The late presidential campaign lent additional piquancy to a political anecdote of the Montana congressional election two years ago, says Editor's Drawer in Harper's Weekly. Mr. Corbett was the democratic candidate and Mr. Smith his populist opponent. It appears that one day in their campaign they traveled a short distance in company. They had a very interesting conversation, and in consequence Mr. Smith was compelled to leave the car hurriedly when the station was reached. He caught up one of the two traveling bags in the seat in front and rushed out. A few miles farther on Mr. Corbett left the train, taking the other bag. He reached the hotel with out noticing anything unusual. The following telegram, however, was waiting for him:

"I have the wrong bag. Contains plug of tobacco, bottle of whiskey, six-shooter and democratic platform. Is it yours?"

Mr. Smith was about to open his bag when the following "crush" telegram was handed him:

"I, too, have wrong bag. Contains 'Treatise on Dynamite,' picture of Mary Elizabeth Lease and bundle of may marked 'collateral evidence.' Is it yours?"

While in Bostwick last week Mr. Frisbie was surprised to learn that his son, Sylvester's twin brother, had been here a few days previous. And think if it is also an ex-school master by name Headmiler.

I wish to thank the kind people who took such good care of my horse one evening lately, when I was engaged with a patient that I could not leave. If you will advise me of your identity I will do as much for you some day.

We are pleased to learn that Standing Bull was successfully treated at the Jew Keeley institute in this vicinity last week. He reports that the treatment consists of a typhoid infection administered to the great toes. The doctor does not believe in the injection of chloride in the arm. He claims that it takes his preparation twenty-four hours to work from the pedal extremities to the brain, and complete a radical cure. Standing Bull is willing to testify to the truth of the above.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

A Good Remedy

From the Clerk of the Circuit Court, FERNANDINA, Fla., Feb. 28, 1897.

Mr. J. GEORGE SUMNER, Druggist, Chicago.

Dear George:—Please send a bottle of Chamberlain Cough Remedy. I would not feel easy if I knew that there was none of this valuable Remedy in the house. I have given it a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children.

Yours respectfully, GEO. E. WOLFE.
