

EDITORIAL NOTES.

GENERAL MCULTA has been appointed receiver of the whiskey trust.

Aid and relief and relief and aid are the principal topics under discussion at the present time.

The Barrett Scott murderers are all released on bail, and the Lord only knows what expense the state will go to before they are properly punished.

The many woeful tales of poverty stricken Nebraska that find currency in eastern papers, are a dreadful black eye to Nebraska and a bonanza for the south.

The great fight for the Omaha post-office is ended and Euclid Martin a leader of the famous bolters who left the demo-pop convention in Omaha last October is to be the future Omaha post-master.

It is quite probable that Ex-oil-inspector Hilton will make a mean and vigorous fight before he will relinquish his grasp on the little wad of state money he may have. Mr. Hilton thinks he sees his way clear.

SINCE our last issue our local weather prognosticator has figured out that the dust that blew with the snow last week Wednesday came from China, where the Japanese are kicking up a dust with the Chinamen's pigtales.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has borrowed another $65,000,000 in gold, increasing the public debt in two years $165,000,000. Harrison decreased the debt $214,000,000. Verily, democratic free trade means also that you must get the country into debt freely as well.

The reports from various parts of the United States and foreign countries show that last week's storm was very far reaching. In the United States, blizzards and heavy snows were the rule everywhere, except in California, while in Europe the heaviest snows of the winter fell to extreme depths.

The next important event for Red Cloud will be the city election. It will be fraught with the usual amount of sang froid, provided the weather is extremely frigid. The salary that the mayoralty carries with it, along with the honors conferred, will no doubt bring forth many candidates for that office.

THIS week THE CHIEF received the 5th bi-annual report of the institute for feeble minded youth located at Beatrice. Dr. J. T. Armstrong the able superintendent shows that humane institution to be in good shape, which is a deserving compliment to his skill in caring for the poor children whose reason is bereft. He is doing a work that is commendable, and one that but few people could handle as ably as he. He is the right man in the right place, and it is lucky that he can't be removed by the governor as it would be a great calamity to the state.

The bill presented by Dr. McKeeby relative to physicians and surgeons which has already passed the second reading in the senate is at first glance a very decided menace to the medical fraternity of Nebraska. The motive of the bill however is purely in the interest of that fraternity, and is intended to exclude hereafter the many quack doctors and impostors which annually come to the state and practice a short time without expense to themselves. Dr. McKeeby will see to it that the bill will not become a law before any clause derogatory to the interest of doctors now practicing in the state is removed. The doctor evidently loves his fraternity too well to permit any legislature contrary to its interests.

When the county board passed a resolution, several weeks since, placing Webster county on the list of those counties not asking aid, their decision was met with general favor by the people of the county. THE CHIEF sustained their action, at that time and has not exceedingly regretted it inasmuch as the resolution at that time was prudent and appropriate. Moreover the resolution has been greatly misconstrued, for instead of representing Webster county as not in need of aid, the resolution simply notified Secretary Ludden of the fact that Webster county had not as yet been placed on the list of counties which solicited relief. This was not a move however to prevent Webster county from securing relief, but merely what was deemed proper county legislation at that time. It might be in order also to state that the populists on the board were not directly instrumental in securing the passage of this resolution as has been reported; but Supervisor Watt of Guide Rock a very substantial republican was the author. Since the resolution was passed the board has been the object of severe criticism, but people who understand that the resolution simply meant that Webster county at that time had not asked for relief, will take in the situation at a glance, and not attribute great blame to the county board.

The Beet Factory Project Slick

For several weeks Red Cloud has been talking sugar beet factory earnestly and almost constantly. We feel that we are truthful and have no intention of discouraging when we assert, that while the project is not entirely a failure it is at this writing very uncertain if not a thing of the past.

We hope not. We certainly need such enterprises in Red Cloud, but an undertaking of such tremendous proportions as this, suggests the fact that, in its enthusiasm, Red Cloud might bite off more than she can chew.

As a result of Messrs. Miner and Hacker's visit to Chicago, several meetings of the committee were held, here in conjunction with the mayor and city council. The proposition of Kopperl & Co., was reconsidered and another submitted to them which was like this:

Red Cloud to give Kopperl & Co., 20 acres of land for building purposes, $25,000 in cash, and its support to secure the necessary subscription of beets which is 10,000 tons the latter to be paid the first two years. The direct answer to this proposition of the Red Cloud gentlemen was the acceptance of the same, on the condition that $250 would be subscribed with which to conduct an immediate canvass for beets. When the required amount was nearly subscribed Mr. A. Hanel of the Kopperl Co. came to Red Cloud, last Tuesday. Another meeting of the committee with mayor and council was held that night, at which Mr. Hanel was presented. No definite conclusion was reached however, and Wednesday night Mr. Hanel addressed a large number of citizens at the opera house on the beet culture subject. Mr. Hanel is a cultured gentleman of European birth, and until recently has always been a banker. He has great ambition, is eager for investments, and to capitalize enterprises. Several of his associates assisted by European capital now wish to establish sugar factories in Nebraska and the spirit exhibited by the Red Cloud gentlemen naturally led Mr. Hanel to believe that the deal would be easily consummated, and they would erect a 100 ton factory in Red Cloud the coming spring.

There are several impediments in the way of the establishment of the factory at present, chief among which is the voting of the bonds, which would not be negotiable unless voted under a law making the establishment of sugar factories an internal improvement. Such a law prevails in Kansas, and such a bill will be presented to the Nebraska legislature, permitting the bonding of cities for the establishment of sugar factories. Should we secure the passage of such a bill—which will doubtless be several weeks—we can proceed to business provided the Kopperl Co., is willing, but it seems the height of folly to have the county turned upside-down soliciting beet subscriptions when the success of the project is yet to be determined by uncertain legislation.

However the Red Cloud sugar beet factory enthusiasm will experience temporary lull, and should matters come about right, there is no doubt of the earnest intention of Kopperl & Co., to establish the factory, and certainly no doubt of the willingness of our citizens to put forth every reasonable effort to secure it.

A merchant in Red Cloud, who recently became converted to the use of printers' ink, says that he is now willing to be taken into full fellowship as a genuine believer in that article, as he has abundantly proven within the last few weeks. Before he commenced its use his business was quiet, but since that date he has had people come to his store who were never inside the door and did not know that such a store existed. Moral: Use printers' ink judiciously, advertise what you have, and have what you advertise when people come, and keeping everlastingly at it will eventually bring success. No man can shut himself up in his store in these days of progression and expect people to come and trade with him if he does not have enterprise enough in him to let the people know what he has for sale through the medium of the public press. A man who thinks advertising does not pay is at least a thousand years behind the period.

SCHOOL CLIPPINGS.

No recess during this week. The thermometer and attendance rises this week.

The fourth room has held the banner for two weeks.

The arithmetic class are preparing for an examination some time next week.

Miss Jennie Dilley and McDonald Pope were visitors of the fifth room last Friday.

Gymnastics in the ninth grade are good recreations, why not give them to the whole school?

The physiology class took their final examination Monday and commenced Tuesday with book keeping.

Physical geography after completing their final examination Tuesday, will take American Literature soon.

Girls who can not leave the boys alone in school have no room there quoth one of the teachers last Tuesday.

Monday forenoon Rosco Cather occupied the judicial seat of the Virgil class while the Professor took the role of a pupil.

The following persons listened to the exercises Tuesday.—Messames Warner, Howard, Winters. Miss Cook and L. P. Albright

Senior Heflebower in trying to imitate Virgil's description of a storm at sea, injured his throat so as to be hardly able to speak.

During the Wednesday recitation in Chemistry one senior was forced to bid the teacher a fond adieu for speaking when not spoken to.

The physics class after securing the valuable (?) assistance of one chemistry lad, succeeded in doing some electro plating on pencils, for souvenirs.

On Valentine day the pupils at the south school had a box in each room where the scholars placed their letters during the day, and were distributed by the teachers at night.

Manday noon some sneak thief stole a dime from a solution prepared by the physics class for electro-plating, although the Professor made stringent efforts to discover the thief he has failed to find any clue yet.

In olden times we are told that man sometimes became so attached to their sovereign, as to lay down their lives for him, but Wednesday we were surprised to hear that a lad of the nineteenth century would wear some one else's stripes on his back.

A little contention among the girls is floating, as to who can sing highest and loudest. It is very pleasant(?) to witness. We imagine that one of these three gifted would be Patti's was the author of the letter to the rich Californian. Perhaps they all had a hand in it.

Lincoln's birthday was honored with a few exercises Tuesday afternoon at both schools. The north ward was given life sketches of Lincoln, patriotic selections, Lincoln's own sayings, Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, Lincoln's literary tasks, and musical selections, why we honor Lincoln, and a talk by the professor, while the south ward listened to war experiences during the late rebellion by D. G. Groat.

BETTY.
Mrs. J. M. Sellars received a telegram Tuesday, announcing the serious illness of her mother in Belvidere. Mrs. Sellars hastened to her mother's bedside the following morning, and reached her but a few hours before her death. Mrs. Downs is the mother of Oliver Downs formerly of this city, Mrs. W. M. Points living south of Inavale, and Mrs. J. M. Sellars and Mrs. Joseph Fogel of this city. Her husband and youngest son Samuel of Oregon, and Mrs. John Robinson of Belvidere also survive her. Mrs. Downs was a devout christian woman and loved by all who knew her.

From the Overland Mail, published at Holyoke, Colorado, we read the marriage of Mr. E. W. Varney and Miss Jessie Vischer both of that city. Miss Vischer was formerly a well known woman in some girl of this place. Both young people are held in high esteem at their home in Colorado.

Spring Medicine

It is a necessity because the tonic of winter air is gone, and milder weather, increased moisture, accumulated impurities in the blood, open the way for that tired feeling, nervous troubles, and other ills. The skin, mucous membrane and the various organs strive in vain to relieve the impure current of life. They all welcome to assist Nature at this time when she most needs help, to purify the blood, tone and strengthen the laboring organs and build up the nerves.

"After the grip I was left with a terrible weakness and palpitation of the heart. I took medicine from the doctor which did me no good. I also took other medicines without any benefit until I began to use Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cured me of dyspepsia with which I suffered ten years. It cured me of constipation which has troubled me a number of years. I feel thankful for the health I have enjoyed and I owe it all to Hood's." J. W. KNIGHT, Lebanon, Nebraska.

Hood's Pills the after-dinner pill and family cathartic. 25c.

Organized For Relief.

On last Saturday afternoon, a large number of farmers met in Judge Duffy's office for the purpose of taking steps to secure aid for the dependent of the county who are unable to secure provisions otherwise. Stephen Bayles was elected Chairman, Chas. Schaffnit secretary. In compliance with the recent act of the legislature, the following committee of relief was chosen: Jacob Kindscher, A. W. Cox, L. H. Fort, Chas. Schaffnit, Capt. Houghlin, Bud Norris O. R. Pitney and John Beauchamp. The action of the meeting was at once forwarded to the state relief association for action.

The sharp wind blew,
The fine snow flew,
And sifted down his neck;
A cold he nursed,
His system was a wreck.
For doctors' skill
He got a bill
At which he was surprised;
He wonders why
He didn't buy
That coat we advertised.
An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Better pay Wiener $20 for an overcoat than give it to the doctor. Wiener sells overcoats now at wholesale cost, and they range from $2 to $12.

Take your wagon work to Stapleton. He forges all irons for buggies out of the best Norway iron, uses no malleable iron in repairing buggies.

Wiener has filled one of his windows with shoes ranging in price up to $3.50. You can have your choice for $1.25. He also has a counter full of better grades which he is offering at $1.50 per pair.

FIFTEEN CARLOADS
Heath & Milligan's Paints.
Kansas City and a Kansas City house enjoys the distinction of having received the largest single shipment of manufactured paints ever made in the world, consisting of a solid and special train of fifteen carloads, weighing 300,000 pounds. This train was run through from Chicago over the Santa Fe road on special schedule time of a little less than eighteen hours, and now this enormous quantity of paints is stored in the large warehouse of the Campbell Glass & Paint Co.

The shipment consisted of 18,102 gallons of Heath & Milligan's prepared paints, 30,000 pounds of "Climax" and "railway" leads, 23,558 pounds of colors ground in oil and japan. Every gallon and every pound of these goods were manufactured by the Heath & Milligan Mfg Co. of Chicago, which is now by far the largest manufacturer of high grade paints in the world.

The actual working time consumed by them at their factory in filling this order complete and ready for shipment, without any previous preparation, or extra help, was only sixty-three hours and fifteen minutes, and this without in any way interfering with other orders. The entire shipment was hauled by their own teams, and the fifteen cars loaded and ready to go out in exactly seven hours and forty-eight minutes.

The above is taken from the Kansas City Star Feb. 2, and the entire line is for sale by Deyo & Grice.

Ground-hog Day has passed and gone, and old ground-hog saw his shadow the first a bright and early Saturday morning. Look out for more cold and snow.
Some one expects to live on ice cream next summer judging from the ice being carried away from Mr Cather's pond.
Wednesday the 6th this part of the Republican valley was visited by one of the most wonderful and severe snow or wind storms ever known in this part of the country. We cannot tell if it was a snow storm or a wind storm, yet it may have been both, the wind was blowing with such a gale that it was impossible to learn if the snow was falling or not. The wind commenced to blow from the north with considerable force and caused the snow that was already on the surface to get drifting over the plains to find a hiding place in the few ravines to be found in Nebraska. No doubt there are persons residing here who never saw the like before. This storm lasted about 20 hours fortunately no particular damage was done here, but we are eager to hear about things elsewhere. Persons who have been living here for 15 years or more may collect their thoughts and remember the large snow storms of January 12, '88 and February '81 of which the recent one resembled very much.
