Hereafter write it 1897. Quite a blizzard arrived Saturday night.

There has been lots of sickness in these parts, but all are reported better at this writing.

Mr. Barrett's daughters, of Red Cloud spent New Years with their father.

Mr. Themas Ryan has bought several hundred bushels of corn at ten cents per bushel.

S Heaten is buying and feeding a great deal of corn. Miss Emma Bliefnick of Illinois, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Steffen. C. C. Weaver went to Lebanon Tuesday. His father near Lebanon has lost several horses from being in the stalks.

District No. 90 is having a vacation. Miss Leona Stoner is on the sick list. We sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Sapp over the loss of their little one. May they look to Him who is able to comfort them in their lenely sorrowful SID.

OBITUARY. Again the death angel has come to our midst and taken from the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sapp, Little Eulah, aged 4 years, 9 months and 10 days, of diphtheria. On last Thursday at 11 o'clock, her spirit soared to the heights of glory. The sadness of the event

There's another bud removed.

Ere it felt the blight of sin. Through the doors the angels made ; Little Eulah has passed in;

Far beyond the azure skies, Where the tiny star eyes peep From all earth's sad doubts and fears, Little Eulah has gone to sleep

The dainty garments wrought with care. Through happy hours for leve's sake; Are laid away for one more fair, Than mothers hauds can make. How could we bear this heavy cross.

The loneliness, the cruel pain; Did we not know our earthly loss. Is her eternal gain. She will wake in fairer lands

Where the angels' voices sing : There the floweret shall expand. There shall love's perfection bring. she has reached the golden shore. Through the river cold and deep. Angels bore her safely there,

Little Eulah's gone to sleep. 8. J. M.

Exposure to Disease. Does not necessarily mean the contraction of disease provided the system is in a vigorous condition, with the and poison the system. In all forms of healthy action. When in such a conthe disease germs can find no lodgment. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine to build up the system because it makes pure, rich blood, and pure plood is the basis of good health. In cold weather it is especially necessary to keep up the health tone because the body is subject to greater exposure and more liable to disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the safeguard of Cemfort to California. Every Thursday afternoon a tourist sleeping car for Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Los Angeles leaves Omaha and Lincoln via the Burlington Route. It is carpeted; upholstered in rattan; has spring seats and backs and is provided with curtains, bedding, towels, soap, etc. An experienced excursion conductor and uniformed Pull man porter accompany it through to the pacific coast. While neither as ex-pensively finished nor as fine to look at as a palace sleeper, it is just as good to ride in. Second class tickets are honored and the price of a berth, wide enough and big enough for two, is only $5. For a folder giving full particu-lars, call at the nearest B. & M.R. R. ticket office. The Home Merchant

Who is he? He is the man whose interest is in Fullerton; he us the man who assists in maintaining the side walks and keeying the streets in good shape. He is the man whose taxes go to benefit the entire community in was visiting during holidays with her helped pay for the school house wherein you get your education and whose money was expended for the erection of a church and he is the man whose contributions to home charity is always considerable. He sells you goods at an honest profit and many times when you are broke gives you credit. Emma Moushang visited with Nellie Then why is it that you go away for your goods when you have money? Trade with the man whose reputation, is at stake and whose pride is in his goods. He will always treat you right.

P. S .- This plea is in behalf of all, even of those merchants who use stationery with an axle grease ad, at the top and the obverse side and whose envelopes are printed by the government at Washington, or who get their job work of a traveling fakir. They are in busiboarding place Sunday on account of ness here and should be patronized though they give the home paper the worst of it repeatedly.-Fullerton Journal.

Don't Worky about your health, Keep your blood pure by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and you need not fear the grip, cold, bronchitis, pneumonia or typhoid fever.

IN MEMORY OF BULAH SAPP. Gentle Shepherd, then hast stilled, Now thy little lambs' long weeping: Ah! how peaceful, pale and mild In its narrow bed 'its sleeping, And no sigh of anguish sore.

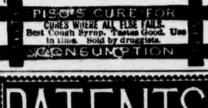

In this world of care and pain,
Lord: Thou wouldst no longer leave it
To the sunny heavenly plains;
Dost thou new in joy receive it
Clothed in robes of spotless white,
Now it dwells with thee in light.

Ah! Lord Jesus, grant that we,
Where it lives, may soon be living
And the lovely pastures see:
That its heavenly food are giving,
Then the gain of death we'll prove
Though thou take what we most love
