CATARH DESCRIBED.

A Short History of a Bad Malady by an Eminent Medical Authority.
This is the way chronic catarrh usually begins: A person catches cold which hangs on longer than usual. Then follows a sensitiveness of the air passages, which inclines to catch cold very easily. At last the person has a cold all the while seemingly. More or less discharge from the nose, hawking from the throat, nostril-stopped up, full feeling in the head, and cracking in the ears. The Peruna treatment for this disease is the only treatment that has withstood the test of time. Peruna should be taken without interruption until every symptom disappears.
Send to The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio for a copy of their latest book on chronic catarrh. This book is a complete guide to the cure of this dreadful disease.

M. E. NOTES.

The teachers' meeting at Professor and Mrs. Wilson's was a success. The superintendent who thinks enough of his work to prepare an outline map of the lesson for his teachers will do to bank on.
Bro. Spanogle was cheered in his good work at the mission school by several workers from the 1st church last Sabbath.

Nothing pleased us more than the young men's class under Prof. Wilson last Sabbath.

The leader of the Epworth devotional meeting showed herself an earnest worker.

Mabel Saunders, president of the League, showed her friendliness last Sabbath by stationing herself at the door and inviting the young people to come to league meeting at 6:30.

The congregation was very large at the services last Sabbath. All were made to feel at home.

All enjoyed the duet at the League devotional meeting last Sabbath.

The pastor will preach at the Fisher school-house Sabbath at 2:30 p. m.

Again we must with sorrowing hearts record the death of one of our number, Frankie Willis (Leak), who had been a great sufferer but who now rests.

Mrs. Quivy made a very enjoyable talk Sabbath morning, and we think found a good home for one of the little girls she brought with her.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
