FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

The relief department of the B. & M. company has paid to Mrs. Frank Thornton the sum of $500 in full of life policy of her husband, Frank Thornton.—Republican City Democrat.

Messdames Cummins and Baxter, of Red Cloud, whose husbands were killed upon the Waunetta branch, by the engine backing into a horse while going at a high rate of speed, and becoming derailed, have settled with the B. & M. by accepting the insurance money. Mrs. Cummins received $1,000 and Mrs. Baxter $500.—Republican City Democrat.

The editor was dying, but when the doctor placed his ear to the patient's heart and muttered sadly: "Poor fellow! circulation almost gone!" he raised himself up and gasped: "Tis false! we have the largest circulation of any paper in the county!" Then he sank back upon his pillow with a triumphant smile upon his features. He was consistent to the end—lying about his circulation.—Ex.

J. L. Greenlee, the former editor of the Courier, who has been sick for some time, expects to make a trip to California for the benefit of his health as soon as he is able to travel.—Blair Courier.

Red Cloud has received a proposition from an eastern syndicate to establish a beet sugar factory there. In their proposition they ask Red Cloud to vote twenty-five thousand dollar bonds. The way the business men and citizens are working for the success of the scheme shows that the people are not disheartened because of their recent failure of crops. The Courier wishes them success in their efforts.—Blair Courier.

J. A. Boyd was up from Red Cloud Saturday and placed monuments at the graves of Mrs. Frances Briggs, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jenkinson, and Mabel E., daughters of Mr and Mrs. J. W. Robinson.—Franklin Sentinel.

A man named E. B. Milliken took himself to the Leavenworth penitentiary last week. He was a defaulting city clerk of Guthrie, Ok., carried the proper commitment papers, and said himself and sheriff were good friends and the sheriff did not think it necessary to come along.—Lebanon Journal.

An old railroad engineer who had been converted worded his first prayer in this wise: "Oh Lord, now that I have flagged thee, lift my feet off of the rough road of life and plant them safely on deck of the train of salvation. Let me use the safety light known as prudence, make all couplings in the train with the strong link of thy love, and let my hand lamp be the bible. And Heav-only Father keep all switches closed that lead off on the sidings, especially those with a blind end. Oh, Lord, if it be thy pleasure, have every semaphore block along the line show the white light of hope that I may make the run of life without stopping. And, Lord, give us the ten commandments as a schedule, and when I have finished the run and have, on schedule time, pulled into the great, dark station of death, may thou, the superintendent of the universe, say with a smile well done, come up and sign the pay roll and receive your check for eternal happiness."—Clinton (Ill.) Public.

M. R. Bentley of Red Cloud, Nebraska, was a Decorah visitor the past week. We learn from him that while his section of his state is suffering from drouth the people are able to care for their own needs, and are doing so. He brought to the Republican kind regards and an annual subscription from Levi Moore, who, though verging on four-score years is still an active business man of Red Cloud. Mr. Bentley has prospered greatly in the twenty odd years he has lived in Nebraska, and he is now one of the "solid" men of that part of the state. He still retains the ownership of the Iver Larsen store building, in Decorah. Although offered a better price for it than he has ever received he refuses to sell because he has faith in Decorah real estate that is now paying a good interest on the investment.—Decorah (Ia.) Republican.
