AUSTRIA FILES A PROTEST.

Follows Germany's Example in the Sugar Tariff Fight.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—The tariff war between the United States and Europe reached an acute phase Friday.

The very first official act of Mr. Henglemuller, the new Austrian minister, was the lodgement of a protest against that paragraph of the sugar schedule act which imposes an additional duty of one-tenth of 1 per cent on sugar coming to the United States from countries which pay an export bounty on it.

The ground taken by the minister was similar to that which formed the basis of the protest of Germany—that additional duty paid discriminates against Austria and is consequently a violation of the treaty of commerce with that nation.

So far no threat of retaliation accompanied the protest, but in this Mr. Henglemuller is but following the example of the German minister and the next step he will undoubtedly take will be in the same direction, namely: The imposition of some restriction upon American products that is imported in quantities into Austria.

The four great sources of our sugar supply outside of the small proportion contributed by Louisiana are Cuba, Germany, France and Austria. With three of these countries we are already at odds over the sugar duty and in the case of France there are already indications of the adoption of a retaliatory policy in the imposition of restrictions upon our meat trade and the importation of American wheat and flour.

This whole subject was under discussion by the cabinet and as far as can be gathered the outcome, if congress fails to come to the relief of the executive by the removal of the duty which is supposed to cause the trouble, then resort must be had to retaliation which will either open European countries to our exports or close our own ports to all European products.

Did Not Disturb Parkhurst.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—In the Madison square Presbyterian church Sunday morning an open letter in part condemning Dr. Parkhurst himself, was distributed among the congregation under the very eyes of the doctor.

The letter was signed by Samuel Milliken of Philadelphia and dated the last day of the old year. In pointed terms, the communication gave Dr. Parkhurst advice in his campaign of purifying the city and boldly stated that he had not always pursued the right methods.

The distribution of the printed leaflet apparently did not disturb Dr. Parkhurst. He made no reference to the matter.
