BUTTER AND EGGS TAKEN In Exchange For Shoes.

I have just been east and purchased one of the largest stocks of Boots and Shoes ever brought to Red Cloud. Come and see me before you buy your winter supply of Boots, Shoes, Rubbers and Felts...

FRED E. MCKEEBY, M. D.

Physician and surgeon. City and country calls promptly answered. Over Cotting's Drugstore, RED CLOUD.

BRIEF MENTION.

Herb Ludlow is in the city. Editor Warren was in Beatrice this week. R. P. Hutchison was in the city this week. Amos Cowden is in Fairbury this week. Lloyd Richardson arrived home this week. A. Galusha left for the east Sunday evening. Ernest Bolton was in the city the first of the week. Mr. J. A. Baum has taken a position with C. L. Cotting. W. E. Rife and family are home from an extended visit in Lincoln. Aaron Conover's large Newfoundland dog was poisoned this week. Mrs. W. M. Viescher and children, of Holyoke, Col., are visiting friends in the city. Mrs. F. G. Turnure and son, Floyd left for Missouri Thursday morning for an extended visit. Wm. Engle's larger returned to Norton, Kansas, this week, after a sojourn of several weeks in this city. H. N. Rutledge, father of J. T. Rutledge of Inavale, returned to his home in Moberly, Mo., Wednesday. The Alma band favored our citizens with some music last Friday evening, while stopping over in this city. H. W. Brewer and wife went to Kansas City, Kansas, this week, where they will reside for the next year or so. Chas. Wiener returned on Saturday evening from his eastern trip, where he purchased a large stock of new clothing. Mrs. Wm. Buckbee and family are living in Emporia, Kansas. Miss Maude Chase returned home with her. The dust is very distasteful. Is there not some method by which water can be furnished for sprinkling? The city should step over the rules and let the street sprinkler use water on dusty days. The dust must be laid. Chas. Landmasser, for the past two or three years head clerk in the clothing establishment of C. Wiener, departed Wednesday morning for his home in Iowa. Charley is an agreeable companion and his many friends here are sorry to have him leave.

ODDS AND ENDS.

F. P. Hadley, paper hanger. Carriage painting, F. P. Hadley. F. P. Hadley, painter and decorator. Call and see Taylor's carpets before buying. 150 different styles of tablets to select from at Cotting's. A complete new line of wall paper at Taylor's at bottom prices. Read our display ads. They are interesting and profitable to you.—Deyo & Grice. M. B. McNitt has resigned the position of water commissioner, to take place Monday. Just received a number of fine shoes in the narrow square and needle toe last.—A. H. Kaley. Mrs. Almira Griffith, of Ogle county, Illinois, is visiting her son, Jno. Griffith, and family. Jos. Kubie was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Ald. Pulsipher, who resigned this week. Remember and vote the republican ticket this fall. The truly American party is the republican party. Mayor Bentley, of Red Cloud, was in Guide Rock Thursday looking after business interests.—Guide Rock Signal. I have the largest assortment of boots and shoes in the city and at such prices as will fit all pocketbooks.—A. H. Kaley. Lost—A black frock coat, bound with braid, between Blue Hill and Red Cloud. Finder will please leave same at this office. Laroy E. Tait, Mr. Hosmer's able assistant on the Red Cloud Chief, registered at the Guide Rock House Monday.—Guide Rock Signal. Well now, the rain has come, people feel good and so does Billy Bense, the Bon Ton baker, because he is still selling bread 40 loaves for $1.00. Everything else in proportion. The ladies of the Christian church will give a fried chicken supper at the Williams building Thursday, Sept. 12, at five o'clock. Come and get a good meal and assist the ladies. Miss Ratta Able, who taught so acceptably in our public schools last year, was in Guide Rock Saturday and Sunday visiting with friends. She is now employed in the Kindergarten department of the Red Cloud schools.—Guide Rock Signal. We notice this week in the West Plains Journal an article in which it stated that A. Calmes, formerly of this place, had on exhibition a stalk of corn fifteen feet and two inches long with two good ears upon it and that he had several acres that would average as good. This was brought about by deep plowing and good cultivation, on land supposed to be worthless. Charles Wiener the old reliable clothier has returned from his purchasing trip east and it seemed to us as we called at his store that he must be expecting to clothe every man and boy within a radius of fifty miles, for his stock never looked so large. We priced some of the clothing and were astonished to find that a small amount would buy an excellent suit. We would advise people to look his stock over before they buy elsewhere. Mrs. J. M. Chaffin, of this city, has just received intelligence of the sad and almost instant death of her niece, Mrs. Anna Bonny, of Cleveland, Ohio, who lost her life through the explosion of a gasoline stove, the full particulars of which have not yet come to hand. This is but another fatality to be added to the long list of daily happenings of the kind. It may yet transpire that the use of this deadly inflammable substance will have to be legislated against. In the new catalogue of the North Branch (Kansas) Academy the name of the town in which that excellent institution is located, is given as though it were a single word "Northbranch," instead of two words, the generally accepted form of writing it. We do not know who is responsible for the innovation, the printer or the compiler of the catalogue, but we predict that it will not meet with favor. There is no better reason for writing North Branch "Northbranch" than there would be for writing Guide Rock "Guiderock," Red Cloud "Redcloud" or Burr Oak "Buroak."—Guide Rock Signal. Fourteen of our wheelmen were out over the country last Sunday, enjoying themselves as riders of the festive bike know well how to do, when some one of the party moved that they stop at the residence of J. B. Stanser and get a drink of water. Several of the boys, being acquainted with the hospitality of that family, quickly acquiesced and the crowd filed in. Of course they made a break for the pump, but Mrs. Stanser understood the situation and quickly had a five gallon can of the richest milk extracted from the cooling house and set before the boys, who soon got out-side of the largest share of it. After thanking the host and hostess for their kindness, the bikers went their way rejoicing, feeling as fresh as an oyster. Special sale of 200 pairs of men's pants at $3.00 for two weeks. These goods sold from $3.75 to $6.00.—A. Galusha, Manager.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

NEWSY BITS.

C. F. Cather is home from Lincoln. Miss Nellie Bennett is visiting friends in Iowa. Mrs. J. L. Frame is visiting in Carroll Iowa, this week. George McCall came home from the west last Friday. Ald. Pulsipher has resigned his position as aide-rman. M. B. McNitt expects to go to Texas soon on business. Dressmaking, cutting and fitting.—Mrs. F. P. Hadley. Mrs. A. L. Alyea is visiting in Michigan for two months. Call on F. P. Hadley for house, sign and carriage painting. Jay Best of Cowles was trodding Red Cloud soil Wednesday. Miss Susie Kenady is teaching the Plainview school this fall. Miss Alice Rensberg will teach a school near Blue Hill this fall. Frank Smith is the daddy of a bouncing baby girl, and all Garfield rejoices. Prof. Wilson and wife are very nicely located in the property west of C. W. Kaley's residence. Nelson Bartlett and W. H. Bartlett of Bladen were in Red Cloud last Saturday on probate business. The schools are now in full blast under the direction of Prof. Wilson and his able corps of teachers. Hon. Jas. McNeny and other speakers will address the A. O. U. W. and Sunday school people at Cowles tomorrow. Mr. Christian Jensen of Walnut Creek, father of John Jensen of this city, is quite sick at his son's residence. Morris Stern has been granted a license for running a saloon for 8 months at $800. He opened the saloon yesterday. The Misses Nettie and Carrie Hummel leave to-day for Lincoln where they will attend the Wesleyan college, during the year. Rev. T. K. Tyson will arrive in the city this week from Lincoln and commence a series of meetings in the Baptist church. Mrs. Eliza A. Wright, who has been visiting her son, John B. Wright, for some months, has returned to her home in Middle Grove, Mo. See Mrs. F. P. Hadley for dressmaking in all of the latest styles. First class work guaranteed. Residence three blocks west of Miner's store. Joe Garber declines to accept the nomination for coroner on the pop ticket, and will not take it until Harrison is elected, when he will use it to set on the pop party. Sheriff Runchoy went after a man who was arrested at Hastings, supposed to be one of the men who robbed W. W. Wright's store a few days ago. He was released, not filling the description. I am ready to do all kinds of dressmaking, cutting and fitting. Give me a trial order. All work guaranteed to be first class. Residence three blocks west of Miner's store.—Mrs. F. P. Hadley. There must be some arrangements for sprinkling Webster street. The business men are entitled to at least to having the steets sprinkled once a day. The council should take some necessary steps in this direction. All sorts of lies are being told on our candidates. The best way is not to believe them, at least, without investigation. The republican party will elect this fall, and you had better believe it now and get on the band wagon. Talk about "Irish cloves" and then think over the fact that over on Elm creek, on what is known as "Picnic Gardens," over 15,000 bushels of onions were raised this year. That is what we call a dandy yield, and the farmers in that neighborhood are to be congratulated. Elmer Kaley sold a shoe box to Rev. J. K. Maxfield the other day for 10c, and delivered the box at the Reverend Gentleman's house. When he opened the box, low and behold, there were about fifteen pair of rubbers in the same. The joke was on Elmer, but we won't tell why he made the mistake. The agricultural society met on Thursday and elected the following board of managers: Hensy Cook, D. F. Trunkey, G. J. Warren, A. Galusha, M. B. McNitt, J. O. Butler, G. W. Knight, C. E. Putnam, John Kellogg. They will have another meeting tomorrow at 2 p. m., and decide upon the fair. They say—but be careful what you say—that Sheriff Runchoy and Deputy Foe are great on catching colored prisoners. Word came from Denver that a colored man was wanted out there for some misdemeanor, and that he was headed for the east on a bicycle. John's eagle eye was wide open, and when Ted Saunders dressed and blacked himself up and mounted a cycle, some one passed the word to our watchful sheriff that a colored man with a bicycle was in town. Three or four trips around the principal streets and the minions of the law were in pursuit. Ted was onto his job and so was the crowd, when Sam Foe exclaimed: "You couldn't catch a fellow no how, with so much noise," and the crowd laughed and the race was over. Thus ended the first chapter of John and Samuel. Selah!

VARIOUS NOTES.

Sam Temple was in Lincoln this week. A. B. Truman is again located in the city. W. Kingsland was in Beatrice this week. The moon was eclipsed Tuesday night. Miss Ella Rensberg went to Lincoln this week. Mrs. A. C. Hosmer and children are visiting in Missouri this week. The dam at the Amboy mills went out with the late freshet but is in again. G. W. Dow and wife are home from a visit with their son, Charley, in Newcastle, Wyo. Miss Florence Cotting leaves the first of the week for an extended visit in Bristol, Wis. Miss Dowland, who has been visiting with Miss Helen Roby, has returned to her home in Nelson. This is about the right time to agitate a beet sugar factory. Red Cloud ought to have one. Give it a push. C. W. Keplinger and family, who were visiting Rev. J. K. Maxfield and family, have left for Illinois overland. Edgar Cotting leaves next week for Beloit, Wisconsin, where he will enter college. We wish Edgar success. Miss Sylvia Cook and Mrs. Mollie Neelander, of Iowa, are to visit their sister, Mrs. M. R. Bentley, next week. Mrs. G. Lauterbach and daughter Lulu of Colby, Kansas, are visiting with Jos. Harberger and family this week. J. K. Hill of Nevada, Mo., who has been here for some days, purchased 105 head of cattle and shipped them to Missouri Thursday. On page 3 of today's paper will be found an interesting account of the travels of Ralph Pope, on board the U. S. Ship Monongahela. Rev. T. K. Tyson, district missionary of the Baptist church, gave the ordinance of baptism to one candidate Sunday evening at the Baptist church. Sargeant Cole of Bloomington, "the fighting general," was in the city this week, en route to all the reunions where chickens are on tap. The Colonel is a whole army within himself. We are indebted to our particular friend, A. F. Hartwell, for an excellent cheese of his make. The Inavale cheese factory is becoming as famous for fine cheese-making as many of the eastern factories. Charley C. Sutton, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Sutton, was born February 1st, 1893, in Red Cloud, Neb., died August 26th, 1895, at Grinnell, Iowa, of cholera infantum, after an illness of six weeks. K. N. Knaak of Hebron, Neb., has arrived in the city and assumed his position as clerk in C. Wiener's Golden Eagle Clothing House. He is a very pleasant gentleman and well qualified for the business. W. B. Roby and P. W. Shea, republican and democratic candidates for supervisor in this city, stand the livelong day and throw tomatoes at each other. The one hitting the other the most times during the next sixty days is going to be the man. Read C. Wiener's advertisement in this issue of the Great Family Weekly. Mr. Wiener is a live business man and believes in giving his business publicity through our columns. A man who believes in advertising, and then follows out his convictions, will always win. This is the case with our friend, Wiener. Alfred Hadell, of the firm of G. A. Ducker & Co., is one of our energetic and progressive business men. During his connection with that firm he has increased the business many times the amount it was before. He believes in a liberal use of printers' ink, and by its use he has made a business that many an older man would feel elated over in 40 years' experience. "Keeping everlastingly at it," is a good motto, and Mr. Hadell is winning success by so doing. THE CHIEF wishes him success. One day last week a Red Cloud druggist hung up a placard which read "Tangle foot for sale here." An old populist from Line township who, strange to say, hasn't drank anything stronger than corn meal coffee for several years, came up the street; the placard caught his eye and he spelled it out. He took his spectacles out of his pocket, carefully wiped them and put them on, and read it again. He threw out his cud, entered the store and said he'd take ten cents worth of that tangle foot just to remind him of old times. The accommodating clerk led him mysteriously to the back room and gave him—a box of sticky fly paper. The fellow's jaw dropped and the temperature ran up to 104.—Blue Hill Leader.

Duck Suits.

Chicken suits better, at the Christian Church Ladies' Aid Society supper, 15c. A good appetite and refreshing sleep at this season indicate a condition of bodily health. These are given by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It makes pure blood and good health follows. Hood's pills are purely vegetable, harmless, effective, do not pain or gripe. Special sale of 200 pairs of men's pants at $3.00 for two weeks. These goods sold from $3.75 to $6.00.—A. Galusha, Manager.

Why some men, who pride themselves as the best ideal of republicanism should make false assertions about republican candidates, we are unable to fathom. This is not the time to throw mud. If you have mud to throw, throw it before convention and not after. This is a year when every republican should stand up to his colors. Don't let us hear any more grumbling.

EX-SUPREME Judge Maxwell has been nominated by the populists for that position. Maxwell can never get the plum. Disgruntled office-seekers cannot expect to win laurels, even in a party that takes them up. Men of all political complexions become disgusted with men who affiliate with every political party just because they can't get office. The republican party is forging ahead in solid phalanx, and will sweep things this fall, as well as in '96. Remember this fact, that, with protection as the motto and labor for the laboring men, the party will sweep the country with victory.
