

CITY NEWS.

Of course they need the fireman brave To feed the engine's flame, But what's the use of a dining-car If the conductor boards the train?

E. E. Burr was up from Guide Rock Sunday.

J. W. Hiler was down from Hastings last Friday.

Blanch Sherer was visiting in Inavale last Friday.

Chris Fassler was in attendance at court this week.

Isaac Beal returned home on Wednesday evening.

T. W. Kelley of Chester was on our streets last week.

A complete new line of wall paper at Taylor's at bottom prices.

F. J. Lionberger of Humboldt spent last Sunday in Red Cloud.

If you don't see Taylor's wall paper before buying you will miss it.

Chas. Buschow of Colby, Kansas, returned home the first of the week.

Lincoln mixed paint is made especially for this climate. Sold by Cotting.

The mother of J. A. Buckles of Cowles was buried in Red Cloud last Sunday.

D. M. Smith of Concordia, Kansas, made a trip to Red Cloud the first of the week.

Job work of all kinds done at this office in first class style and for a very low figure.

W. H. Ludlow & Sons are cleaning up the brick yard preparatory to starting to make brick.

Mrs. Hill of Red Cloud, has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Rose, this week. —Franklin Sentinel.

Farming is going forward in an energetic manner in Webster county and we look for a bountiful crop.

It is time now to have your organ cleaned or repaired, and if you want it well done, see Wm. W. Tulleys.

Dr. Damerell and wife are in Illinois, where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Damerell's sister.

Organs cleaned and repaired in a workman-like manner. Be sure and see Wm. Tulleys for this kind of work.

Fred Rayl of Burr Oak was in the city this week visiting with his brother, Charles Rayl, the popular tonorial artist of this city.

Be careful, when having your organ cleaned, to get someone that knows how to clean it. See Wm. Tulleys and you will be satisfied.

S. E. Cozad, of Red Cloud, representing the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine company, was a caller Wednesday. —Franklin Sentinel.

Sir Knight Willis of the Knights Templar desire to thank Miss Sarah Conover and Mrs. L. H. Fort for flowers donated for bouquets on Easter Sunday.

Do not forget that our books are an excellent feature as a premium to THE CHIEF. Come in and put down your name, give us a dollar and get a book.

The Red Cloud Benevolent society will meet with Mrs. Rife Thursday afternoon, April 25th. The president would like to meet all of the directors at this meeting.

Thousands of fruit and forest trees at the North Branch nursery, one mile south-east of North Branch, Kansas, 15 miles south-east of Red Cloud, Neb.—The Dillon Nursery Co.

New bicycles are entering the city daily, and a number are on the road. The boys are having the track fixed up in tip top shape, and are preparing to have a fine time this summer.

Walter Curran arrived in town Wednesday from Denver, where he has been employed in a drug-store for some time past. Walter has many friends in R. C. who are glad to see him back.

Dr. Britt's lecture on "Army Experiences" before the Epworth league Saturday night, was one of the best lectures that has been produced in Red Cloud, although a very small crowd was present owing to other attractions in the city.

Several of the neighbors of Bladen camp, Modern Woodmen of America, visited the Red Cloud camp Wednesday evening, and saw John Runchey, our estimable sheriff stand on his head and do several other things too numerous to mention.

The continued story, "Chickamauga," which has been running in THE CHIEF ends this week. It has been followed to the final scene and spoken so highly of by such a large number that we will probably have another one to interest our readers soon. Watch for it.

Charley Arnold has returned from Oklahoma, and says he would not live in that godforsaken country under any consideration. He says there is not a thing that recommends the country. It is wild and full of toughs of all descriptions. He will bring his family back to Red Cloud to live.

"A man who lives over in the northwest part of town went into his cowstable the other night and by mistake mixed the gentle kine up a nice mash in a box full of saw dust instead of bran. The cow merely supposed the hard times was the cause of the economy, meekly ate her supper and the man never discovered his mistake until the next morning when he milked his cow and she let down half a gallon of turpentine, a quart of shoe pegs and a bundle of lath."

BRIEF MENTION.

Hay by the bale or ton at Roby's. Fresh garden seeds in bulk at Roby's. Choice onion sets at Roby's, 15¢ a quart.

D. McCallum was up from Guide Rock Saturday.

Postmaster Cowden was in Blue Hill this week.

J. H. Galloway was down from Hastings Friday.

H. Eambert of Kearney was in the city last week.

Night Watch Miller has been on the sick list this week.

C. S. Oxon of Gentryville, Mo., was in Red Cloud Monday.

Mrs. Garlinghouse is visiting in Beaver City this week.

The Bon Ton presents a very neat appearance these days.

Bert Grice has rented the house lately occupied by M. Finch.

C. L. Pope of Blue Hill was in this burg one day this week.

E. W. Ross and Mel Sherman were in Guide Rock this week.

Millie Boyd entertained her little friends Tuesday evening.

A. D. Ranney was down from Blue Hill the first of the week.

E. H. Furke and Wm. Barrett were on our streets Wednesday.

G. W. Wright of Hutchinson, Kansas, was in Red Cloud this week.

The Relief corps will give an entertainment in the near future.

John Barrett of Blue Hill was doing business in Red Cloud this week.

Mrs. Grace Quigley of Hastings is visiting friends in the city this week.

Judge Duffy of the county court was admitted to the bar on Wednesday.

Jos. Reese and L. Drago of Rosemont township were in town Wednesday.

H. G. Bill, J. H. Cray and G. M. Warner were up from Guide Rock Wednesday.

R. S. Prondit and I. W. Cray of Guide Rock were on our streets this week.

H. P. Saxton of Lawrence, Kansas, was on our streets the latter part of last week.

J. H. Morey, one of Hastings' prominent legal lights, was in Red Cloud Saturday.

C. L. Hoffman and W. J. Jones of Blue Hill were in Red Cloud one day this week.

Mrs. B. McClure of Riverton was visiting with W. W. Wright and family this week.

The heavy rain of this week was a valuable adjunct to our agricultural "doctrines."

The Misses Lillie and Nannie Truman departed Monday for a visit with their father in Iowa.

John Barkley found a black buckskin glove 8 1/2 size. Owner can have it by applying to him.

J. A. Hamilton, one of Bladen's enterprising citizens, was in this neck o' the woods Saturday.

Rev. Hummell united at Plainview, April 10th, Mr. Floren Hyke to Miss Louisa Reynolds.

C. W. Hubbard and A. Shaffer of Lebanon, Kansas, Sundayed in Red Cloud this week.

The pump at the water works got out of order this week and Commissioner Pond put in the day repairing it.

Peter Nelson, who has been sojourning in this city for some time, has accepted a position on W. N. Richardson's ranch, near Inavale.

Miss Grace McClelland, sister of Miss Tilla McClelland has returned to her home in Bloomington. She made many friends while in Red Cloud.

Rev. G. W. Hummell was in Red Cloud this week. He reports about eighty converts at his revival meetings at Plainview, and a continued interest of great strength still manifest.

The following gentlemen will raise sugar beets this year. Anthony Schaffer, 135 acres; Mr. Rathijan, 7 acres; Geo. Valentine, 2 acres; Elias Goble, 4 acres; Mr. Wilmot, 4 acres; Wm. Foster, 2 acres; Jos. Kubick, 20 acres, making 174 acres of beets that have been contracted for by the factories of Grand Island and Norfolk.

The following gentlemen were registered at the hotels Monday: A. M. Walters, Blue Hill; M. A. Hartigan, Hastings; J. Logan, Alma; A. H. Kidd, Beatrice; H. L. Hopkins, Cowles; H. D. Bruffor, Lincoln; M. B. Reese, Lincoln; C. H. Balliet, Omaha. Tuesday: S. A. Potter, Kearney; R. S. Bibbs, Beatrice; J. H. Carey, Guide Rock. Wednesday: E. E. Ferris, Hastings; F. A. Swozey, Blue Hill, A. M. Simerson, Blue Hill.

Laura Hedge and Nellie Maurer, who live in the country about one and one-half miles, while returning home from school on Monday in their buggy met with what might have been a serious accident. They were driving along near Charley Gurney's when a cow standing along the road started and slipped down scaring the horse which ran away, throwing the girls out and demolishing the vehicle. The buggy passed over Miss Nellie but fortunately neither of the girls were injured any more than being badly frightened.

ODDS AND ENDS.

There was a girl in our town, The wheels her head did choke; She'd speak so god-darned awful fast You couldn't see a spoke.

Wall paper at Taylor's. The nicest line of curtains at Taylor's.

Satisfaction guaranteed at Tennant's gallery.

Call and see Taylor's carpets before buying.

House and barn for rent. Inquire at this office or of Wm. Engels.

Mr. Bennett has moved his family in the Dr. Tulleys' dwelling.

E. J. Solomon of Bladen was in attendance upon court this week.

A. Galusha went to Lincoln this week to assist in auditing the A. O. U. W. books.

Judge Beall was presiding over the district court this week with his usual dignity.

Mrs. Woods and children of McCook are visiting with J. O. Lindley and family this week.

M. W. Fuller of Campbell was in Red Cloud Saturday buying nursery stock from E. B. Smith.

Sheriff Runchey says he can tell a "buzz saw" when he sees it whirling forty miles a minute.

Go to W. B. Roby, one door west of the post office for fair dealing, you get the worth of your money there.

J. K. Sanborn and wife, who have been visiting at different points throughout the state, returned to Red Cloud on Saturday.

Mrs. Sadie Wilson and little son returned home to Beatrice Tuesday, after a pleasant visit of two weeks with relatives in this city.

Ed Royce of South Park, Colorado, and Frank Royce of Lebanon, Kansas, were visiting their sister, Mrs. Charley Gilham this week.

Take your wagon work to Stapleton. He forges all irons for buggies out of the best Norway iron, uses no malleable iron in repairing buggies.

W. H. Giwits returned to Red Cloud Monday evening, and we soon expect to hear the poppety-pop of the pop-corn poppin' in the popper on the corner.

When your piano needs tuning, call on Prof. Jenkins, who is now prepared to do this work in a satisfactory manner. Rooms over First Nat'l Bank building.

Miss Maggie Heaphy, niece of A. J. Tomlinson, who was called here by the sickness of Mrs. Tomlinson, returned to her home in Bloomington, Illinois, last Saturday.

Don't forget the "kid band" will give a sociable tonight. People should turn out and help the boys along. They are making fine progress and in a short time will be in fine shape.

Prof. Jenkins made another trip to McCook Monday to help furnish the music for a ball given at that place Monday evening. He returned Tuesday, bringing with him a fine new bicycle and a happy smile.

Charley Potter who has been in Lincoln for some time under special treatment for some internal trouble arrived home on Wednesday evening, much improved, and with careful treatment will soon regain his old time vigor.

R. L. Davis, who was mentioned last week as having mysteriously disappeared, got unweary about not having heard from his family and started overland after them. He telegraphed his wife that he was at Bloomington and all was serene.

Dr. F. E. McKeely was in Nebraska City the fore part of the week to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the Institution for the Blind, of which he is a member. Fred is a rising young physician, and is building up a lucrative patronage for himself in this city.

A fellow the other day, who don't live in Kentucky, sent his Red Cloud girl a picture, wherein he was dressed in a big fur overcoat with a big gun on his shoulder and the following legend indited on the bottom of the photograph: "Tis I, be not afraid." He looked savage, but it was only at first glance.

The Belt last week accused Jerry O'Connor of setting fire to a lot of rubbish near the jail. We are informed by Charley Robinson and Sheriff Runchey that Uncle Jerry did not light the match that caused the combustion that burned the leaves that Jerry raked, but that they did it with their little matches and were very careful that it did not set fire to the wire fence near by. Further deponent sayeth not and that defendants here rest their case.

Morris Stern is a great horticulturist and florist, besides an expert gardener. Last fall he carefully covered up a whole lot of cherry sprouts, thinking they were strawberry plants, and this week when he thought all danger of frost was over he proceeded to uncover them so that the vines might receive the beneficial influence of Old Sol to energize the plant into a quicker production of the delicious berry. He was working hard at the supposed vines when some fellow discovered that they were cherry sprouts and Morris is now very mute. Straw berries have gone down with him.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

Advertisement for B. F. Mizer, Proprietor, listing various products like baking powder, glass goblets, and home-cured hams at low prices.

Advertisement for B. F. Mizer, Proprietor, featuring a logo and text about tea and coffee.

Advertisement for 'The Bon Ton' bakery, listing products like bread, cakes, and doughnuts, and delivery services.

Advertisement for 'PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER', highlighting its quality and awards.

THE CHEAPEST GOODS you can buy. THE LOWEST PRICES you can get. are not all that is necessary in purchasing Boots and Shoes.

Physician and Surgeon, City and country calls promptly answered. MOON BLOCK, RED CLOUD.

Spring Outfit

Will cost less money at our store than ever before in the history of our business.

Ready-Tailored Clothing. We have determined to undersell everybody else.

The up-to-date Outfitters.

FOR THE ABOVE GOODS OR ANYTHING ELSE IN THE CLOTHING LINE CALL ON G. WIENER, - The Clothier, RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA.

SEED POTATOES!

Early Ohio's $1.15; Early Rose $1.00, Burbank's, $1.00.

PUREST SEED in the MARKET. SHEROOD & ALBRIGHT.