State Encampment L. of G. A. R.
(Contributed.)
Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic were largely represented at the convention at Hastings; delegates from sixteen circles being present. Appearances are very favorable for a large number of circles being organized soon and with two new charters already in the field the Grand Army Ladies' work is certainly having great success. A large circle is being organized at Hastings of which several of the most prominent ladies of that city were initiated during the convention. Several comrades of the G. A. R., attending the encampment were also initiated. The G. A. R.'s, gave the L. of G. A. R. a cordial invitation to attend a reception on Thursday, where was heard some very interesting speeches from both ladies of the Grand Army and comrades of the Grand Army; after which the comrades escorted the ladies back to the hall with open ranks for about two and one-half blocks, while their voices rang with the good old patriotic songs. On Thursday evening the G. A. R. held a public installation which was largely attended. The ladies held a public installation on Friday afternoon which was very largely attended and at which the following officers were elected:
Department President—Mrs. Mason, Ord.
S. V.—Mrs. A. Hoge, Omaha.
J. V.—Mrs. S. Barber, Benedict.
Chaplin—Mrs. R. D. Celton, Grand Island.
Treas.—Mrs. L. Holcomb, Loup City.
Sec.—Mrs. E. E. Foeter, Ord.
Department Counselor. Mrs. Z. M. Hunter, Loup City.
Delegates to the national convention—Mrs. M. Richards, Minden; Mrs. E. A. Bayles, South Omaha; Mrs. K. A. Shepard, Grand Island; Mrs. I. A. Harlocker, Hastings.
After the installation the ladies bid good by to the comrades until they meet again next year at Omaha, and departed for their homes in the various parts of the state well pleased with the work which had been done, and with the manner in which they had been treated by the people of Hastings.

SCHOOL CLIPPINGS.
Five weeks until vacation.
No recess Tuesday forenoon.
The geometry class will finish next month.
More absentees than tardies registered this week.
Clemence Bruner filled the vacancy of teacher last Friday.
Miss Kate Reigle is numbered as one of the Monday afternoon callers.
Last Friday a good senior had the misfortune (?) of having his seat changed.
Tuesday forenoon Joseph Garber was noting the progress of the school in general.
Mrs. Martin's room held the banner this week, with Miss Belle Spanogle's room as second.
The arithmetic class complete that study this week and will take Algebra as their next study.
Washington's birthday was honored by the different rooms. Will give particulars next week.
Current events were recited Wednesday morning as a substitute for singing which relieved the monotony somewhat.
Prof. Hedge of Oskaloosa, Iowa, in company with Porter Hedge his nephew made the school a short visit Tuesday afternoon.
George Overing as a succedaneum, presided in the seat of honor during the Wednesday afternoon recitation in chemistry.
A genius of no little repute exists in the arithmetic class in the shape of an artist. Some day we may hear from him. Who knows?
A faint shadow of impending danger fits ominously about the schoolroom, leaving the past in a disturbed dream. "It's so great wrath to celestial minds."
The chemistry class failed in an experiment in which had they succeeded might have resulted in some serious accident although the greatest of precaution was taken.
Messrs Rosco Cather, Thad McNitt, Frank Goble and Horace Spanogle in behalf of the physics class undertook the task of fixing the batteries of Mayor Roby's electric bell. After a short space of time (three days) they succeeded in setting the apparatus aright.

After the Grip, diphtheria, pneumonia scarlet fever, typhoid fever, etc., Hood's Sarsaparilla is of wonderful benefit in imparting the strength and vigor so much desired.
Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels, act easily yet promptly and effectively.
Work of Webster County Relief Commission
At a meeting of the central commission held February 18, 1895 Jacob Kinischer was made permanent chairman, Chas. Schaffnit permanent secretary and John Beauchamp treasurer. J. C. Hacker and O. C. Teel were made store keepers for supplies distributed from Red Cloud. The name of G. L. Renker was placed upon the sub-committee from Walnut creek precinct in place of E. E. Ladd and James Anderson in place of Wm. Hoffman in Batin precinct.
Cars have been received at Red Cloud, Bladen, Amboy and Inavale.
Cars have been ordered for Guide Rock, Rosemont, Cowles, and Blue Hill. The books of the Relief commission are open for inspection and now is the time to make your objections.
If anyone is getting aid who is able to help himself or anyone is being slighted who needs assistance do not wait till the work of the commission closes to make it known.
A complete set of books have been opened and an itemized account of each person receiving aid is kept on record at my office.
The county central committee will meet in my office each Saturday afternoon at two o'clock and the sub-committees will meet each Thursday in their respective precincts to ascertain the needs of their people.
The following is the number from each precinct that have received aid as shown by the records in my office up to Thursday evening, February 21:

The Rev. Mr. Finch is preaching a series of excellent sermons at the Christian church, and has by no means been embarrassed by speaking to empty benches as yet. Mr. Finch is to our notion, in point of ability as an earnest and logical reasoner, the ablest evangelist that ever filled the Christian church pulpit at this place. While he is not an eloquent man he is intensely sincere, and at times tinctures his discourses with a bit of handsome rhetoric and fascinating metaphors. He is unmistakably a theologian of deep research, and is gifted with the faculty of presenting his discussion so clear and logical, that no audience can fail to clearly comprehend, and this is a rare talent with many pulpit orators. Mr. Finch is not accustomed to carrying his hearers from the sublime to the ridiculous, but speaks calmly, logically, earnestly and distinctly from the beginning of his discourse to its close. When he announces his text, or the subject has been previously stated, the audience can rely upon a thorough ventilation of the subject announced, and strict adherence to that subject alone. Elder Finch promises to do a grand work in this city, considering the favorable impression he has already made. Sunday night he answered several questions submitted, among them being this: "Is modern dancing proper in any sense for a christian to follow?" Elder Finch then cited his audience to the fact that dancing was practiced more extensively in the uncivilized ages, that as culture increases, dancing materially declines. He also said that dancing with its late hours and light clothing is not conducive of good health and stated that the most cultivated dancers were fallen women in our large cities. He then read some epigrammatic stabs at dancing from different leading men, one of which stated that by careful computation it had been ascertained that a young lady at an ordinary dance would travel 15 miles say nothing about the times she walked in the flower garden or visited the dressing room to arrange her costume and tone her complexion. It is useless to add that the vast audience present did not hold the same exalted opinion of dancing as before. Elder Finch then spoke rapidly from this text from Romans 23-6, "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Hon. J. M. Chaffin addressed a large number of citizens at the Masonic hall Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen lodge of this city. His speech was pronounced an admirable effort by all who had the pleasure of being present, and it was especially gratifying to those identified with that order. The speaker had facts and figures at tongue's end and astounded many of his hearers when he stated that the Woodman's membership was 100,000, and dwelt at length upon its merits as an insurance and fraternal order. The speaker was impetuous and very interesting in his illustrations, and speaking swiftly he said many good things that we regret there is not room to publish. At the conclusion of the address, a vote of thanks was tendered to the speaker, and the people left much more favorably impressed with the Modern Woodmen of America.

Hay for Sale or Trade
I have a large quantity of hay for sale at reasonable prices, to trade for cattle or any other young stock. Call on or address—Harry McCormick, Guide Rock, Neb. 8-4t
BENJAMIN HARRISON was able to extend $25,000,000 4½ per cent bonds three years ago at 2 per cent, but Grover Cleveland has to pay 3½ per cent for the money he is borrowing now. The difference between Republican and democratic credit ordinarily is not quite so great as this, but it is always great enough to be noticeable.—Globe Democrat.
