

Oxygen starvation

You can starve the body in more ways than one; you can give it food and not feed it. It needs oxygen. The oxygen you get from the air is carried to all parts of the body by the red corpuscles of the blood. One drop of blood contains millions of these. When these are deficient in blood, we call it poor blood, and it shows itself in general weakness, lack of appetite, and loss of weight. What you want is something which will make more red corpuscles.

Scott's Emulsion

of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, is something more than an oil. Its peculiar action depends on a number of substances—active principles—which will increase the red corpuscles of the blood.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It never fails. C. L. Cotting.

The old story of Prometheus is a parable. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire, and gave it to men. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again that Ayer's Sarsaparilla, out of the great number of similar preparations manufactured throughout the world, was the only medicine of the kind admitted at the World's Fair, Chicago? And why was it that, in spite of the united efforts of the manufacturers of other preparations, the decision of the World's Fair Directors was not reversed?

BECAUSE

According to RULE 15—"Articles that are in any way dangerous or offensive, also patent medicines, nostrums, and empirical preparations, whose ingredients are concealed, will not be admitted to the Exposition," and, therefore— Because Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine, not a nostrum, and not a secret preparation. Because its proprietors had nothing to conceal when questioned as to the formula from which it is compounded. Because it is all that it is claimed to be—a Compound Concentrated Extract of Sarsaparilla, and in every sense, worthy the endorsement of this most important commission, called together for passing upon the manufactured products of the entire world.

Scrofula and Stomach Trouble Cured.

"My daughter, who is 13 years old, has been troubled with scrofula. Her hands would be so chapped that they would be covered with blood and she could hardly bend her finger. She began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and since she has used this medicine she has had no more scrofulous eruptions. I have been troubled with a stomach complaint which the doctors called neuralgia of the stomach and there is no medicine which does me as much good as Hood's Sarsaparilla. I have had no trouble with my stomach for a year since I began using this medicine and I believe it to be all that it is said to be. We give Hood's Sarsaparilla to our children and in this way we save doctor's bills." Joseph R. Finch, Ragan, Neb.

Inavale.

Mr. Arthur Woolcott and Miss Cora Olmsted spent Sunday last in Franklin the guests of Mr. Columbus Gooding, the young lady's uncle. Simp. Simons met with a mishap one day last week. A wagon loaded with 65 bushels and 32 pounds of corn passed over his foot. It made him lame for a few days and put a stop to his skating, but, as far as learned, no bones were broken.

Miss Edith Broomfield, a lady of tender age, was quite badly injured recently in a coasting accident while at school. Her injury is painful, but not dangerous. At a time social held at the residences of S. E. Woolcott and A. T. Ayers last Tuesday evening, a goodly number of money was raised for the preacher man. Prof. Geo. R. McCrory, principal of the Guide Rock school, was up last week, looking after things on his ranch across the river.

H. G. Sawyer and Harry Popp have moved back into Inavale township once more, having been living in Walnut for some time past. They think they will be safer from the lightning if they live among the just in Inavale—and I suppose they will.

Mr and Mrs Link Kelso departed this vale last Thursday for Mills county, Iowa where they will endeavor to live in the future. They are good neighbors, and are sociable and well liked, and the people in general are sorry to have them leave.

Inavale now supports two butcher shops and room for more.

Here is a diamond, here a piece of charcoal. Both carbon; yet between them stands the mightiest of magicians.—Nature. The food on your table and your own body; elementally the same; yet between the two stands the digestion, the arbiter of growth or decline, life or death. We cannot make a diamond; we cannot make flesh, blood and bone. No. But by means of the Baker Digestive Cordial we can enable the stomach to digest food which would otherwise ferment and poison the system. In all forms of dyspepsia and indigestion, consumption, with weakness, loss of flesh, thin blood, nervous prostration the Cordial is the successful remedy. Taken with food it relieves at once. It nourishes, and assists nature to nourish. A trial bottle—enough to show its merit—10 cents.

DR. A. OWEN'S ELECTRIC APPLIANCES

99 TIMES OUT OF 100

Mrs. A. J. Stearns, of West Stockholm, St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., under date of July 31, 1895, writes: "Words fail me to express my gratitude to Dr. A. Owen for the benefit I have had from using his Electric Appliances. Before using the appliance I was so weak I could scarcely stand alone; had been confined to my bed since last October. After the third day of use, I could walk several steps; one week later I walked around the house, and in less than one month I was able to ride out, and now I can walk a mile or more, without feeling tired. May God bless and spare you to your many friends for years to come." Mr. Axel J. Ekblade, of Walsburg, Kan., under date of July 29th, 1895, says: "Having used the Dr. Owen Electric Appliances for Nervousness for the past few months, I must say they are ahead of any treatment I have ever used of the worst form of Nervous Disease." Mr. A. Nibek, of Middlefield, Iowa, writes on June 18th, 1895: "This is to certify that I have derived more benefit from using the Owen Electric Appliances for a severe case of kidney complaint and nervous prostration than from hundreds of dollars spent for doctor's bills and medicine." Our Large Illustrated Catalogue contains many endorsements like above, besides cost of appliances, and much valuable information for the afflicted. Send 6 cents in stamps to insure a copy. We have been before the public many years, and our Electrical Appliances have become a recognized standard of merit.
