Geo. Haines of Franklin has leased the Richardson livery stable and will proceed to run it in a first-class manner. He is an experienced business man and will make the stable pay, we have no doubt.

The city council ought to pass an ordinance prohibiting the fencing in of stinking hog-pens under other people's noses. It is an outrage to force a vile hog-pen upon other people, as has been done in many cases.

The R's held an open meeting at the school house last Friday night. A good sized audience was present and the entertainment was highly appreciated by all present. These entertainments are very interesting and the people will find them an excellent place once a month to while away an hour.

This week there occurred an important change in one of our prominent business houses. The change was in the grocery house of B. F. Mizer, whereby he took into partnership J. A. McArthur, one of Red Cloud's best known business men, the new firm being styled Mizer and McArthur. This will make a strong firm, and THE CHIEF wishes them an abundance of success and prosperity.

The committee of aldermen appointed last Wednesday evening to inspect chimneys, etc., should turn their attention to some of the basements in the city that are filled with straw, grease, and other combustible material before a good sized fire is caused therefrom. This is important and the owners of the buildings should attend to the same for their own safety without waiting for an inspection by the officials.

We have just received another invoice of new and excellent premium books for our subscribers. Remember that no other paper west of Omaha gives you a fine 50 cent book for a premium. We could not afford to do this only that we need your money, and make this inducement to have you help us out. We want a hundred subscribers to pay up this month. Come in and see the books and pay us what you owe and take home one of these nice books.

Tommy Peaman, one of Red Cloud's popular jewelers, came down this morning, his handsome face wreathed in sunny smiles. Turning at 4th avenue, he quickly entered his place of business, took the great key out of his pocket and commenced winding the big regulator, singing all the while:

"Time is flying, I'm a pa; Whoop-la, whoop-la, whoop-la."

Tom's many friends will congratulate him upon his good fortune. The little cherub was presented to him by his good wife at five minutes after twelve this morning. The young fellows will take notice that Papa Peaman will not allow them to swing on the front gate. Here's our hand, Tom.

NEW FIRM! At the Old Stand. The new firm will continue in the same business, Groceries and Queenawara and in the near future will add one or perhaps two new departments that will be convenient for our customers to buy nearly everything they may need for general use all at one store. Do You Know That I know, that there are a great many organs in this county that need cleaning and repairing, and as times are hard and money scarce, I will for the month of October make the following offer at greatly reduced rates: To the first ten (10) who will send or give me their names as wanting an organ cleaned or repaired, I will do the work for $1.50 each—$1.00 to accompany each order as an assurance of good faith. The balance to be paid when work is done. To the next fifteen (15) I will do the work for $2 each—$1 must accompany each of these orders as an assurance of good faith. The balance to be paid when work is done. These prices are exceedingly low as the usual price is from $4 to $5 each. This offer is good in Webster county and the north half of Smith county Kansas. All orders will be filled in the order in which they are received. Send in your orders now and get good work done at prices that cannot be beat. Call on or address Wm. W. TULLETS, Red Cloud, Neb.

Obituary. In loving remembrance of Edith Barclay. We have to mourn the loss of one We did our best to save, Beloved on earth, regretted, gone, Remembered in the grave. We miss thee from our home Edith We miss thee from thy place, Our home is dark without thee We miss thee every place. How we loved our darling Edith She was dear to all our hearts, Let us live that we may meet her On that bright and heavenly shore. So we'll trust her with the Saviour In his loving gentle care, And when our life is ended We shall meet dear Edith there. God will bless the sinner's mourner He will keep them safe through all, And all best they'll meet her yonder When shall come the final, L. G.
