THE

Reliable Clothier

RED CLOUD, NEBRASKA.

THE CHEAPEST GOODS you can buy, THE LOWEST PRICES you can get, are not all that is necessary in purchasing Boots and Shoes.

Many of you have tried the above plan and it has not always given you the satisfaction you desired. You may have spent more than the difference that it would have cost for a better quality of goods at a little higher price in repairs made not once but many times until, you threw them aside in disgust. Don't allow yourself to be fooled ALL THE TIME. We take pleasure in dealing in SATISFACTION as well as in BOOTS and SHOES, and the complaints we have are few and far between, and are instantly made satisfactory to you when made. Will you not try us this year and save a portion of your shoe bill by dealing with us? We await your decision.

BLAKESLEE & KALEY.

FRED E. MCKEEBY, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon, City and country calls promptly answered. MOON BLOCK, RED CLOUD.

BRIEF MENTION.

G. W. Childs. Wanted—a few more good rains soon. Mrs. A. Letson has put city water up on her premises. Rev. Metcalf of Cowles was in Red Cloud this week.

Geo. Shoup has gone east again with his picture wagon.

Will Kellogg gave a picnic party to a number of his friends last Saturday.

Eighty sacks of flour were received here this week by the relief commission.

Mrs. E. A. Wright of Missouri has come to Red Cloud to visit with her son, J. B. Wright.

The city council met Tuesday evening and made their estimate of expenses for the fiscal year.

Mrs. C. E. VanLoon of St. Joseph, Mo., is visiting with A. J. Carey and family this week.

Miss Emma Bradley of Superior arrives in the city this evening, the guest of Mrs. C. B. Cronc.

Now that telephones are getting cheaper, why don't Red Cloud try to establish an exchange?

Mrs. S. R. Graham of Hiawatha, Kan., is visiting her parents this week, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dilley.

Geo. F. Stapleton and his two boys, Lew and George, have put in one hundred acres of corn this spring. Pretty good.

They do say Ed Brown saw a prize fight for a dollar and that Rob Martin climbed a tree in ten seconds. How is it, boys?

It is rumored that Jack Frost nipped George Morhart's mustache and turned it to an ermine hue, and that it will never recover.

Mrs. Mark Noble of Kearney, who has been visiting with S. B. Kizer and family, and with friends in this county, has returned home.

H. E. Pond, E. L. Ely, A. Galusha, M. B. McNitt and F. G. Blakeslee were in Kearney this week attending the grand lodge of the A. O. U. W.

Capt. Knight, Charley Hunter, Zeph Rosencrans, J. H. Sawyer and other notable Inavallians were transacting business at the "hub" Saturday.

The meanest man alive is the fellow who will poison a fine dog. Joe Warren and John Tomlinson are two gentlemen who have lost fine dogs by that method recently.

The frost in this section did the greatest damage by nipping potatoes, corn, and early garden vegetables; however, it is thought that they will recover. The fruit is said to be damaged slightly.

An estimate has been made by an experienced gentleman for the proposed sewer on Webster street. The estimate per block, and one street, is at the rate of $233. This includes the connections at the street corners.

The great problem that is agitating the city dads is "where and how can we get a good and sufficient supply of pure and wholesome city water?" That is an important thing to consider. Consider well; be sure that you are right, and then go ahead, and the people will be with you, Mr. Mayor and City Council.

Hon. W. A. McKeighan, R. B. Fulton, D. J. Judson and wife, Mrs. Kate Pond and Mrs. E. G. Talbot attended the convention of the Nebraska and Kansas Inter-State Reunion Association at Superior Wednesday. Comrade Schuler was elected commander and Mrs. Pond president. The next reunion is to be held at Hastings.

Hon. J. M. Chaflin of this city will deliver an address to the people of Guide Rock on the 26th of this month in King's hall, on the popular subject of "Is the world growing better." We had the pleasure of listening to Mr. C. recently, at a lecture which he gave to the M. W. A. of this city, which was filled with bright and eloquent ideas and delivered in his usual happy way. He is a very pleasant speaker and handles his subjects in an excellent manner. The people of Guide Rock should not miss the opportunity to hear him.

The worth of men, as all garments should not be measured by their occasional attainments, but by their every day qualities. The beauty of the "H. S. & M." clothing is in its uniform excellence. Sold by Wiener.

Jas. Pond, youngest and only brother of Water Commissioner H. E. Pond of this city, aged 45 years, died at his home in Castle, New York, where he was born and reared, on May 8th and was buried on the 9th. Mr. Pond has the sympathy of his friends in this city in his sad affliction.

Red Cloud has many honors thrust upon her. Only recently, C. E. Adams, commander of the department of Nebraska G. A. R., appointed H. E. Pond on his staff, and made O. C. Bell bugler for the department. The "City of Trees" takes no back seat for any one. We now look for a new railroad soon.

Rev. E. L. Ely and wife were in the city this week visiting friends. Mr. Ely was only recently the reverend pastor of the Congregational church, and as such made hosts of friends while located here, who were profoundly pleased to see his pleasant face upon our streets. The people of Red Cloud have a very warm place in their hearts for Rev. Ely and family.

The band boys celebrated their anniversary last Monday with a grand picnic in Hummel's grove across the river, and a nicer place would be hard to find. Large trags, plenty of shade, and all the "bluffs" anyone would care to run. The jolly crowd consisted of the band boys, their girls and a few other friends. Everybody enjoyed themselves hugely, and it is rumored that "Papa" Bell partook of a little of pop and actually got full at the table. But then, we would hardly blame him, as the bounteous feast spread quite was enough to tempt any person to forget himself. After supper, when the sun was nearing the horizon, the band played the handsome and common song of "The Home-Coming" and many of them were home. All present vowed there had been a picnic, and no mistake.

ODDS AND ENDS.

The operator at Cowles had a team of horses stolen from him Tuesday. No trace of them has yet been found.

Waverly bicycles, the best in the world, for sale by W. W. Wright. Prices reasonable. See him if you want a bike.

Quite a number of strangers, delegate to the G. A. R. convention at Superior, were on our streets Wednesday and Thursday.

Take your wagon work to Stapleton. He forges all irons for buggies out of the best Norway iron, uses no malleable iron in repairing buggies.

Mrs. Blanch Sherer now possesses a handsome safety. We would be glad to see more of Red Cloud's young ladies join in this healthful exercise.

A poor dog laid down on the right of way of the city street car line and attempted to expire. Some fellow with sympathetic feeling aided the poor dog to canine heaven by the bullet route.

Grand lecture on Odd Fellowship at the opera house in Red Cloud, Neb., Wednesday evening, May 23, 1895, by Past Grand Master E. J. O'Neil. All are cordially invited. Seats free. By order of committee.

The "cake walk" gotten up by Mrs. M. R. Bentley for the benefit of the Congregational church came off last evening, and was a grand success. The first prize consisting of a fine cake was awarded to R. M. Martin and Miss Bessie Seymour as best walkers and the booby cake was awarded to the editor of this paper and Miss Grace Fort, who excelled (?) all others as green pedestrians. The entertainment was both novel and pleasing.

The A. O. U. W. grand lodge was a grand success this week at Kearney. Over 500 delegates were present. Rev. J. G. Tate was re-elected G. M. W. for the 5th time. Rev. E. L. Ely of Red Cloud lodge was elected grand trustee. Over $8,000 was paid out in mileage and per diem. There are now 19,000 members in the state, and Rev. J. G. Tate is the one man whose administration has been prominent in bringing about this great and grand result.

Dr. Robert McIntyre, of Denver, the noted lecturer, entertained the people of Red Cloud, through the efforts of Prof. Caster, Tuesday and Wednesday with two of his instructive lectures. Dr. McIntyre is a host within himself and those who hear him once are always ready to listen to him again. He is a natural born and finished orator. His talk on the "Sunny Side of Soldier Life" was the grandest talk of the kind ever heard in Red Cloud and his "Fun on the Farm" was also highly appreciated. Prof. Caster is to be congratulated on securing so able a lecturer to entertain our people.

Mrs. Dr. Emigh received word from Vienna, Va., this week that her aged father, Mr. Lydecker, had passed from earth to the Great Beyond. He was 80 years of age, and has lived to see many of the marvelous and unthought-for inventions of the world come into use—such as the railroads, steam and electric, the telephone, the telegraph, the cables across the sea, etc. He had seen several wars with which this nation was implicated, and during the 80 years of his life he saw a powerful nation grow from the original thirteen colonies. He died rich in knowledge of this world's affairs, and knowing that he had lived an honorable and useful life.

Will Weiser is fast becoming one of the finest slack wire performers in the United States. By constant practice since he was twelve years old, Will has mastered all the feats commonly performed by such artists, such as sitting in a chair, climbing the ladder, juggling, turning as he swings, standing on his head, etc. Will says he likes to do feats that nobody else does, and he does it. Though some of the acts mentioned have been performed by others, they are seldom seen as they are only performed by experts, but he has some new feats on the ladder, the chair, and is now practicing to walk on his hands, which he is sure to do, as he is now able to maintain his balance and take a step or two, but he promises some still better when he has this one learned. Will has plenty of pluck, and perseverance and is sure to succeed.

It Will Pay You

To call and get my prices before buying your goods when in the city. You will find my goods first-class in every respect and at prices that all can buy.

TAKE THE ONE ITEM OF FLOUR!

I am saving you five cents a sack on all grades, and there are no goods in the city that are equal in quality. Parties have been trying to get something to compete with these goods, but have failed. They are talking of lower prices, but get my prices before buying. You are all aware that I will meet competition at all times, and mostly go one better.

Next week I will have a line of bargains on hand for you again and I want everybody to come in and get some of them before they are all gone.

REMEMBER OUR HOME CURED MEATS.

The teachers meeting held at Bladen last Saturday was well attended. The school room was filled with teachers, patrons, officers and young people. Mr. John M. Earner was chosen secretary pro tem. Supt. D. M. Hunter presided over the meeting. Some questions on English history were presented and answered. Discussion on moral instruction as to ends, materials and methods was opened with a paper by Miss Blanch Cather, Ruth Householder and Jessie Arnold. A discussion of the subject, "Religion in the Schools" was opened with a short talk by Miss Annie Roth. Many teachers took an active part in the discussion of the subject presented. A number of literary gems and maxims were recited by some of the teachers. Some young ladies of the Bladen school led the music of the meeting. The superintendent talked to the teachers just before adjournment of the meeting upon school matters, principally in regard to the county teachers' institute to be held one week, commencing August 19, 1895. The names of the teachers present were as follows: County Superintendent D. M. Hunter, Principal John F. Curran, Principal J. J. Tooley, Principal Jessie Arnold, Messrs. A. E. Wagner, Ed J. Overing, jr., S. Frisbie, John M. Earner, Geo. A. Springer, Norton Watson, Mr. Crawford, Misses Annie Roth, Susie Kenady, Ruth Householder, Alice E. Rensberg, Mamie Householder, Rosanna E. Stein, Della E. Tuttle, Marie Taylor, Edna Elington, Nellie Reed, Jessie Holycross, Blanche Cather.

In this case it is connected by belt to the shaft which drives the mill machinery and the water is supplied directly from the flume by a four inch pipe and is forced through a three inch pipe. The pump has a capacity of 675 gallons per minute and forces the water 700 feet to the upper reservoir which is elevated 55 feet above the pump. The company tried four inch tiling for conducting the water but it did not stand the pressure and they were compelled to use three inch iron pipe. The upper reservoir is 300 feet long 100 feet wide and five feet deep and has a capacity of about 11,200,000 gallons. The lower reservoir is much smaller and can be filled in four hours. The company expects to irrigate about twenty acres this year and also intends to put in fire protection at the mill using the pump with hose. Besides this field the company will irrigate another tract of about fifteen acres directly from the mill race.
