The most intense interest is being displayed in the case and when the coroner's inquest was resumed to-day scores of farmers were gathered about the court house, though the investigation is being held behind closed doors.

Will-iams of Kansas City and John Dough-Willerty of this city are examining the witnesses in the absence of Prosecuting Attorney Woodson, who is in Colorado. EXCELSION SPRINGS, Mo., Nov. 20,-Citizens here met and organized a vigilance committee with Banker Dimmitt president. Word was sent to Sheriff Heymar that the committee was ready with men and money to see that justice was done in the matter of the Foley murders. NEW YORK, Nov. 20 .- Frank P. Arbuckle, one of the most noted men of Colorado, chairman of the Democratic state committee and a leading business man of Denver, was found dving in an obscure place on a vacant lot just off the sidewalk, in a lot of weeds, on the west side of Eighth avenue, between One Hundred and Fifty-second and One Hundred and Fifty-third streets, at 2:45 o'clock this morning, and died in the patrol wagon on the way to a station house, without regaining conaciousness.

Charles Horstman, barkeeper of the Atlanta Casino, near which Arbuckle's body was found, said that a man answering the description of the dead man entered the place about an hour before the time he was found uncon-scious and called for a drink of whisky. He appeared at the time to be partly under the infinence of liquor. In paying for the drink he displayed a large roll of bills and then pulled from his pocket a heavy gold watch which was attached to a large gold chain. After taking the drink he left. That is the last known of his movements until he was fond in the weeds nearly dead. No me ney except the small amount of change was found in his pockets, and he had no watch or chain.

It is surmised that Arbnekle got on der the present administration. He an "L" train somewhere down town and, falling asleep, rode to the end of the line, then got off the train, walked down stairs and entered the Casino saloon, which is at the foot of the "L" stairway. After leaving the Casino he

"The election of McKinley is but the beginning of the end of the struggle which, one way or another, has been going on in the United States for twenty years. Mr. McKinley's election settles nothing. It merely removes flat money and depreciated silver dollars from among the rocks ahead.]

Mr Watterson was asked if the union between the gold Democrats and the Republicans could last. He replied:

The dif-"I do not see how it can. ferences are too doctrinal and radical. Mr. McKinley is an extreme protectionist; the sound money Democrats are sincere revenue reformers. Certainly, statesmanship is largely an af-fair of compromises. But to be effectual and beneficial, the compromise must be logical and just. Nothing could be more desirable than a union among all law-abiding, order-loving citizens against whatever and whoever Water company, which for many years supplied the citizens of High-lands, until consolidated with threatens the interests of the country.

"I think the country is safe for the present. That the future of the country will be equally assured I devoutly hope. But thoughtful men should not be lulled into fancied security because we have overcome the dragon of repudiation. The gorgen of agrarianism is yet abroad. A CUBAN SPY IN COURT. Testifies Against Filibusters-Spice on the Laurada.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.-At the trial in the United States district court of Captain Dickman and Colonel Nunez, accused of leading the Laurada filibustering expedition, James Quinn, who was closely accompanied by a stout body guard and a Pinkerton detective, testified that he sailed with the Laurada May 9 last, from New York, on arrangements made with General Ruiz. He identified Dr. Costello, arrested last week, as the man he saw at the Cuban junta. He described the landing of the Laurada's cargo of Remingington rifles and ammunition and swore to seeing the two defendants on the Laurada before it sailed from New York.

Quinn's testimony did not proclaim him a Spanish spy except by inference. But the inference was freely drawn by the accused men, and other Cubans, one of whom said: "This man left the Cuban lines and entered those of the Spanish forces. Other men who have done that have either been shot or cast into prison. Quinn was provided with a passport by the Spanish author-ities. Since he arrived he has not needed money. He was only a poor truckman's helper in Boston before going to Cuba. Who gave the Spanish consult the information her more a consul the information by means of which he was enabled to bring about this trial? We, supporters of free Cuba, believe not only Quinn informed against Captain Dickman and Colonel Nunez, but was in the pay of the Spanish authorities before he shipped."

The Money Came Just Too Late. Sr. Louis, Mo., Nov. 20.-Franz Mayer, who a year ago was a sergeant in the Austrian army, hanged himself to the bedpost in his room and was found dead to-day. Sympathy Strike of All Colorado Union Men to Be Urged.

LEADVILLY, Col., Nov. 21. - The statement that the governor has decided to take summary measures to suppress further violence here and to bring the strike to an end has, it is said, caused the officers of the local union, with the backing of the Western Federation of Miners, to send emissaries to all other unions in the state to urge them to inaugurate at once a sympathetic strike, thus tying up all the mines in the state.

It is stated upon authority that the mine managers of Montana have decided upon making a reduction in wages of 50 cents a day very soon, and this is expected to precipitate a strike by the largest miners' union in this country.

Treasurer Shockley Testifies in Regard to Various Matters.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 21.-When the congressional investigation was resumed at the Soldiers' home to-day the specification of charges, which Congressman Blue promised yesterday for this morning, was not presented, but Colonel L. H. Waters of Kansas City appeared for the prosecution and Major William Warner for Governor Smith.

Major W. B. Shockley, treasurer of the home, who was the only witness examined up to noon, came in on crutches and seemed feeble and broken. His testimony was so confused and contradictory that the committe will probably be able to consider little of it.
