Hosmer was in Beatrice the fore part of the week. Marion Osborn is in the city this week visiting relatives. J. M. Chaffin made a business trip to Guide Rock Wednesday. 1897 CRESCENT 1897. The wheel that sells at an honest price. Mrs. Dwight Jones of Guide Rock is the guest of Mrs. C. L. Cotting. Morhart & Cutter are now buying fat cattle and hogs. See them before selling. T. J. Brownfield, adjuster of the Union Fire Ins. Co. was in the city Saturday adjusting the loss of A. N. Potter. J. F. Winters was in Grand Island the first of the week attending a meeting of the Central Nebraska Teachers association. The teachers meetings announced to be held at Blue Hill and Red Cloud, and the school officers meeting at Red Cloud, April 3rd, will be held April 24. The special meetings at the Methodist church will close Sunday evening. Mr. Darby has had 62 accessions to the Methodist church since coming to this city. Alva Sellers after having been exposed to a cold rain the last of the week while out driving had an attack of paralysis of the face. He is now, however much better. Unconditional surrender, is the only terms those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers will make with constipation, sick headache and stomach troubles. C. L. Cotting. Croup and whooping cough are childhood's terrors; but like pneumonia bronchitis and other throat and lung troubles, can be quickly cured by using One Minute Cough Cure. C. L. Cotting. If THE CHIEF is not up to its usual standard this week, we hope that our patrons will bear with us. The editor was presented on Tuesday with an attack of pleurisy and one of the employees, John Kesler, had the misfortune to smash a finger of his left hand in the job press. The S. of V. band, as is their usual custom, serenaded the winning candidates last Tuesday evening. The boys were well treated by all the new officers and are especially pleased with Mr. Dow's gift of $5.00 and Mr. Crone for the elegant supper served. The continual rains have left the ground in a very unfit condition for plowing, being so wet that most fields, even on the uplands are a veritable mud hole, and on the bottoms in many places the water stands in small lakes. The roads are nearly unpassable and as a consequence business in this city is almost at a standstill. A Webster county farmer wrote to his friend in the east trying to give him some idea of the soil out here. He said they had to mow the grass off the sod floor to find the baby. One family had twin babies with only one cradle, and the kid that had to sleep on the floor grew twice as fast as the other. Where the soil was the richest a man dare not stand on one foot any length of time lest one leg become longer than the other and bother him in walking. It certainly looks as though Nebraska would hold the champion belt as "treeplanting state" for reports from nurseries in this as well as other states would indicate that orders for trees are larger and more numerous this season than ever before. Let the good work go on. No investment of money will enhance the value of property so much and give such good returns as that put in trees and in their proper care and cultivation.

And now Christian Britain prays this United States to break the Cretan blockade which she herself helps to maintain. Well, the sight of a pocket-book always did tempt Britain more than the sense of right. It should be made a matter of public knowledge that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will speedily cure piles of the longest standing. It is the household favorite for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sores of all kinds. C. L. Cotting. PERSONAL.—The gentleman who annoyed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing will find instant relief by using One Minute Cough Cure, a speedy and harmless remedy for throat and lung troubles. C. L. Cotting. The first issue of "The Daily Scorpion, a bright and newsy daily paper published at Mena, Arkansas, with F. P. Shields, formerly of this city as editor, found its way to our table this week. The Scorpion is a bright and newsy paper and we bespeak for Mr. Shields success in his new venture. McNutt, 1044 Union Ave., Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. M. E. Patmor who has been visiting in the city from Santa Anna, California, presented John Foster with a present which he values highly, it being a star fish which the lady captured herself in Lagoon Lake. It is in the shape of a star and from a distance looks more like something which grew from plant life than having come from the water. Last Sunday morning about 8 o'clock fire was discovered in the Bon Ton bakery. An alarm was turned in but the services of the department were not required as a few buckets of water in time saved what might have been impossible for the entire department to save in ten minutes more. The fire started from a defective fuse and started between the inside and outside walls of the building. The Kansas Farmer says: "Next summer when the bugs are eating up the vines, stick a cob in the hill of melon and squash vines and pour some coal oil on it. We are not an expert gardener but we think the Farmer, probably through a "rush of job work" or some other unknown cause, forgot to add "and set fire to the oil." This may not have been the Farmer's idea but it is a suggestion on our part. It would be sure death to the bugs.
