EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Nebraska Editor has become one of the substantial institutions of the state. The Editor comes to us each month filled with choice news of the fraternity and much sound advice. "May it live long and prosper."

HENRY RICHMOND, late editor of the Nation, and Fatty McMillan, got into a quarrel one evening this week and "Col." Richmond led out with his right and felled his antagonist. Judge Duffy decided the fight a draw. The controversy was over an item that McMillan had sent in to the State Journal.

The rain of Tuesday night was a savior to our corn crop. It will add hundreds of thousands of bushels to the crop of '95. Webster county will have plenty to live on this year. The corn crop will not be as large as usual, but will be sufficient, while the crop of potatoes, oats, wheat, onions, hay, etc., will be plentiful.

The republican party believes in protection, good money, and plenty of labor for the working man. How about the party in power? They believe in cheap goods, free trade, poorly paid labor, and a great deal of superfluous wind. Unfortunately, the working man cannot live on wind any more than can the farmer live on starvation prices for his product. Protection makes good times, good prices, and plenty of labor.

BRO. WALQUIST, of the Adams County Democrat, thinks that Judge Deall will be his own successor. Now, Bro. Walquist, let THE CHIEF give you a pointer. Hon. JES. McNENY of this city will be the next judge of the 10th district. Remember that he towers, intellectually, head and shoulders, over Judge Deall, and as a disciple of Blackstone he has but few equals in this neck of the woods. There are other candidates, but we believe that our "Mc" will get there.

A. B. SMITH, assistant general passenger and ticket agent of the Burlington, accompanied the large excursion of real estate men that passed through here on Wednesday evening, under the direction of the "Great Burlington Route." Mr. Smith is an affable and courteous gentleman, and takes great pride in pointing out the many good points in our favorite "Nebraska Land." The excursion was run for the purpose of inducing immigration to Nebraska. They may say what they please about the Burlington road, but one fact remains, that the company is doing more for Nebraska than any other line in the state. The Burlington officials are always ready to give all the information possible to people who desire to settle in the state, besides doing all it can to induce people to locate here. Disgruntled parties who make efforts to cripple railroads should not forget that the railroads have made the great "American Desert" to bloom like a rose.

COL. W. S. RAKER of the Gretna "Reporter," by daring to speak the truth concerning a late federal grand jury, has incurred the displeasure of that malicious and discriminating lunatic, Judge Scott, and brought death and desolation to his home. The story of Col. Raker's trouble is a sad, sad tale. Refused a trial in his own county where the alleged crime was committed and dragged away to wicked Omaha, he was made an easy victim, while his wife at home in delicate health could not withstand the shock of seeing her beloved husband cast behind prison bars. At last by request of the prosecuting witness, Mr. Raker was released on bond and permitted to visit the bedside of his dying wife, who died soon after. The trial will be appealed to the supreme court, which tribunal will surely overrule the unjust decision of Scott. The Papillion Times is raising a fund, dependent upon contributions from the newspaper fraternity of Nebraska, with which to pay for this appeal, and it is to be hoped that the supreme court will clear Mr. Raker and override the most tyrannical and damnable judge that ever lived in American.

DIVIDED AT LAST.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, UNDER THE NEW LAW, HAVE ORGANIZED, AND THE COUNTY HAS BEEN DIVIDED AS FOLLOWS:

Harmony.	Glenwood.	Potsdam.	Oak Creek.
		Dist. 3.
		Albert Kort, Sup.
Catherton.	Batin.	Elm Creek.	Stillwater.
Dist. 7.	Dist. 6.		Dist. 2.
J. Broomfield, Sup.	Wm. C. Abill, Sup.		A. H. Spracher, Sup.
	Red Cloud.	Pleasant Hill.
		Dist. 4.	Beaver Creek.
Inavale.		Wm. Hurd, Sup.
			Guide Rock.
Walnut Creek.	Line.	Garfield.	Dist. 1.
			J. F. Watt, Sup.

(The heavy lines show the boundaries of the new supervisor districts as they are now, the bright lines merely showing the township lines as heretofore. Under the old law each township was a district, under the new law there are as high as four townships in one district. For instance, Pleasant Hill, Garfield, Line and Walnut Creek are merged in one district by itself. The new districts are based on population.)

ATTORNEY McNENY will go to the Hastings convention with a good delegation backing him for the nomination for district judge. Mr. McNeny enjoys a wide reputation in this district as a lawyer of more than average ability and has the earnest endorsement of the Hon. Jas. Gilham, a prominent lawyer of this city for the position, as well as all other members of the bar located here, and hosts of other people who have known him for years. It would be a great credit to Red Cloud to have him on the bench.

As the time for the fall conventions approaches, political affairs again engage the attention of the people. Times are so hard and the prospect for any improvement are so poor that the Signal had hoped that the people might be spared the added perplexity of an exciting political campaign, and that the old officials, who without exception are capable and trustworthy, would be returned without any unnecessary agitation. So far as treasurer, clerk and sheriff are concerned, it seems likely that the gentlemen who are now holding these offices for their first term will be returned by the republicans for reelection; but in the case of Mr. Crone, the capable clerk of the district court, it seems that there is to be something of a contest, his opponent being Mr. Harry Pond. If there is to be a change, and the nomination is to go to Red Cloud, we know of no one who will fill the bill better than Mr. Pond; but there are a whole lot of people who are well enough suited with Mr. Crone to be willing, and even anxious, to give him the usual compliment of the second term, which has always by courtesy been conceded to the efficient public servant, and for one we see no reason why the case of Mr. Crone should be made an exception. It is argued by the friends of Mr. Crone's opponent that Mr. Crone is really in his second term, but this is not strictly correct, as he has been up for the suffrage of the people but once, he having filled out by appointment the unexpired term of his predecessor. The fact that the election to this office is for a term of four years really cuts no figure. There are other officers who are elected for a term of four years—as the president of the United States for instance—or for six years, as senators, but we have never heard that advanced as a reason for denying a popular and trustworthy officer the customary second term, just for the sake of passing the office around, and we trust the argument will not be permitted to prevail against Mr. Crone, whose administration of the affairs of his office has been as nearly perfect as it is possible for any man to make it.—Guide Rock Signal.

Eastern Visitors.
The B. & M. eating house in this city presented a scene of metropolitan activity Wednesday night when that superb hostelry was accorded a visit by a hundred representative real estate men, selected by the B. & M. railroad officials to make a special tour of Nebraska and investigate its agricultural resources and prospects, the result of which visit cannot fail to be conducive to a development of Nebraska's interests.

This special party consisted of real estate and business men interested in and hailing from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa. Two associated press reporters accompanied the party, together with several railroad officials including Ass't. Gen'l. Pas, Agt. Smith of Omaha and Capt. G. W. Carnes, B. & M. immigration agent of Creston, Iowa.

The train bearing the party arrived at seven p. m. and was greeted by the S. of V. band and a large number of our citizens. While the band discoursed enchanting music, the guests filed into the magnificent dining room where a dozen large tables daintily spread and laden with choice eatables, awaited their attention. Here Mr. S. C. Dillely the popular landlord and royal entertainer confirmed his reputation for congeniality and hospitality and treated his important guests in a manner which bespoke praise for Red Cloud and the company which he represents.

At the conclusion of a hearty supper, the multitude of tourists assembled in front of the hotel, where Mayor Bentley was introduced and delivered a neat speech, in which he expressed his pleasure at meeting the gentlemen, and gave them the freedom of the city. Capt. G. W. Carnes then responded and the attention of the audience was held until nearly time to leave. Slightly previous to their departure about forty of the company, who were possibly somewhat homesick since their long absence from old "Ingiana," entered the dining room and obtained permission of Mrs. Dillely to have some music and singing. Miss Bertha Horlocker, an accomplished musician of Hastings, presided at the piano, and the gentlemen exercised their vocal organs in hearty choruses that made the event pleasant and long to be remembered.

"What is your impression of this drouth stricken county of ours?" jocularly asked a CHIEF reporter, addressing a dignified gentleman from Indiana. "O," said he "I think your state of Nebraska the finest I ever saw. The farm improvements are vastly more extensive and important than I had anticipated, and the country generally is the most beautiful I ever saw. The towns through which we passed seem prosperous and the people are the very best. We have seen but very little drouth affected country, and the Republican valley is to me the most luxuriant, fertile and verdant garden spot on earth. Yes, Nebraska is all right, and I propose to have some interests here before another month rolls around." At this juncture the train started and the genial good fellows from the east departed for Chicago there to separate and return to their respective homes. ### Notice to Stock Feeders, &c.

We are now ready to make contracts for the delivery, during the coming fall, of all 1895 beet pulp not yet contracted for, and, in view of the fact that at no time last season was the supply equal to the demand, we would advise that early application be made. For terms, etc., apply to OXNARD BRET SUGAR CO., Grand Island, Neb.

Three car loads of eastern capitalists who have been going through Nebraska inspecting crop conditions, touching points as far west as Arapahoe, south as far as Red Cloud and north as far as Broken Bow and Loup City, came into Lincoln last evening enthusiastic over the fertility of Nebraska and went on east to help counteract the black eye last year's phenomenal drouth gave the state.

The party telegraphed from Grand Island to City Ticket Agent Bonnell, asking him to have two immense banners painted with which to decorate the Pullmans. The banners read:

WE ARE FROM THE EAST. WE HAVE SEEN NEBRASKA. SHE CAN FEED THE WORLD.

These will go through the country to Chicago (and even farther east, telling the people that see them of the glorious crop coming. The excursionists were more than pleased with their trip in every way and as they are prominent men in many communities, the good they will do to the state cannot be estimated. The Burlington did a good job of missionary work when it organized the excursion.—State Journal.
