

Special Bargains in Boots and Shoes.

This means a good deal to purchasers of shoes at this time providing what are advertised as bargains are really bargains and not advertised to deceive. We have in stock a number of pairs of Jno. Strohm's hand turn, common sense, plain shoes of the very finest quality of kid and were bought to sell at $1.00 to $5.00. No shoe in our store can excel them in service and wear and we offer them at $3.00, guaranteeing every pair to give satisfaction.

We have also in stock for men a few of Lilly Brackett's cork sole French calf skin and cordovan shoes worth $5.00 and $6.00, we offer them to you for $4.00.

In Boots we have some especially good bargains. You can pay as low as $1.50 or as high a price as $3.50. The latter kind are boots heretofore sold at $4.50 and $5.00. The former are equal to many you have paid $2.50 for. We have the best boot for $3.00 in kip or calf you ever saw and also a strong line of children's boots. If you are about to buy anything in the shoe line, we invite you to give us a call and will agree to save you money on your purchase.

Repairing done at cost of material and all tips sewed free of charge.

The masquerade at the fireman's hall on Saturday night managed by Messrs Sapp, Great and others, was well attended and greatly enjoyed by those present. The best of order prevailed.

A. A. Pope returned home Tuesday, from an extensive visit to southern Texas. In some ways Mr. Pope likes the Lone Star state, but there are a few objectionable features that he could not fail to observe. Generally however he considers it a good country.

Mr. Dwyer who recently received a visit from Mr. Wm. Payne, an old friend of his living at Sugar Lake, Missouri, received news of the death of Mr. Payne last week by the cars. Mr. Payne was standing on the track, and could not avoid a fast moving train which caused his death.

Last week in our account of the musicale, we failed to give the ladies who made the entertainment a success proper credit. There were several who helped in the work, but Mrs. Dr. Danerell deserves great praise for training and prompting the many little girls who participated.

And still the republican belt that was predicted after the late state convention does not materialize. From Majors down the ticket is receiving the support of republicans with greater unanimity than for many years, and republicans are in addition working harder for the success of the entire ticket. It is a republican year regardless of the fusionized effort of the demo pops to stay the tide. Superior Journal.

J. H. Richardson our new milliner is doing a fine business. She has only been here about two weeks and she has a fine trade already. She expects to remain here in the business as she is receiving her stock of goods as fast as necessary. Anybody wishing a style of hat not in her stock can have their order and we will send for it in the best of style and in the shortest of time. Her stock is up to date and her millinery house.

He will be here with Mr. Andrews next Monday and will probably make a short address also. The doctor says that Mr. Andrews is doing splendid work for the party and that those who fail to vote will not get a chance to help him.

Dr. McKeshey of Red Cloud, candidate for state senator from this district was in town Wednesday getting acquainted with the people and making republican votes, as he always does wherever he is. He will be here with Mr. Andrews next Monday and will probably make a short address also. The doctor says that Mr. Andrews is doing splendid work for the party and that those who fail to vote will not get a chance to help him.
