Made His Last Run.

Joe Williams, who is known to most of our citizens who have resided here for a dozen or more years, as the jolly B. & M. Ry. conductor, died, after a short illness, at his home in Bloomington last Saturday. Joe was a favorite with all who knew him (and he had many acquaintances), having resided in this vicinity for so many years. He was a prominent member of Red Cloud Lodge No. 50, A. O. U. W. The lodge chartered a special train last Sunday and attended the funeral in a body leaving Red Cloud about one p. m., and returning about seven the same evening. His many friends here will be pained to learn of his premature death, and they, along with THE CHIEF, extend their heartfelt sympathy to the wife and children of the deceased. May his ashes

Aunt Jane Brown, living about eight miles south of Red Cloud, just in the edge of Kansas, who was one of the pioneer residents of this county, died suddenly last Sunday and was buried on Tuesday. Mrs. Brown had been in Red Cloud on Saturday, apparently in the best of health, and was, as far as is known, and did not suspect death was so close at hand. But He who carries destinies in the hollow of his hand, beckons and we must respond. This was the case with Mrs. Brown. Hate and hearty on Saturday, on Sunday she passed from earth to the glory world. She was stricken with cholera morbus, and before aid could be summoned, had passed to the land beyond the blue to oin her husband, who had preceded her. ### Sunday School Rally.

Last Sunday afternoon a band of Sunday-school workers, led by R. B. Fulton and C. L. Cotting, met the people of Dist. No. -, in Pierce's schoolhouse, to organize a Sabbath-school as was previously announced. The attendance was not so large as usual owing to a misunderstanding as to time and place, but the interest and enthusiasm were not lacking in the least, C. L. Cotting led the singing, Miss Josie Igou presided at the organ, and Miss Lillie Smith sang a beautiful solo. R. B. Fulton, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. McCane, Prof. Hunter and Mr. Pierce gave short interesting talks. They then proceeded to elect officers for a permanent organization, which result is an assurance of a successful school. Mrs. J. S. Cox, superintendent; Mrs. J. S. Cox, Asst. Supt.; Mr. Pierce, Sec'y. Next Sunday morning at ten o'clock all are cordially invited to come out and help make ene of the best schools in the county.
