THE NEWS OF KANSAS

CRIMES, CASUALTIES AND OTHER IMPORTANT HAPPENINGS

Brief Mention of Matters Which Everybody Should Know About—Events of the Week in Nearby Sections Accurately and Concisely Chronicled.

Jerry Simpson Steadily Improving. WASHINGTON, June 16.—Representative Jerry Simpson is steadily improving at Berkeley Springs.

Senders' Constancy Welcomed. LAWRENCE, Kan., June 20.—The jury returned a verdict finding Sanders' commonwealth army guilty as charged in the information.

Bad Smith Killed. WICHITA, Kan., June 21.—End Smith, a notorious desperado, was killed at Watona, O. T., by the sheriff. Smith has been identified with the Daltons.

Coxeites at Emporia. EMPORIA, Kan., June 19.—The first contingent of the Coxe army to visit Emporia struck there, headed by Major C. H. O'Brien. The party comes from Los Angeles.

Deserting From Art's Army. KANSAS CITY, June 15.—There have been more desertions in the commonwealth camp in the east bottoms and out of 300 men who drew rations a week ago, not more than 150 are now in camp.

Ingalls Offered an Editorship. ATCHISON, June 18.—John J. Ingalls has received an offer to become editor-in-chief of an important magazine published in New York. He left for that place to confer with the management.

At Osage City. OSAGE CITY, Kan., June 20.—A terrific storm raged here last night. Glass was broken by the hail, trees blown down and much damage done to small buildings west of here. The hail damaged the corn badly and almost ruined wheat.

Member of Dalton Gang Shot. WICHITA, Kan., June 19.—John Ward, a member of the Dalton gang was shot and killed at Bear Creek, near Danman, O. T., by Deputy United States Marshal Tom Covington. Ward made a fight and when he died 20 empty shells were found at his feet.

Republican Committee Organized. TOPEKA, Kan., June 21.—The republican state central committee met here in an adjourned session to perfect its organization. At the recommendation of the state candidates, Cyrus Leland of Troy was made chairman, J. L. Bristow of Salina secretary and Frank Flinken of Emporia chief clerk.

Dressed Brown in a Mother Hubbard. WICHITA, Kan., June 18.—At Kingman, when Editor Brown arrived from the Populist state convention, where he dithly fought woman's suffrage, he was met at the depot, taken from the side of his wife, clothed in a mother Hubbard dress and bonnet and compelled to march through the streets before a brass band. The friends of woman's suffrage did it.

Mrs. Plumb Withdraws Her Suit. EMPORIA, Kan., June 21.—The suit filed by Mrs. P. B. Plumb, widow of the late Senator Plumb, against Major Calvin Hood, her husband's old time friend and partner, has been withdrawn. When Major Hood filed his bill of particulars, Mrs. Plumb saw that she had been misinformed as to the facts in the case and took immediate steps to effect a settlement.

Kansas Prohibition Ticket. EMPORIA, June 15.—The state ticket of the Kansas Prohibitionists was compiled as follows: Governor, I. O. Pickering, Olathe; lieutenant governor, H. G. Doughart, Hiawatha; secretary of state, J. M. Howard, Wichita, associate justice, Judge Silver, Topeka; auditor, J. P. Perkins, Columbus; treasurer, James Murray, Baldwin, chaplain of Kansas G. A. R.; attorney general, M. A. Van Bennett, Cherokee; superintendent public instructions, Mrs. A. Allison, Cuba; congressman-at-large, Major Holsinger, Rosedale.

Lewelling Expects to Win. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 17.—Governor Lewelling attended a meeting of the Mystic Shriners here. In an interview he said in speaking of the Populist possibilities in this state that he expected the ticket to win for several reasons. First, it would go through on account of the enthusiasm for the party; second, the Democrats must vote and are tired of their party in this state and would not vote the Republican ticket. He also expects the suffrage amendments to take many votes from the Republican party and thinks the people of the state are well satisfied with his administration.

PROMINENT POPULIST MURDERED. Lawyer Hamble of Holton, Kan., Killed by Clinton Osborn, a Saddle.

HOLTON, Kan., June 16.—Charles L. Hamble, a prominent lawyer of this city, was shot and instantly killed Thursday evening by Clinton Osborn, a saddle, also of this city. Hamble and his brother were met and halted on the street by Osborn, who was armed with a double barreled shotgun. It is stated that Osborn accused Hamble of betraying his daughter, who for some time past has been working in Hamble's office. Hamble denied the charge and proceeded to prove the denial. As he turned Osborn fired, the full charge of buckshot entering the unfortunate man's breast and neck, killing him instantly. The deceased was a prominent Populist politician and was spoken of for the nomination for congress in this district. There is intense feeling here, but no great apprehensions are felt that the law will be ignored. After the shooting Osborn walked up to the courthouse, hunted up the deputy sheriff and gave himself up. A coroner's jury is investigating the case.

TRIED TO MURDER CRISPI

Arrival of the Police saved the Would-Be Assassin From the Mob's Vengeance.

ROME, June 16.—An attempt to assassinate Premier Crispi was made today. Premier Crispi was driving from his residence to the chamber of deputies in a closed carriage. As the vehicle was turning from the Via Gregoriana into the Via Capoleone, a man who was loitering on the sidewalk put his hand into his breast, drew a revolver, rushed into the street and up to the carriage. He lifted his revolver, took a short aim at the professor and fired. Crispi was unharmed and promptly sprang out of the carriage with the intention of striking the would-be assassin. The latter, however, was almost immediately seized by a number of people who were attracted to the spot by the report of the revolver.

EX-MINISTER PHELPS IS DEAD. Passed Away at His Home at Tea Neck, N. J., Early Sunday Morning.

New YORK, June 19.—Ex-Minister William Walter Phelps died shortly before 9 o'clock Sunday morning at his home at Tea Neck, N. J. He had been ill a long time and quite recently went south in the hope his condition would be improved. He derived but little benefit from his southern trip, however, and but a short time ago was so prostrated that his physician ordered absolute quiet. Gradually he grew weaker, and for the past few days his death had been looked for at almost any moment. He died surrounded by his wife and daughter and his two sons—John J. and Sheffield.

EX-CONGRESSMAN BAYNE SUICIDES. Ill-Health and Financial Reverses Said to Have Caused the Deed.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Ex-Representative Thomas Bayne of Pittsburg, committed suicide at his home on Mississippi avenue, the fashionable part of the city, by shooting himself through the heart. It is supposed that ill-health and possibly financial reverses caused the deed. Mr. Bayne was one of the best known Republican politicians in Pennsylvania and was on the ways and means committee in the last congress which he served. Mr. Bayne resigned his seat in congress on account of ill-health and has since been out of active politics.

QUAY BOUGHT SUGAR STOCK. He Also Told the Senate Bribery Committee That He Would Do It Again.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Senator Ransom created a slight sensation when he appeared before the senate sugar trust investigating committee by stating that his son had, without his knowledge at the time, speculated in sugar stock. Senator Quay was before the sugar trust investigating committee. He told the committee he bought sugar stock for speculation and that he would do so again.

RESUMPTION ORDER RESCINDED. Miners in the Altoona District Will Not Work on the Columbus Insk.

ALTOONA, Pa., June 20.—The operators of the Broad Top region were notified today by District President Bradley, of the Mine Workers' union in a telegram that the agreement to resume work had been rescinded. By President Bradley's order none of the miners in this district went to work this morning. Another convention will be held here on June 25.

MULEY MOHAMMET IMPRISONED. Abdul Assiz Compels His Brother to Sign an Act of Adhesion.

TANGIER, June 21.—Muley Mohammed, eldest son of the late sultan and a pretender to the throne, has been imprisoned at Miraksh by order of his brother, Abdul Assiz, the sultan and compelled to sign an act of adhesion to Abdul Assiz. The position of the latter has been secured by his being recognized as sultan by the powerful sultan of Wazan.

IOWA G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT OPENS. Three Thousand Delegates Present and More Arriving on Every Train.

COUNCIL BLIFFS, June 21.—The Iowa state G. A. R. encampment opened Tuesday, with 3,000 delegates present and more arriving on every train. Five thousand visitors will be in attendance by evening. The first formal meeting was held at the park at noon, when ex-Department Commander Steadman delivered the address of welcome.

SAM PAYNE ESCAPED LYNNING. Big Mob Gathers Around Omaha's Jail, But Their Prey was Spritely Away.

OMAHA, June 18.—Thursday evening a mob came up from South Omaha to lynch Sam Payne, who confessed he killed Maud Rabel, but Sheriff Drexel had taken the prisoner to the state penitentiary at Lincoln.

WHEAT WENT UP THREE CENTS. Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Liberal selling gave wheat a life tumble today and July closed the lower than yesterday, despite a goodly supply of bullish news. July corn closed lower, July oats the higher and provisions lower all around.

Commonwealers In Court. OMAHA, June 20.—The ten commonwealers arrested at Paxton last Thursday for interfering with a Union Pacific train were placed on trial in federal court today.

Dorsey Real Estate Sold. FREMONT, Neb., June 18.—The mortgage sale of the Dorsey real estate amounted to $40,000, the amount of the mortgage and considerable more than the appraisement.

Chautauqua Dates Settled. SALEM, Neb., June 15.—President Sam W. Small of the Salem chautauqua has just wired Secretary O. W. Davis to make the dates for the assembly Aug. 12 to 19 inclusive.

Fairbury Merchants Visit St. Joseph. FAIRBURY, Neb., June 19.—An excursion party of about 200 business men of Fairbury left for St. Joseph, Mo., in a special train over the St. Joseph and Grand Island railroad.

Too Late For Small Grain. IMPERIAL, Neb., June 18.—Three inches of water fell here, thoroughly soaking the ground in this vicinity. It is too late for small grain, but is in time to save corn, hay and potatoes.

Bryan Entertains Home. WASHINGTON, June 20.—Mr. Bryan left for Nebraska Monday evening with his family, and will arrive in Lincoln Wednesday and be in Omaha Thursday to participate in the convention.

Bonacum Defeats Corbett. NEBRASKA CITY, June 21.—Judge Chapman has rendered his decision in the Corbett-Bonacum case. The decision makes the injunction perpetual. Father Corbett filed an appeal bond immediately.

Boy Burglar's Big Work. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 20.—John P. Pelt, a colored boy, aged 14, was sent to the reform school. He has robbed nearly 50 houses of small articles, entering by means of skeleton keys, which he made himself.

Bonacum Holds Confirmation Services. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., June 19.—Bishop Bonacum held confirmation services at St. Benedict's and St. Mary's Catholic churches Sunday. Fifty-two were confirmed at the former church and 19 at the latter.

Refused to Register. SUPERIOR, Neb., June 18.—Wal Hop, a Chinese laundryman of this city, was placed under arrest by Deputy United States Marshal Zook of Diller, Neb., for refusing to comply with the registry law. The prisoner was taken to Omaha.

Work of Grave Robbers. HUBBARD, Neb., June 15.—It has been discovered that the grave of Miss Tina Newberry has been robbed. The brother of the dead girl noticed that the grave had been disturbed, and suspecting the cause, uncovered the coffin and found it empty.

Sentenced to Three Years. NEBRASKA CITY, June 18.—Paul Lyon, charged with embezzling goods belonging to his employer, Captain S. H. Morrison, the jeweler, was arraigned before Judge Chapman. He pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Heavy Rains In Nebraska. OMAHA, June 18.—The heaviest rains for years fell throughout Nebraska last night, the sand hill districts particularly being drenched. It is generally conceded throughout the state that little benefit is to be derived for small grain, most being lost, but the corn crop will be larger than ever.

Maximum Rate Case. OMAHA, June 18.—In the maximum rate litigation this morning Joan L. Webster, for the state, indicated why it was not in the province of the federal court to interfere in state legislation and cited eminent authority for his position. The arguments in the celebrated case will be concluded Monday. In either event it will be appealed.

Cyclone in Sioux County. HARRISON, Neb., June 20.—The north part of Sioux county was visited by a cyclone, which was terrible in severity, but comparatively small in its scope of territory. It was about 30 rods wide and five miles in length. Everything in its path was swept from the earth. A log 14 feet in length and 15 inches in diameter was picked up and carried a distance of 60 rods.

Missouri Still on the Rise. OMAHA, June 20.—The Missouri river rose eight and one-half inches here between last night and noon today. This is a slightly less rise than anticipated at the local United States weather office from yesterday's reports of heavy rain falls to the north. The stage of the water is several inches from the danger line yet. River men think the indications are for stationary water tomorrow by noon.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria. "Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass. "Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves." Dr. J. F. Kitchener, Conway, Ark. "Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it." UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass. ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres. The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.
