Scaly eruptions on the head, chapped hands and lips, cuts, bruises, scalds, burns are quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It is at present the article most used for piles, and it always cures them. C. L. Cotting.
Mrs. Lucy Coval, wife of M. T. Coval of Walnut creek township, who was operated upon last week by Dr. Hall for the removal of a twelve pound ovarian tumor is rapidly recovering and will soon be able to return to her home.
It is said you can tell a poor man by the number of worthless cures he keeps. If the same rule holds good on a community some one should start an aid petition through the country for this city which is sure in a destitute condition.
"Excuse me," observed the man in spectacles, "but I am a surgeon, and that is not where the liver is." "Never you mind where his liver is," retorted the other. "If it was in his big toe or his left ear DeWitt's Little Early Risers would reach it and shake it for him. On that you can bet your gig-lamps." C. L. Cotting.
"My daughter, when recovering from an attack of fever, was a great sufferer from pain in the back and hips," writes Louden Grover, of Sardis, Ky. "After using quite a number of remedies without any benefit she tried one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and it has given entire relief." Chamberlain's Pain Balm is also a certain cure for rheumatism. Sold by H. E. Grice, Druggist.
The following terms of court have been decided upon by Judge Beall for the present year: Adams county, March 1, jury; June 9, no jury; Oct. 4, jury. Franklin county, June 14, jury; Dec. 20, jury. Harlan county, Feb. 1, jury; Sept. 13, jury. Kearney county, May 17, jury; Dec. 6, jury. Phelps county, April 5, jury; Nov. 8, jury. Webster county, April 26, jury; Nov. 22, jury.
The Smith County Pioneer has found a man who can husk 180 bushels of corn a day. Probably he thinks that is something wonderful, but if that man wanted to husk corn in Webster county he would have to beat that, as a low limit of 900 bushels per day has been placed on all huskers. However we think there would be no trouble in the gentleman keeping his job, for if he husks 180 bushels in Smith county he would be able to husk about 300 or 350 in Webster county, there being such a vast difference in the yield. Now Mr. Pioneer man you better quit your bragging.

Absolutely pure, perfectly harmless, and invariably reliable are the qualities of One Minute Cough Cure. It never fails in colds, croup and lung trouble. Children like it because it is pleasant to take and it helps them. C. L. Cotting.
STRAYED OR STOLEN—From the stock pasture on section 29, town 1, range 11, known as the Binaker ranch, one bay horse colt, coming four years old, star in forehead, heavy tail and foretop, blocky build. Suitable reward will be paid for information or its return to L. A. Haskins or leave word at this office.
A young lady in town lost her complexion the other day in a very singular manner. In walking along the frosty sidewalk she slipped and fell and when she got up her complexion was ruined. She had it in a bottle and it broke when she fell. She had to go back and get another bottle of "face bleach."
Charley Fort was in Lincoln the fore part of the week attending, we suppose, the state teachers meeting, or at least he says there were lots of pretty "school mams" there. Charley also went to the theatre. Woe to Charley. He forgot to purchase tickets in advance and when he arrived at the theatre found all the seats taken and was forced to purchase a very expensive box in order to keep his best. Well that's all right, we won't say anything about it. Charley says it was a good show though.

La Grippe

If you have had the Grippe, you know its aches and pains, the fever, the chills, the cough, the depression—you know them all. The Grippe exhausts the nervous system quickly, lowers the vitality. Two things should be done at once:—the body must be strengthened, and force must be given to the nervous system. Cod-liver Oil will do the first; Hy-pophosphites the second. These are permanently and pleasantly combined in Scott's Emulsion. It lifts the despondency and heals the inflamed membranes of the throat and lungs. But you need not have LA GRIPPE. You can put your system in a condition unfavorable to it. You can have rich, red blood; resistive strength; steady brain and nerves. Scott's Emulsion prevents as well as cures. And whether you send or go for Scott's Emulsion, be sure you get the genuine. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

Consumption

AND ITS CURE
TO THE EDITOR:—I have an absolute remedy for Consumption. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been already permanently cured. So proof-positive am I of its power that I consider it my duty to send two bottles free to those of your readers who have Consumption, Throat, Bronchial or Lung Trouble, if they will write me their express and postoffice address. Sincerely,
F. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 126 Pearl St., New York.
The Editorial and Business Management of this Paper Guarantees this generous Proposition.

HERE AND THERE.

New York girls are buttoning their cloaks with pictures of their lovers. These pictures appear on the buttons. This is a new fad and will work its way west.—Wymore Wymorean.
"Dingley Bill dead" said the Oklahoma man, who was reading the newspaper. "I thought I knew every desperado from the Arkansas river to gulf, but he's a new one to me."
An Indiana man has sworn a solemn oath never to have his hair cut until Bryan is elected president. He might as well lay in a stock of hampins now, while they're cheap.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.
The whistle of a locomotive can be heard 3,300 yards, the noise of a train 3,800 yards, the report of a musket and the bark of a dog 1,800 yards, the roll of a drum 1,600 yards, the croak of a frog 900 yards, a cricket chirp 800 yards, a dinner bell two miles, and a call to get up in the morning three feet seven inches.—Twinkles.
Will Mitchell, a former resident of this city, new living at Guide Rock, has purchased the hardware business of A. Morhart and will take possession shortly. Will is an energetic young man and his many friends will be glad to hear of his new departure. THE CHIEF wishes him success. Mr. Morhart will look after other business interests here.
The Nation says, "Geo. Conley, a barber who has been working for Wm. Zelluff for a few weeks left town last week. He had been boarding at Mrs. Sapp's and was compelled to leave a good coat and vest to balance up his board bill." There is one of the editors of the Nation who left a board bill at the same place. He was not honorable enough to leave a good coat and vest to balance up his board either. If Benard had had two coats to give away he might have done so but he wouldn't.
Persons who are troubled with indigestion will be interested in the experience of Wm. H. Pean, chief clerk in the railway mail service at Des Moines, Iowa, who writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For two years I have suffered from indigestion, and am subject to frequent severe attacks of pain in the stomach and bowels. One or two doses of this remedy never fails to give perfect relief. Price 25 and 50 cents; sold by H. E. Grice, Druggist.
Sing a song of awelled head, a fellow full of gin, coming home at four a.m., his wife won't let him in. His feet are full of tanglefoot, his head is full of wheels; the keyhole runs around the the knob, and he a funny feeling feels. He puts his feet upon the porch, his head upon the ground, and all the time within the knob the wheels are going round. He thinks that he is sober and every one is tight, he thinks he's in the bedroom instead of out all night. But when the morning cometh and it cometh soon at that, he looks around and murmurs "Great Scott!" Where am I at.—Stolen.
A couple at Pierce, attended a theatre one evening when the young lady complained of feeling very faint. The young man gave her a cheering smile, took something out of his vest pocket and whispered to keep "the tablet" in her mouth, but not to swallow it. She shyly placed it on her tongue and rolled it over and over, but it would not dissolve. She felt better, however. When the show was over she slipped the tablet in her glove being quite curious to examine at home this tasteless, indissoluble little substance which had given her such relief in the opera house. When alone in her room she pulled off her glove and out came—a pants button!—Fullerton Post.
Webb Wilder relates in his "annals of Kansas" that in 1854, when the first tide of New England settlers began to drift hitherward, the Missourians tied a cow at each crossing of the Missouri river. When an immigrant arrived at the crossing he was certain to make some remark about the animal, and if he said "cow" he was allowed to cross, but if he said "keow" he was hustled back east and out of the country as a bloody minded abolitionist. In retaliation for this it is said the Kansas fellows tied a bear on their side of the river, and when an immigrant crossed who called it "bear" he was welcomed with open arms, but the fellow who called it "bar" was scooted back into Missouri as an unwelcome slavery advocate.—Clay Center Times.

After a great amount of spread-eagle mention in the daily papers of the state Richmond who wanted to be chief clerk of the house, succumbed to the inevitable and laid down when most people here thought he was on the home stretch with good chances of being the first under the wire. When it came to a show down it was found that Richmond was a nine spot and that there was nothing in his newspaper mention but a lot of "flapdoodle" which he induced the correspondents to write. Representative Grandstaff will come in for his share of the abuse for refusing to support him but looking back on Henry's past history there was probably some palliating reasons for the stand taken by the populist representative from Webster county. Mr Grandstaff knew him.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Albert Keeney started to school Thursday morning.
The enrollment Tuesday morning was 150 in the high room.
Many of the non-resident pupils failed to get here until Wednesday.
We are pleased to note the return of Charley Bennett who has been absent several weeks.
Harry Engels is back in school again. Also Elmer Schaffnit. Both entered the tenth grade.
Those who failed to take examinations before Christmas have the pleasure of taking them now.
Professor proposes a booby banner designed especially for the 7th room. We had No. 8 this week. A good beginning is half the battle.
School began Monday morning after a two week's vacation, but on account of the snow there were but very few attendants until Tuesday.
Prof. Wilson now has charge of the literature class. This is a very interesting class and gives the pupils a chance to express their ideas.
Miss Emily Ogilvie failed to return after vacation on account of her school. While we are glad of her success in gaining a school we are sorry to miss so bright an intellectual ornament in our school.
The seniors took up chemistry this term and we sigh wearily as we anticipate the delightful odors in store for us. They have pitched in with a vim, and several experiments have already been performed.
The visitors this week were Misses Mamie and Christie Weideman, Pearl Ludlow and Mabel Day, on Tuesday. Messrs. Horace Spanogle, Frank Goble and Chas. White on Wednesday. We are glad to have visitors and hope more will take an interest in coming.
VENIRA.

I've lived in this here little town since Adam was a kid. I've raised a family just as big as Adam ever did; I've worked as hard as any man that ever swung an ax, and paid my full proportion of state and deestrick tax. And on election day I've just dismissed all doubts and fears and howled Republicanism straight for forty-seven years. In all these years I've never held a place of public trust, but now I'm after something and I'll win the fight or bust. I want to be postmaster and if McKinley don't make haste, may his durned administration be eternally disgraced.—Cambridge Kaledioscope.
