The Children's day exercises at the Congregational church Sunday was not very largely attended perhaps on account of the postponement.

While in Topeka last March, E. T. Barber, a prominent newspaper man of La Crosse, Kan., was taken with cholera morbus very severely. The night clerk at the hotel where he was stopping happened to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea remedy and gave him three doses which relieved him and he thinks saved his life. Every family should keep this remedy in their home at all times. No one can tell how soon it may be needed. It costs but a trifle and may be the means of saving much suffering and perhaps the life of some member of the family. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Deyo & Grice druggists.

Gardenvale.

A rain would not hurt the crops but everything is growing nicely. Onions are knee high and still growing, they are far ahead of the weeds.

G. A. Latta took a load of produce to Red Cloud Tuesday. Gardeners keep the market well supplied.

Carl Cochran of Red Cloud was in Gardenvale one day last week.
Misses Mabel Waller and Marie

Mr. Henry Keeney had the stars and stripes floating from the dome of his castle a few days ago. He is an American.

Mr. Cunningham is helping George Mann with his onions.

The young folks expect to take in the celebration at Cowles the fourth. Can a ghost walk a railroad bridge? In the words of the poet:

It may be so
Yet I don't know
It appears to me like a lie.
But it may have been a shadow of a ghost, that scared Sofunny and Pint of whisky.

If an American wishes to work gets a job of work, works, receives his pay, and behaves himself why need a neighbor kick? Where did neighbors forefathers come from? Is not a naturalized citizen an American? Gardenvalers are tired of neighbors misrepresented reports.
NOT A RUSSIAN.
