mark has been laid up for several days consequently business at the blacksmith shop is not booming.

The young people tripped the light fantastic at John Devlin's on last Friday night. They all report a good time.

A heavy frost last Friday night which killed almost everything but it did not catch. JAYHAWKER.

Garfield.

Chas. Dickerson and the Misses Smith and Ward of Red Cloud were visiting Mr. Stanser's last Sunday.

W. S. Hodson student of Burr Oak high school was visiting Wm. Richardson's last week.

Mr. A. J. White's were visiting Mr. Lippincott's last Sunday.

The boys of Garfield are organizing a base ball club.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Gray of Red Cloud were visiting Geo. Amack's last Sunday.

Cowles.

We are sick or at least our gardens are. A heavy frost last week tells the tale and Jay Best had no pea soup last Sunday.

We need rain for small grain.

Onion Creek has lost its bloom.

Corn is a good stand and will make a crop if we have suitable weather.

Four delivery wagons are run from town to supply the farmers. Uncle

Tod says he will start a wheelbarrow route this week if Jake Fuller will lean him his punch.

Willow Creek can't blow on its roses since the frost.

Sam Garber was on our streets last week and bought a carload of wheat for milling purposes.

Benard McNeny was in town Saturday and got done up by Joe.

Jeff Turner faced the gun without finching 'Saturday night, bad guns should not be allowed on the streets if loaded.

Strange how some of our young men are attracted by the electric lights of Red Cloud.

Wm. Good is making some nice improvements on his farm.

Shorty Burch had an accident last week and Mr. Good had to buy a tongue.

Edd. Story furnished the laugh for the boys Sunday morning trying to ride his new bicycle, though he was thrown to the ground and smitten in the face, he recovered and was led away to take refreshments at Fuller's pump.

We have been informed that C. A. Teel is expected home from Furnas county on account of his wife's illness.

Some of our farmers are talking of going to Oklahoma, after the corn is laid by, to look at the country.

Hopkins and Fuller were not in the deal on the bicycle, number seventy was the lucky number.

Ira Paul's motto is, all things are fair in love and war.

Jay Best wants the boys to go fishing with him. DISHWASHER.

Judson.

The weather is very hot and dry and if it don't rain soon the small grain will be a failure.

Most of the farmers are through planting corn.

Barney and Richard Ring are putting in corn on the Steffen place.

Charlie Barrett has been laid up with the measles the past week.

We are glad to learn Pug Davis is improving.

Laura and Edith Scribner and Mary and Samuel Mountford visited at Mr. Barrett's Sunday.

Mrs. Williams is home again after her visit in Red Cloud.

Butte.

The Sоргensen boys have sold their fat cattle.

Mr. Berg was in our vicinity on business Wednesday.

Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Kalso were the guests of Mrs. Cooper Sunday.

Chat Holygoross was the guest of Johnnie Marker Sunday.

Alfred Akers was hauling hogs to Red Cloud Monday.

Joe Pavlicek entertained several guests last Sunday.

Rev. Bean was transacting business in Cowles Tuesday.

William Holmes Jr. was a pleasant caller on Mr. Lambrecht Sunday.

Claude Deveugh was a guest of the Ware and Brethauer boys Saturday.

Some of the farmers are listing their wheat ground into corn.

Charley Sorgensen got severely injured by a horse falling on him Monday.

Some of our farmers are contemplating a trip to Missouri in the near future.

A goodly number of young people attended the exhibition at the Star school house Friday evening.

The base ball team from our neighborhood went to Bladen Saturday and played the Bladenites but were defeated.

State Creek.

It is a little dry up here though the crops are standing the drouth well. Small grain is bound to be short though we will make our calculations on making that up on corn.

We was a little dry about a year ago this time and on the 30th had a big

Peter Hansen has got a new buggy

nothing like it is there Peter.

Mrs. Amanda and Miss Daisy Wilson were the guests of Mrs. Bean last week.

Eight persons were baptized at Mr. Lambrecht's last Sunday.

NUBBINS.

Pleasant Prairie.

Dry and dusty.

The greatest amount of corn planted this year we have ever seen. It is coming up and growing if it is dry.

Corn will nearly all be planted this week.

We did not think times were quite so hard as they are. We think a person is a little less than a gentleman that will steal a man's clevias as he passes on the road.

Sunday-school every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

District 41 closes a nine months school on Friday.

No teacher can make a success of a school unless she takes care of the outside of the school house as well as the inside.

Farmers are beginning to think small grain is a failure. Cheer up the rain is coming. COXEY.

Line.

Weather cold and dry.

Fruit and small grain damaged by the late frost.

Farmers are planting their wheat fields to corn.

The outlook for a good crop is very discouraging.

There will be a children's entertainment the first Sunday in June at the Penny creek school house at 10 o'clock a. m.

Barkley & Son of Red Cloud have taken the contract of breaking one hundred acres of prairie for Mr. Sherwood.

Rev. Harlan will preach next Sunday at Pleasant Dale school house at 3 p. m.

Mr. Sherwood was in Line one day this week looking after his farming interests.

John Galbreth has six acres of potatoes planted.

Merc Fern lost a valuable horse one day last week.

Vina and Myrtle Anderson were the guests of Mr. Dickerson one day last week.

Mr. Hutchinson and family were the guests of E. W. Anderson Sunday.

R. Lewis, wife and daughter visited Penny creek Sunday school last Sunday.

O. Merrill was in Line one day last week getting names on a petition to do away with the commissioner system.

The wealth of this neighborhood is good, no sickness to speak of.

Mr. Weaver is still convalescing under the treatment of Dr. McKeeby.

O. S.

Guide Rock.

Guide Rock is still moving with the wind if we did fail to appear last week.

E. S. Strickland has returned from his trip through Missouri and reports two inches of snow.

This is the last week of the public school for 1894.

The frost Friday evening did considerable damage to the small fruit.

Last Friday night all the people of Guide Rock and community were highly entertained by a game of freeze out.

How doth vacation time appear

And all its glories shine,

Behold the school boys digging bait

Or mending his broken line.

Our estimable teacher Miss Carrie Bill is soon to depart for Wisconsin where she expects to make her future home.

She will be greatly missed by the young people of Guide Rock.

May 28 is the date given for the eclocationist entertainment in behalf of the Ladies Aid Society.

Hippety-hop to the barber shop

To see the blooming rose,

It dusts your clothes and wipes your nose

And that's the way the money goes.

The Guide Rock barbers have done their shop justice by cleaning up.

Guide Rock made a raise by building a side walk in front of J. A. Hayes' store.

Last Wednesday being Mrs. E. W. Vier's 52d anniversary, in the evening a number of her friends gathered in and gave her a surprise.

The evening was passed in games and music, also the same evening R. S. Proudft gave a progressive euchre party.

CROOKED CROOK.

There was a dance at F. Strohle's Friday evening.

There will be preaching at the Tennant school-house Sunday evening.

Ed Dickson was planting corn for Mr. Reiber last week.

Mr. John Hoval and Mr. Kudina killed 6 wolves last week.

There was quite a crowd at the preaching Sunday evening.

Mr. Reiber shipped a carload of hogs to Kansas City Tuesday.

There was a party at Charley Gurney's Saturday evening.

Mrs. Reece is at Mr. Dickerson this week.

Mr. Tennant and wife attended the funeral services at Mr. A. Weideman's Saturday.

Elliot Hughes and wife were visiting their parents Sunday.

Mr. Reiber was in Kansas City this week.

Mr. Dickson was hauling corn from Kansas this week.

Mr. Grant has given up the idea of going to Illinois, he thinks Nebraska is all right.

Most of the farmers are through planting corn in this neighborhood.

Guy Tennant has been helping Mr. Dickson this week.

Mrs. Saulsberry who has been visiting at Mrs. Tennant's left Thursday for Longmont, Colorado, to be present at the graduating exercises where her grand-daughter, Bertha McKenny will graduate.

Died.—Mr. A. Weideman died at his home Thursday, May 17. The funeral services were held at the house after which a large number of friends followed the remains to the grave where he was laid to rest in the Red Cloud cemetery. He was 49 years old and leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss, he was also a member of the Methodist church and a good servant to his master. The family have the greatest sympathy of their many friends. T. O. E.