

TURKS SURROUNDED.

GREEKS IN THE REAR OF PASHA'S ARMY.

Thirty Thousand Men Facing the Sultan's Command at Larissa, and 40,000 Seeking to Cut Off His Supplies—Greek Success in Epirus.

LONDON, April 23.—According to the latest advices from the seat of the Greco-Turkish war, 35,000 Turks under Edhem Pasha have captured Tyrnavo and are within an hour's march of Larissa, but are confronted by 30,000 Greeks desperate but well nigh exhausted by their unceasing fighting since the war began.

Thus the situation of the Greeks would seem to be desperate, but it is declared that Crown Prince Constantine weakened the forces about the headquarters in order to send 20,000 Greeks to the rear of the Turks with the intention of cutting off their line of retreat and base of supplies. A portion of this army has as its objective point the Salonica railroad, which is the solitary line of supplies for the Turkish army.

Has Edhem Been Outgeneraled? Thus the two armies have passed each other, each going into the enemy's country. As yet nothing has been heard of the 20,000 Greeks who are in the mountains east of Mlioussa pass, but it was reported from Athens that it the proper time this portion of the Greek army would make an important move.

The investment of Larissa was begun yesterday by two divisions of the Turkish army which arrived within an hour's march of that town, having captured the towns of Kriehora and Badji. To meet the plan of campaign of Prince Constantine, which he now seems to fully realize, Edhem Pasha has requested the porte to order the Turkish fleet hurried to the gulf of Salonica to meet the Greek vessels. The original plan of the Turkish commander was to divide his army into two portions, one of which was to try to break through at the western end of the frontier at the gulf of Arta, while the other was to force the passes commanding the approaches to Larissa, and so by different routes advance to Athens.

CHICAGO GREEKS.

Hundreds of Volunteers Going Home—Thousands Given for Their Country. CHICAGO, April 23.—Two hundred Greek volunteers will leave for Athens this evening, and as many more will follow next Monday. All day recruiting is going on in the Greek church on Kinzie street, and greenbacks, gold and silver are piled high in front of the altar. The aggregate of the collections amount to about $6,000.

Massachusetts Greeks Going Home. BOSTON, Mass., April 23.—Three hundred Greeks will leave Boston to-night for New York, to sail for Athens, Monday evening 150 more from Lowell, Lawrence, Haverhill and other Middlesex cities will leave for New York, also bound for Athens.

MOSBY'S STAGE FRIGHT.

The Noted Confederate Cavalryman Unable to Speak at a Richmond Club. RICHMOND, Va., April 23.—When it was announced that Colonel John S. Mosby, the noted ex-Confederate guerrilla, would speak at the monthly smoker of the Commonwealth club, a leading social organization, a large crowd assembled last night.

After loud calls for Mosby, who was in an ante-room, the noted cavalry leader was dragged into the room by his friends. He hid his face in his hands, and as soon as his friends released him he dashed out of the room without an explanation and remained there until his host took him home.

Electric Railway Change of Management. JOPLIN, Mo., April 23.—The Southwest Missouri Electric Railway company, operating the electric railway system connecting Joplin, Webb City, Cartersville and Carthage, Mo., and Galena, Kan., changed management to-day, and will hereafter be controlled by a Carthage syndicate who quietly bought up enough of the stock from Harrisburg, Pa., stockholders to get the controlling interest in the system.

40,000 REINFORCEMENTS.

Edhem Pasha Calls for More Help to Put Down the Greeks.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 23.—The sitting of the military commission has been continuous since yesterday at the Yildiz Kiosk. It is reported that Edhem Pasha has asked for 40,000 reinforcements, and that orders have been sent to Salonica to hasten the dispatch of the reserves to the frontier. The mobilization of forty additional battalions has been decided upon and the enrollment of volunteers is being considered.

The sturdy resistance offered by the Greeks was wholly unexpected, and the idea that the forces of Edhem Pasha would have a military promenade to Larissa has already been abandoned. Telegrams received by the Porte from the far western provinces show that the Albanian irregulars are devastating the country in many localities. The local authorities are powerless to restrain them.

An imperial irade has been issued ordering the Turkish fleet to avoid a battle at sea and remain under the protection of the fortifications.

Greek Success in Epirus.

ARTA, April 23.—All day yesterday the heavy guns in the small Turkish forts and the Greek fortifications here exchanged shots. Arta is in ruins and here and there arises the smoke of smoldering fire. Wounded Greek soldiers are everywhere. There are hastily improvised hospitals scattered about the town filled with the maimed. The Red Cross had two ambulances going yesterday morning, but one of them was shattered by a cannon ball and the wounded Greeks inside were killed. The Turks have also suffered greatly. Away off across the river they could be seen burying their dead at dawn.

Before sunrise yesterday the Ninth regiment was in line ready for work. By boat they advanced across the river into Turkish territory, forming on the far side under the high shelter of the bank. Then they charged a line of small Turkish forts in a forest. Before the Greeks had covered half the distance the forts opened fire, using five and ten pounders and rifles. The fire was well directed and effective. The Greeks fixed bayonets as they ran and swung right up to the line of fortifications in rather bad order but with a wild valor that carried them over the parapets. In a few minutes they had carried three of the forts and the Turks, after firing a few shots, fell back from the others.

Greek cavalry rode to the village of Noochoris, which was found strongly defended by Albanians. They refused to surrender. The town was swept clear with the exception of one house, which was held by forty-five Albanians. They also refused to surrender. Orders were given to fire upon them. They replied to the fire with great valor, and above the shrill rattle of the guns they could be heard singing as they fought. All but one died fighting.

After this the cavalry rode over ditches filled in places with the bodies of Turks, and, crossing an open plain, went within about a mile of the Turkish village of Kirov, where around a bend of the road came a body of Turkish cavalry, led by Ali Bey. With fine precision they wheeled into line and began a rapid fire that drove the Greeks back to the plain.

More Success in Epirus. ATHENS, April 23.—A dispatch received here from Arta to-day announces that Major Sontso, with two squadrons of cavalry, has captured three villages which were occupied by two Turkish battalions. A third squadron of cavalry has occupied Fort Salagova, on the gulf of Arta. The Turks retreated, leaving three cannon and a quantity of dynamite in the hands of the Greeks.

Offers of help are reaching the Greek government from all quarters, and the military authorities expect to have 40,000 volunteers enrolled before the beginning of next week. The Epilotes at Athens are preparing to leave that city to assist the Greeks in capturing Epirus.

Turks Close in on Larissa.

ATHENS, April 23.—The Neue Frele Presse publishes a dispatch from Constantinople saying that Edhem Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, has telegraphed to the sultan that his advance guard is within an hour's march of Larissa. The Turkish general adds that he has a force of 35,000 men with him. He estimates the Greek army opposing him to number 40,000 men and expresses the hope that the fall of Larissa "with the help of God is imminent."

Pat Murphy Knocked Out. PITTSBURG, Pa., April 23.—The ten-round fight between Jack McClelland and Pat Murphy last night at Carnegie was decided in the third round, when McClelland gave Murphy a left hand jab on the jaw, knocking him out. Up to this time honors were about even, both men fighting fast and hard.

Ex-Congressman Towed to Attend. TOPEKA, Kan., April 23.—The Free Silver League has received word from ex-Congressman Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota, who is the head of the national free silver organization, that he will be in this city June 20 to attend the silver conference.

K. of L. Seceders Return. PITTSBURG, Pa., April 23.—The Independent order of Knights of Labor is a thing of the past. For some time past arrangements have been making for the return of old district assembly No. 3 (the seceders), to the K. of L. ranks, and this evening this was consummated by the district, as a body joining the original order.

A Long Missing Doctor Returns. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 23.—Dr. J. P. Adams, who disappeared from this city a year ago and was believed to have been murdered, returned to his home in Nodaway county yesterday.

OBJECTOR HOLMAN DEAD.

Venerable Congressman Passes to Rest—Was Ill for Some Weeks.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Representative William Steel Holman of Indiana died at his home here at 2:05 o'clock this afternoon after an illness of some weeks from spinal meningitis. Up to yesterday he had been improving, but then the fatal relapse came.

Mr. Holman held the record for service in the lower house of Congress, he having been a member of sixteen Congresses. Mr. Holman was born in 1823 in Dearborn county, Indiana. Mr. Holman spent thirty-two years in the House, a period covered by the most trying times in the nation's history. His value to the country in a non-partisan sense, through his long career in the single capacity of "watch dog of the treasury" or "objector," can be computed only in the millions of dollars actually saved the tax-payers.

The late Thomas A. Hendricks said that the "great objector's" services were worth $25,000,000 a year. Mr. Holman was generally known as the "watchdog of the treasury." He was frequently chairman of the House committee on appropriations, when he held the purse strings of the government, and despite sneers about "cheese paring" and parsimony from his opponents, he was regarded by members of all parties as a most worthy and valuable man.

Mr. Holman was an indefatigable worker, and it is said that he knew every figure in the appropriation bill when a member of Congress. At night he took his work home with him, and always conducted his correspondence personally, having never fallen in the way of dictating his letters or using a typewriter. He was a Democrat of the kind that believed his party was right, no matter what the majority of his party thought about it.

It is said that Mr. Holman's "Mr. Speaker, I object," has been printed oftener in the Congressional Record than any other individual speech. He was tall and spare in form, with a tall, withered face.

DAGGER FOR ITALY'S KING.

Desperate Attempt at Assassination—The Murderer's Hand Stayed.

ROME, April 23.—A desperate attempt by a political fanatic was made this afternoon to assassinate King Humbert, but the man was seized by the guards before he had done any harm. The king left his palace at 2:30 o'clock to go to the races. A small body guard accompanied him. On the principal street of the city, a man leaped forward from the sidewalk and drawing a dagger tried to jump into the royal carriage, at the same time uttering incoherent cries. One of the guards seized the man before he could even raise his arm, and the next moment he was overpowered and disarmed.

The man gave his name as Pietro Acciarito and said that he was an iron worker out of employment. He declared that he had no accomplices. The king drove at once to the Campanella race course, apparently unmoved. There he was greeted as usual by the news of his escape became known.

A PRESIDENT FIRED AT.

Bold Attempt Made to Assassinate the Chief Magistrate of Uruguay.

MONTEVIDEO, April 23.—Yesterday afternoon an unknown who may be connected in some manner with the revolution, met President Bordaberry on a street and shot at him. The president escaped without injury and the criminal has been captured, but refuses to disclose his identity.

DEMOCRATIC POLICY.

Minority Attitude on the Tariff Bill Outlined—Will Not Unduly Delay It.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—There has been some discussion of the probable program of the Democratic members of the finance committee with reference to the tariff bill, and it is learned that, while their plans are not definitely matured, they intend to have reasonable consideration of the bill in committee, and believe that they will have the support of Senator Jones of Nevada upon any fair proposition they submit. The Democrats do not want an extended consideration in committee, but may desire to offer some amendments after they see the bill, the adoption of which they consider they would be more likely to secure in the committee than in the open Senate. It is said that in the Senate the Democratic plan is not to delay the bill any longer than is necessary, but that every senator desiring to discuss it shall have the opportunity to do so, and that such record-making votes as the Democrats think necessary shall be had. This policy the Democrats will pursue to the end.

BRITISH IN DELAGOA BAY.

Eight War Ships Enter the South Africa Port—Great Excitement.

LONDON, April 23.—A dispatch from Capetown announces that a squadron of eight British warships entered Delagoa bay yesterday evening, causing great excitement. But, according to general opinion at Capetown, only a naval demonstration is intended. A French warship is also there.

Went Crazy on the Money Question. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 23.—Hon. Voley V. Smith, ex-lieutenant governor, and one time one of the most prominent figures in Arkansas politics, died to-day at the insane asylum, where he had been confined several months. Mr. Smith became insane on the money question during the late presidential campaign.

Iowa Will Make Liqueur Again. DES MOINES, Iowa, April 23.—Yesterday the House concurred in the Senate amendment to the mollet law to allow the manufacture of liqueur in the state.

TURKEY DESPERATE.

THE SULTAN CHANGES COMMANDERS.

Osman Pasha, the Hero of Plevna, Turkey's Greatest General Displaces Edhem Pasha on the Border—Turkish Advances on Larissa Checked.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 24.—That the work of the Turkish troops on the Greek frontier has been disappointing to the Sultan and his advisers, and that the Sultan has become desperate as the result of the unexpectedly formidable resistance of the Greeks was made clear to-day when Osman Pasha, the hero of Plevna, the acknowledged greatest general of Turkey, was ordered to the front as commander-in-chief of the Turkish army, with headquarters at Ellassono, and Edhem Pasha was recalled. In addition, Saad Edin Pasha, a general of renown, was ordered to the command of the Turkish army, in Epirus displacing Ahmed Hifiz Pasha, also recalled. Seventy-two battalions of redifis, or army reserves, numbering 50,400 men, were also ordered to leave for the Greek frontier at once.

It is stated here that one of the Turkish brigades which had been pushed forward on the plains of Larissa has been unable to advance further, owing to floods caused by rain and the consequent rise of the river Salambria. Edhem Pasha telegraphed, asking for the immediate dispatch of pontoons to enable the troops to cross the river, the Greeks having blown up the bridges. These reports have had a very depressing effect here, when taken in conjunction with the formidable resistance which the Turks have met with around Tyrnavo.

Osman Pasha for sometime had tasted all the dishes served to the sultan and seen that they were carefully conveyed untouched from the kitchen to his majesty. This is one of the highest posts in Turkey.

In spite of the difficulties encountered, no doubt is felt among the Turkish military men here that the Turks will ultimately occupy Larissa, though it is admitted the task will be harder than at first imagined, the government having confidently expected to capture the Greek headquarters by Tuesday morning last.

A telegram from Mijoussa pass reports that Edhem Pasha returned to Ellassono yesterday to protect the left wing of his army and hurry the reinforcements forward. It is also positive that Tyrnavo has successfully resisted the Turks and that the Turkish advance line has retreated to Mlioussa pass. The Greeks are also bending every energy to carrying out their plan to get behind the Turks and cut the railroad to Salonica.

TURKISH STORES CAPTURED.

ATHENS, April 24.—After a bombardment of Katrina, on the gulf of Salonica, by the Greek squadron, had put to flight two battalions of Turks and the inhabitants of that place, the Greek fleet landed a detachment and found the Turks had left behind them immense stores of provisions destined for the armies of Edhem Pasha. These valuable stores had been left unprotected in the belief by the Turks that a blockade of Greece by the fleets of the powers would prevent the Greek fleet from attacking the Turkish towns in the gulf of Salonica, which are near the railroad to Salonica, and which have been used as points to land stores for the Turkish army and forward them to the front.

The capture of these stores places a serious difficulty in the path of Edhem Pasha and it is stated here that as soon as the Turkish commander-in-chief heard the news of the capture of Platamona and Katrina, he dispatched 10,000 men towards the coast of Macedonia, fearing a flank attack from the Gulf of Salonica. The Greek fleet, in returning from the capture of Katrina, bombarded the post of Litchoro.

THE PRESENT GREEK SITUATION.

LONDON, April 24.—The Greek charge d'affaires here has received a dispatch dated at Athens to-day giving the exact situation on the Thessalian frontier from a Greek standpoint. It is as follows: "In Thessaly in the direction of Reveni and Boughazi, our forces have penetrated into Turkish territory and have advanced toward Damasi.

"All the attacks of the enemy have been repulsed in the direction of Grizovalli.

"Our army has occupied a strong position at Matl, where there has been fighting since yesterday. The Turkish attacks have been repulsed.

"The Greeks had to retire from Nezeros, falling back on the banks of the Derechi, a strong position which they are now defending.

"In Epirus our army is advancing and has captured Fort Imaret, Filiplada and several villages. The Greeks have also occupied Salagova, capturing three cannon, a number of guns and a quantity of ammunition and provisions. The army is now advancing northward.—Skouzes, minister for foreign affairs."

Congressman Henderson in Bad Health. DUBUQUE, Iowa, April 24.—Congressman Henderson has been confined to his room several days with a recurrence of his old trouble in his amputated leg. His condition is such that his physicians have ordered absolute rest, bodily and mentally, for two weeks.

Irishmen Seek Freedom. QUERENTOWN, April 24.—The rush of Irish emigrants to the United States has commenced. Passage for about 2,000 of them have been booked for the present week, three-quarters of that number being young women.

AN EXCITING SESSION.

Senate Passes the Bankruptcy Bill—Speaker Reed Denounced.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The session of the Senate yesterday was one of the most eventful since Congress assembled. It opened with a proposition for an official expression of sympathy to the Greeks in their struggle with Turkey. This soon was merged into a turbulent debate over the disorganized state of the Senate, during which Senator Morgan characterized Speaker Reed as the "great white filibuster."

Later in the day, the Nelson bankruptcy bill was passed by the decisive vote of 49 to 8. Mr. Allen of Nebraska offered the resolution providing that the chief executive express the sympathy of the American people to the government of Greece. The Senator declared that the present contest was one between Christianity and paganism. At the request of Mr. Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, the resolution was referred, Mr. Davis promising speedy action.

The debate on Senate committees aroused Mr. Morgan to a speech of unusual severity. He spoke of "dictatorships" and of the subordination of public business to politics. He characterized the condition of inaction in the house of representatives as "the most gigantic and unheard of filibuster" ever attempted.

In conclusion, Mr. Morgan said that the speaker of the house, who had been known as the "great white czar," should be hereafter known as the "great white filibuster."

Another chapter to the same subject was added by Mr. Allen, who proposed a complete cessation of senate business, except to consider appropriation bills, until committees were filled. The resolution led to another heated debate, in which Messrs. Chandler, Gear and Allen participated. The resolution finally went over.

The bankruptcy bill, as passed, is the substitute framed by Mr. Nelson, of Minnesota. The success of this substitute in displacing the committee bill was a great surprise and disappointment to the judiciary committee, which had reported a comprehensive bill known as the Torrey bill. It was regarded as a personal triumph for Mr. Nelson.

The Nelson bill, as passed, provides for voluntary and involuntary bankruptcy, but the theory of its author was to free it from harshness and make it of substantial benefit to debtors and creditors. The "free homestead bill" was made the unfinished business of the Senate. A committee of fifteen Senators was named to participate in the Grant ceremonies.

LARISSA OVERCROWDED.

The Wounded Pouring in—Food and Surgical Assistance Scarce.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE GREEK ARMY, LARISSA, April 24.—The latest advices as to the situation at Demasi show that on Sunday the Turks made a sortie from the town and attacked the Greek position at Boughazi Pass and Sideropolaki. After severe fighting, the Greeks drove the Turks back across the frontier, with a loss of five guns.

Four hundred members of the Foreign Legion, including twenty-six Englishmen under Captain Birch, arrived here on Tuesday. They were received with a great demonstration, which was repeated on their departure for the front in the evening. Intense enthusiasm was caused among the Greeks when the Englishmen sang the Greek national war songs.

The estimation in which the Turks are held is shown by the stampede of the whole population on the frontier. The villages and roads to Larissa are literally blocked with fugitives, herds of cattle, horses and donkeys, women and children on foot, old women carrying chairs, beds and household gear on their backs, on donkeys, in ox wagons, and in every conceivable sort of vehicle.

Larissa is overcrowded. Food is scarce; the hospitals are full, and there is an urgent appeal for nurses and surgical assistance. The wounded are arriving hourly, and all the surgical operations must be performed without chloroform, as there is none to be had.

New Turkish Commander.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Secretary Sherman has received a brief cablegram from Minister Terrell at Constantinople stating that Osman Pasha, the old hero of the Turkish defense at Plevna, left Constantinople last night to assume command of the Turkish army in the field. The cablegram is regarded here as significant of some change of plans on the part of the Turks. The new Turkish commander held Plevna in the Russo-Turkish war of 1877 against General Skobelev and a vastly superior Russian force for two months, and only surrendered after repeated sorties had failed. He is regarded as the greatest general in Turkey to-day.

A High Railroad Official Killed.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 24.—S. T. Peuder, general freight and passenger agent of the North Carolina & Northern railway, was killed in attempting to board a moving train on that road at Lenocon yesterday afternoon.

Fatal Knock-Out Blow.

SAN JOSE, Cal., April 24.—Frank Evans, lightweight pugilist, died this morning of concussion of the brain caused by a right-hand blow on the chin, delivered by Matt Semichy, in the fourteenth round of a fight before the San Jose Athletic club. Semichy is in jail, charged with manslaughter.

His is Their Choice.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 24.—About 300 business men met in the Hollenden at noon yesterday and adopted resolutions urging the choice of Hon. M. A. Hanna to succeed himself as United States senator.

MR. SHERMAN'S ASSISTANT.

Judge Day of Canton is Appointed—Hellamy Storer Placed.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—President McKinley has decided to nominate William R. Day of Canton, Ohio, first assistant secretary of state and ex-Congressman Bellamy Storer of Ohio for minister to Belgium. These nominations were to have been sent to the Senate to-day, but owing to that body's adjournment until Monday will not go in until next week.

The filing of the office of first assistant to Secretary Sherman ends a problem that has bothered the president considerably. Mr. Storer was slated originally for this appointment, but the nomination was opposed strenuously by Senator Foraker and other Ohio Republicans who protested against it on personal and party grounds.

Judge Day, who will be named to succeed Mr. Rockhill is said to be a fine lawyer and his name has been mentioned frequently for solicitor general. He and the President are on close terms of intimacy and at the personal request of the President he recently began an inquiry as to the facts as to the death of Dr. Ruiz, an American dentist in a Spanish prison, preliminary to a visit to Cuba, where he will attend in a legal capacity the investigation by the Spanish authorities into allegations that Dr. Ruiz was murdered.

SHOT BY AN EMBEZZLER.

Chicago Clerk Kills His Employer—Then Commits Suicide.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Some time ago a shortage of $2,500 was found in the accounts of D. W. Braunschweig, private secretary and confidential clerk of Jno. H. Rapp, wholesale liquor dealer, and criminal action was begun, but he eluded the officers. Yesterday he wrote to Rapp asking for a meeting to effect a compromise. This was arranged for this morning, and Deputy Sheriff Philip Solomon was asked to be present to arrest the embezzler if a compromise should not be arranged. Braunschweig appeared promptly this morning and went with Rapp to the latter's private office, the deputy sheriff remaining outside. Soon the talking became loud and angry and the officer started for the door, but before he could reach it two shots were fired in rapid succession. Bursting open the door, the officer found both men lying on the floor dead, with bullet holes in their temples and a revolver clutched in Braunschweig's right hand.

HAIL AND HIGH WIND.

Severe Storm Mixes Things Up Near Newton, Kan.

NEWTON, Kan., April 24.—A small tornado, accompanied by hail, passed a mile west of Newton last evening at 9 o'clock. Its path was a mile and a half long and a hundred yards wide. It struck William Apsley's residence, one mile southwest of the city, and completely demolished it. The escape of the family was miraculous, the wife and children being hurried with a bed a distance of a quarter of a mile. A half mile further on, northeast of the city, F. L. Bartheles's orchard was uprooted and his house badly wrecked. The Dr. G. Boyd farm residence was next in the path, a quarter of a mile away. It was totally destroyed, and J. W. Weams and wife, the occupants, badly injured. Mr. Weams' arm was broken, and Mrs. Weams was rendered unconscious. The home of J. C. Chandler, close by, was also raised from the ground. A little daughter of Mr. Chandler was injured slightly. The storm appeared to rise at this point, and did no further damage.

REPUBLICANS YIELD.

The Proposition of the Opposition as to the Committees Accepted.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The Republican senators in caucus to-day decided to accept the proposition made by the opposition for the filing of the Senate committees, leaving the arrangement of the details to the steering committee.

The caucus also considered the question of filling the elective offices of the Senate and the managing committee was authorized to negotiate with the opposition to secure a division of these places. Both the secretary and the sergeant-at-arms of the Senate are Democrats and the Republicans think they should be allowed to name a man to fill one of these places. The details of this negotiation will be left to a subcommittee consisting of Messrs. McMullan, Lodge and Spooner.

WORK OF TRAINWRECKERS.

Louisville & Nashville Passenger Train Ditched—Four Men Fatally Hurt.

EVERGREEN, Ala., April 24.—A wreck occurred at Mudge's trestle, nine miles north of this place, last night, on the Louisville & Nashville railroad. The engine, mail car and two coaches of the south bound passenger were ditched. Engineer Adams, his fireman and two negroes were fatally injured, and two other negroes, believed to be tramps, were badly hurt. Four negro tramps are suspected of causing the wreck.

Miles Would Go to Greece.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—General Miles has applied for permission to go to Greece to observe the war between that country and Turkey from a military point of view. Secretary Alger has brought the matter to the attention of the president and the latter has taken the application into consideration.

Ottawa Jointists Convicted.

OTTAWA, Kan., April 24.—Jack and Art Ferguson, brothers who were arrested for running a joint, were convicted yesterday in the district court here and to-day sentenced to $100 fine and sixty days in jail each.
