One of the most absorbingly interesting portions of the book is that written by Inspector Byrnes, giving the ripe experience of thirty years of detective life.

This fascinating volume is indeed a wonderful tale of Christian love and faith, all alive with intense and striking reality. Dr. Twichell writes,-'My wife says that she is going to set our young people on the book right off, for the good it will do them;" and pathy, and commit and commend them to him President Magoun says, - "My family finds, where other book on our shelves lack intesest, this one always holds and rewards attention.'

It contains 252 superb engravings, every one of them made from photegraphs taken from life, mostly by flash-light. Every face is a portrait, every scene a stern reality. At Red Cloud, Nebraska, September 14th to 19th, 1896, will be the only interstate fair in the west this season and will give the farmers of central and western Nebraska and Kansas an opportunity to exhibit their stock, farm products, poultry and fruit near at home. The object of the management of this association is to eventually build up for western Nebraska and Kansas, an exposition equal to sky of the state fears and with the co-operation of this section of the two states, the management feel that this end can easily be accomplished. Excursion rates have been secured from the railroads which will allow those at a distance to attend at very reasonable rates. On account of the Nebraska State Fair having been moved to Omaha. and the Kansas State Fair to Wichita, it places them both out of reach of the patrons of this section of the country and leaves a demand for an inter-state fair within our reach. The management are offering $5,000 in premiums, $2,000 in speed and have arranged one of the most attractive programs west of Topeka or Lincoln. If you have fine stock, poultry, farm products, fruit or, in fact, anything included in the premium list, bring it to the fair and get
