

Dizzy and Faint

Troubled With Kidney Difficulty and No Appetite—Improved in Every Way Since Taking Hood's.

"I was taken suddenly with dizziness and faintness at the stomach and also with kidney troubles. My whole body seemed to be out of order. I sent at once for a physician and followed his directions with but little change. He said I had a complication of diseases and my case was hard to manage. I would get better for a day or two and then would be worse again. My appetite also failed and I had a severe headache. After the doctor said he could do nothing more for me I determined to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. In a short time after I began taking it I could do a fair day's work. It is now three years since I was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla and I am still in good health. I have a good appetite and am full of life." Mrs. EVA BRACH, Box 461, Lincoln, Kansas.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Still sugar! There has been a continual fight from the beginning of the making of the tariff bill over sugar, and it is being continued in the conference committee, which was in session all day Sunday. Every republican member of the conference committee has been pledged to secrecy concerning the conference, and the democratic members will not be allowed to know what is going on until an agreement has been reached, which will be some time this week, probably by Wednesday or Thursday. The secrets of the conference have so far been well kept, but it has leaked out that both sides are making a fight for their sugar schedule, but the house conferees are expected to win, not only because the original Dingley sugar schedule is more satisfactory to the republican press and the rank and file of the party, but because Speaker Reed has said that the house would never, under any circumstances, accept the senate sugar schedule. There is talk of attempting to act upon President McKinley's currency commission recommendation, but it is likely that immediate adjournment will follow the disposal of the tariff bill.

Although it was stated when $50,000 was appropriated by congress for the relief of destitute American citizens in Cuba, that the amount would not be a drop in the bucket, it has turned out to be much more than was needed. Just as soon as the appropriation was available, Consul General Lee was notified to go ahead with the necessary expenditures up to that amount. Reports from General Lee was submitted to the last cabinet meeting, and much to the surprise and gratification of the president and his advisers, they show that although General Lee has rendered substantial aid to every distressed American citizen who needed it and would accept, and shipped a number of them back to the United States, he had only expended $6,000.

The pressure has been so great that President McKinley has decided to modify President Cleveland's extension of the civil service rules, and the order is liable to be issued any day.

It is much easier to hatch up a congressional scheme than it is to carry it through, even when working for what is favored by a majority. Last week, the friends of the Hawaiian treaty concluded that it was advisable to get the treaty favorably reported to the senate at this session, and voted upon, if possible. As eight out of the eleven members of the committee on foreign relations are known to favor the treaty it looked like an easy matter to get the treaty favorably reported, but it wasn't as easy as it looked to be. A special meeting of the committee was called, but less than a quorum attended, and at a second meeting there was only a bare quorum present. The committee will hold another meeting this week, but it is far from certain that it will decide to report the treaty.

The report, by way of Europe, that Spain and Japan are trying to coax England to enter with them into a triple alliance for the purpose of whipping the United States into keeping its hands off of islands in both the Pacific and Atlantic oceans, has not caused anybody in Washington to lose any sleep, and it would not even if it were known to be true, instead of a bit of mid-summer silliness on the part of its originators.

No member of the senate enjoyed the respect of the newspaper men to a greater extent than did the late Senator Isham G. Harris, of Tenn., whose funeral services were conducted in the senate chamber Saturday, although he always professed to desire to have every newspaper man drawn and quartered. Nevertheless they got much useful information out of the old gentleman—at least, those did who knew how to interpret his burst of anger when he was asked about any secret action of the senate or of a committee upon which he served. A page, who had grown a little familiar in his intercourse with senators, approached Senator Harris one day and asked him in a free and easy manner if the senate had decided to adjourn until noon the next day. Turning upon the boy with a ferocious look, the irate senator said: "Yes and immediately after we adjourn today, we shall proceed to hang every impertinent page on this floor." The page was said to have been nearly frightened into a spasm. Notwithstanding an affected gruffness of manner, Senator Harris was personally popular and no man stood higher in the political councils of his party. Bad health prevented his taking any part in this session of congress.

A Sick Woman.

Mrs. C. C. Miller, 1314 South Fourth street, Columbus, Ohio, writes in a letter dated July 21st, 1898: "For ten or fifteen years I have been subject to nervous dyspepsia. I would have spells of quivering in my stomach, with smothering feelings. My nerves were terribly debilitated. I was suffering from what is called nervous prostration.

My stomach felt bloated, and I was constantly weak and trembling. I consulted several physicians, who treated me without doing me any good. I had almost given up in despair when I heard of Pe-r-u-na. It was about six years ago that I first took Pe-r-u-na. I found it an immediate relief to all my disagreeable symptoms. It is the only medicine that has been of any use to me."

Any woman who desires can obtain Dr. Hartman's latest book, written especially for women. This book will be sent free of charge for a short time, and contains in chaste language all that a woman ought to know of herself. Address the Pe-r-u-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio.

Wouldn't Be Disturbed Here.

Here is a little sarcasm that has been appearing in the country press. A superstitious subscriber who found a spider in his paper wants to know if it is to be considered a bad omen. Nothing of the kind. The spider was merely looking over the columns of the paper to see what merchants were not advertising, so it could spin a web across the door and be free from disturbance.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all the grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over one-fourth as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. Use and see per package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

Rheumatism

Is a blood disease and only a blood remedy can cure it. So many people make the mistake of taking remedies which at best are only tonics and cannot possibly reach their trouble. Mr. Asa Smith, Greencastle, Indiana, says: "For years I have suffered with Sciatic Rheumatism, which the best physicians were unable to relieve. I took many patent medicines but they did not seem to reach my trouble. I gradually grew worse until I was unable to take my food or handle myself in any way; I was absolutely helpless. Three bottles of S.S.S. relieved me so that I was soon able to move my right arm; before long I could walk across the room, and when I had finished one dozen bottles was cured completely and am as well as ever. I now weigh 170."

A Real Blood Remedy.

S.S.S. cures Scrofula, Cancer, Eczema, and any form of blood troubles. If you have a blood disease, take a blood medicine—S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) is exclusively for the blood and is recommended for nothing else. It forces out the poison matter permanently. We will send to anyone our valuable books. THE ROYAL WAY.

High-Born Dames Carry Their Own Bedding on Their Travels.

Few royal folks when traveling require their bedsteads and bedroom furniture to form a portion of their luggage, as the queen does, for instance. But many great ladies there are who carry their own beds and bed linen, blankets and quilts, and always a mackintosh sheet to spread over the lack of sufficient airing in transit from place to place. Grand Duke Paul of Russia, it is true, is always, when traveling, accompanied by a bedstead, which he has had built in sections, and which is put up by a special mechanic, under the superintendence of the royal valet, wherever the grand duke goes, but then it is simply because he can seldom, owing to his great height, meet with one long enough for his comfort, says the Philadelphia Press.

It does not appear to be generally known that among the servants of the queen are two bearing the title of her majesty's tapissiers. One of them follows the court wherever it may be, and the other remains permanently at Windsor. The duty of these functionaries is to superintend the packing of the queen's baggage when the court migrates, and their work is so perfectly organized that every member of the establishment concerned knows almost to a minute when he or she must be ready to receive a visit from the packer. It is also the duty of the tapissiers to maintain communication from palace to palace with reference to all matters which cannot be brought within the limits of the royal mail boxes; to know by heart all railway and steamship routes, and to be able to convey any desired article from one place to another by the swiftest and safest method.

NATURAL COKE.

It is Claimed There is a Deposit of It in the State of Utah.

In works of mineralogy it is learned that there is such a product as natural coke, but so far as known there has but one deposit of this commodity been found in the United States, and this was in the vicinity of Richmond, Va.

Although the deposits of coal in Utah are immense in their proportions, it was never dreamed that among its commodities of trade and commerce the state could boast of beds of this natural coke, but such is the case, however, and the Salt Lake Herald is informed that a short time ago a vein of this coke had been discovered in a section of the country about 140 miles south of this city, and within 15 miles of a railroad.

This deposit crops out on the surface for some distance, and a 25 to 30-foot tunnel has disclosed a body of coke that is all of five feet in width, and there is every reason to believe that with depth the size of this deposit will increase. In quality the coke is all that could be desired, and at the assay offices at which it has been tested the statement is made that it is a pure article, and that it is even superior to the manufactured coke, as it is entirely free from sulphur, bitumen, and that it gives out no smoke when burned, and makes less ash than the manufactured article.

The new find, which is considered as being among the most valuable that has been made in the state, is owned and controlled by ex-Mayor R. N. Baskin and several other Salt Lake gentlemen, who have located 600 acres in the immediate vicinity of the discovery.

FORGET THEIR CHANGE.

Men in a Hurry to Get Away After Making Their Purchases.

A man entering a State street bookstore, made several small purchases, threw down a dollar bill to pay for them, and as soon as his package was handed to him turned to go out. The clerk called after him, says the Chicago Times-Herald.

"Hi, there! Don't you want your change?" and he handed the customer the best part of his dollar.

"That happens every day," said the clerk, "and we give quite an amount at the end of the year to charitable organizations from the fund created by change that has not been called for. It seems as if customers have only one idea, and that is to get their goods and go away."

"Do they ever come back for the change?"

"Very rarely, and then it is always for change that was left somewhere else. I often wonder how such people get through the world. And another funny thing is, the customer never seems to expect the change when we offer it to them, that is after he has forgotten it. You saw how that man looked when we called him back—just as if I was making him responsible for some other man's mistake. It takes all kind of people to make a world."

Sinking of Cape Cod.

The Boston Transcript refers to the recent indications that Cape Cod is gradually sinking or wearing away. A few days ago workmen at the Provincetown pumping station found, 17 feet below the level of the surface of the ground and six feet below the sea level a four-inch stratum of mold composed of decayed leaves, fibrous matter, and fragments of tree trunks and branches. This would seem to indicate the land has sunk, for fresh water is found on the cape at a level about equal to the sea level at mean tides.

Duffey, of 631 Orchard St., Toledo, Ohio, "I overworked myself, was in such a condition sleep was impossible. I was so nervous I could not lie in bed; my arms and limbs twitched and my system seemed completely exhausted. I began using Dr. Miles' Nerve and the fourth bottle restored me to health. Mrs. Duffey had suffered for eighteen years with heart disease, had tried every remedy without avail until she took Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure two years ago.
