A Texas Song.

O money, O money, thy praises I sing. From art my conqueror, my god, and my king: 'Tis for thee I preach, 'tis for thee I pray, And make a collection twice every Lord's day. I have candles and all sorts of dresses to buy, For I wish you to know that I think my church high— I don't mean of structure, of steeple, or wall, But so high that the Lord doesn't reach it at all. I have poor in my district who need some relief, I preach to their poverty, I pay for their grief, I send my box round to them morning and night, And I hope they'll remember the poor widow's mite. I gather my knowledge from wisdom's great tree, And the whole of my trinity in pounds and pence, Shillings and pence are all that I crave From my first step on earth to the edge of my grave. My pay may be hundreds or thousands a year; Double it, treble it, still I am here, With my box, or my bag, collecting your brass. I'll not do like Jesus did—ride on an ass. I'll have carriages, horses, servants and all; I'll not take it a foot, like Peter and Paul; I'll not do like John, live on bread and honey, So out with your purses and down with your money. Money is my creed and I won't pray without it, And the heavens are closed against all who doubt it. For this is the essence of the present religion, Come to church regular and be plucked like a pigeon. Fools sometimes ask what I do with my money, They might as well ask what bees do with honey. I answer them all with a wink and a nod, Three-thirds to myself and the remainder to God. And when I am dead and buried to rest, Place a box on my grave—'tis my latest request— That friends may all know, who come for reflection, That I can't rest in peace without a collection.

A small debt produces a debtor, a large one, an enemy.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspaper miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Belan, Worth Co., Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison has been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by Devo & Gries.

Obituary. Died, April 2, 1895, after a short illness Willie, only son of A. H. and Mary Spracher, aged 13 years. His whole life having been spent in this vicinity and was known of many and beloved by all. When at the age of twelve years he became converted in the M. E. church at Eckley, uniting with the same. His character was above reproach, at home as an obedient son and loving brother ever thoughtful and mindful in the interests of home and welfare of those around him. At school he was diligent and energetic and always found at the head of his class. He was a general favorite among his schoolmates and looked upon by all as having the promise of a bright future career.

He was a regular attendant at Sunday school and an attentive scholar. He was also an active member of Eckley Epworth League. He leaves many friends to mourn his loss, and the family relatives have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep; A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes. Farewell, for the present, farewell, The joys of that morn'g who can tell, When Jesus our Lord shall appear.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions of the Eckley Epworth League on the death of Willie Spracher. WHEREAS, Death for the first time since the organization of our Epworth League has entered among us in the removal of Willie Spracher our dearly beloved brother, who was always ready to do his part, conscientious in all things, therefore be it,

Resolved, That we miss him socially for his kind and loving manner won the hearts of all with whom he associated, and

Resolved, that in the sudden removal in his early youth of one who gave bright promise of a life of usefulness, we are admonished of the uncertainty of life and of the great need on our part of even the youngest to prepare for death and eternity.

Resolved, That we seeing the shortness of time and the certainty of death, redouble our energies in the cause of the master, knowing that night soon cometh when no man can work.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the sorely bereaved parents and sisters and other relatives of our dear young friend, praying that the "God of Consolation" may speak peace to their hearts in this their hour of darkness and sorrow, comforting them with the hope of reunion with their loved one in that land where there shall be no parting and where sorrow and sadness flee away.

Resolved, That this be printed in the county papers, and a copy sent to the family.

Obituary.

Elizabeth Miller was born in St. Joseph county, Indiana, July 27, 1834, and died at Cowles, Nebraska, April 13, 1895, aged sixty years, eight months and seventeen days. She was united in marriage to James A. Buckels September 22, 1853. She leaves her husband and three children to mourn her loss.

Over the river she beckons to me, and I load one who crossed to the farther side. The gleam of her snowy robes I see but her voice is lost in the rushing tide. She crossed in the morning bright, we saw not the angels who met her there. The gates of the city we could not see, over the river my mother is waiting for me. We hear the dip of the golden oars and catch a gleam of the snowy sail. And low they have passed from our yearning heart. We only know that their bark no more may sail with us o'er life's stormy sea. Yet somewhere I know she is watching and waiting for me. H. H.

WANTS THE ISLAND.

BRITAIN AND THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

The Cession of Corn Island by Nicaragua Would Give England the Command of the Canal—Little Republic Looks for New Allies.

Managua, Nicaragua, April 24.—The British government has again made proposals. It has leaked out, for acquiring Corn Island, near the eastern terminus of the proposed ship canal. It is believed Nicaragua's new minister of foreign affairs, Matus, favors this scheme. But it is feared such a step would bring on the long-threatened revolution and might provoke a protest from the United States government.

It has also been suggested recently that the money indemnity demanded by England be raised by leasing Corn Island either to the United States government or to an American syndicate which has already begun negotiations for the island. Cable dispatches from London mention rumors that Great Britain will refuse to accept Nicaragua's proposition to submit all the disputes between the two countries to arbitration. But these reports can not be verified here. The government claims to have no information upon the subject. Administration officials assert a peaceful settlement of the difficulty will be made soon. England, according to rumor, has assured the United States no action will be taken by her that will affect the interests of American citizens here or of other foreign residents, and that she will only declare passive blockade against this country.

WE WILL NOT HELP.

United States Government Can Not Support Nicaragua.

San Jose, Costa Rica, April 24.—Unconfirmed rumors are circulating here that the American government has notified Nicaragua's government that it can get no help from the United States, and that it has committed a wrong act in expelling Consul Agent Hatch. Nicaragua must make the best settlement it can with England, for even if Hatch has done all he is charged with, Nicaragua should have preferred a complaint formally against him to his government. In such a case the English government would either have withdrawn Hatch from Bluefields or have punished him. But in no case had Nicaragua the right to expel him or any other consular agent. These reports originate in telegrams received here by leading officials from Washington. Foreign residents say England would never bombard Greytown, as most of the latter there are foreigners.

Little Republic Seeking New Allies.

Colon, Colombia, April 24.—Nicaragua is seeking allies. It is understood here. She is preparing in every other possible way, it is said, to resist Great Britain's demands, contained in the recent ultimatum, for punitive damages for the banishing of British subjects from the Mosquito coast and for damages to the property of those and other subjects.

Incited to Revolt.

Port Limon, Costa, Rica, April 24.—Bluefields advises report that the Indians in Mosquito are being incited to rise against Nicaragua, being promised aid from Jamaica, if they will agree to reinstate Chief Clarence.

Venezuela Settles with Italy.

Caracas, April 24.—Venezuela has agreed to pay $100,000 to Italy for the loss sustained and damage done to Italian property during the late civil war in Venezuela.

BANDITS SHOT TO DEATH.

Feliciano Martavos and Mauricio Rivalo, Executed in Military Style. Guadalupe, Mexico, April 24.—The execution of the famous bandits Feliciano Martavos and Mauricio Rivalo, early yesterday morning attracted wide attention. Hope of reprieve by President Diaz was held by the lawyers and friends of the condemned until the night before the execution, when the time of limitation having expired, the prisoners were led to prepare for death at sunrise. At 5 o'clock Sub-Lieut. Jose Llanow arrived with an escort of twenty gendarmes from the state forces and two minutes later filed out with the prisoners, who affectionately embraced their spiritual comforters. On the taking leave of the priests the two bandits were placed in a kneeling posture on the north side of the prison and at the word of command were pierced with bullets from the double file of police, who fired in unison. The two men dropped lifeless, each falling toward the other, after which finishing shots were given in the chest and brain of the already dead men. Martavos and Rivalo were among the most desperate outlaws and bandits who ever operated in the west coast country.

WARSHIPS AT NICARAGUA.

British Vessels Enter Corinto Harbor—Government in a Quandary. New York, April 24.—The Herald correspondent in Corinto, Nicaragua, writes that the British fleet entered that port yesterday. It consisted of the Royal Arthur, the Wild Swan and the Satellite. The fact that the ships left Panama under sealed orders caused much speculation about their destination. The government has taken no steps nor arrived at any definite plan of action in case of blockade or bombardment. Americans having interest here say it is time the United States stepped in to keep the ports open to American vessels.

Trawlers Make a Ghastly Catch.

Lowestoft, Eng., April 24.—A trawler brought to this place several articles taken from the body of a woman which was brought up from the deep in the trawler's net. They proved to belong to Miss Emma Schlegel, the sister of Eugene Schlegel, one of the surviving passengers of the North German Lloyd steamship Etbe. Mr. Schlegel is a brother of the junior partner of the firm of Behlen & Schlegel, dealers in paints and oils, of No. 5 North William street, New York, and was on a pleasure trip to New York when the accident occurred. The body of Miss Schlegel was recommended to the sea.

ENLISTS 1,000 PAPERS.

Crusade Against Free Silver Started in New York.

New York, April 24.—An important crusade against the free coinage of silver will be inaugurated in the metropolis this week. It will cover every section of the country, and it will not only aim to give an expose of the fallacies of the advocates of free silver, but will also advance the ethics of sound money. This movement, while it will be separate from the Memphis convention, will have the same aim, and its purposes will be to educate the public for the money questions that are bound to figure in the presidential election next year. A series of editorial articles will appear regularly in at least a thousand newspapers all over the country beginning this week attacking the free silver advocates. The latter have become decidedly aggressive in the west, particularly in Illinois and Michigan, so that the monometallists of the metropolis believe that a destructive rather than a constructive campaign should be waged at once. The head and center of the metropolitan movement is the Reform club of New York, which numbers among its members nearly a thousand of the most representative men of the metropolis and twice as many more who are scattered all over the union. The club has been working quietly for some months past, but now that all indications point to a presidential campaign next year in which the leading issue will be the free coinage of silver they feel that an aggressive crusade is necessary.

TROUBLE AMONG MINERS.

Convention at Pittsburg Decides to Hold Out for 60-Cent Rate.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 23.—The miners' convention adjourned yesterday after being in session all day. It was expected that the operators would agree to a conference, but in this the miners were disappointed. The attendance was much larger than Saturday, and the river mines, which have been working at the 60-cent rate, were well represented. All the delegates from up the river brought with them considerable money, which was divided among the idle strikers. A resolution to hold out for the 60-cent rate was introduced and according to the press committee was carried unanimously. The convention then adjourned. It was suggested to one of the delegates that the action of the convention was possibly a mistake, when the delegate replied: "We waited all day for a conference with the operators and they thought they would ignore us. We will now give them a chance to make good their bluff of starting their mines at the 60-cent rate. There are more men working at the 60-cent rate than is generally supposed. We might just as well starve in idleness as in working."

SPAIN WILL PROTEST.

Madrid, April 24.—At a conference between the premier, Senor Canovas del Castillo, and the minister of the colonies, Senor Castellano, the reception accorded Sunday last in New York to Carlos M. de Cespedes, son of the first president of the Cuban provisional republic, who arrived there on the steamer La Champagne from Havre, was discussed and it was decided to call the attention of the United States, as a friendly nation to the work of the separatists within the United States.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 23.—Mankel do Martel, who was connected with the Lagonda when the yacht was seized at Fernandina by United States authorities and found to be loaded with arms for Cuba, has been in Jacksonville a week, hiding at the home of Mr. Rau, president of the local chess club. A movement is on foot under Martel's guidance to send a filibustering expedition from some point in Florida. It is said that arms have already arrived secretly at Fernandina and that Martel is going to New York to procure a ship. Martel asserts that the insurgent cause is gaining strength every day. He said the press report of Mance's suicide was a mistake.

Missouri Legislature Convenes.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 24.—The legislature convened in extraordinary session at noon in response to the proclamation issued a few weeks ago by Governor Stone, in which he exhorted the lobby and declared that the time had come when it should be definitely determined whether the people or the lobby should rule in Missouri.
