Severe Attack of Dyspepsia Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla - A Skin Disease From Childhood.

"Since we came to North Dakota we have never had occasion to call a physician. We take Hood's Sarsaparilla for all our ailments. About three years ago my husband had the misfortune to strain his stomach by heavy lifting. This brought on dyspepsia and he suffered very much, especially at night, and he could not sleep. He decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and after using two bottles he was completely cured. He was also gratified to find that Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved him of a roughness of the skin with which he had been troubled from childhood." Mrs. JOHN ABRAMS, Pembina, N.D.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy a substitute. Insist upon Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Pills are tasteless, mild and effective. Sold by all druggists, $1.00 per box.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Senator Platt, of Connecticut, who is regarded as one of the most influential republican members of the senate committee on finance, and a man who very seldom allows himself to be quoted in the newspapers, has, in a short interview, given a pointer, not only to the gentlemen composing the self-appointed monetary conference, but to the administration. Mr. Platt didn't beat around the bush at all, but stated in the fewest possible words that so far as practical results are concerned, it will simply be a waste of time, to propose and discuss a currency measure at the coming session of congress, owing to the supporters of the administration lacking a majority in the senate. There was nothing new in Senator Platt's words, but inasmuch as the memory of the public is proverbially short and many persons, in and out of print, have been seriously discussing the sort of financial legislation congress is likely to give us at the coming session, it is well that they were spoken, and will be better if they are heeded and no time wasted in useless efforts to compel the opposition senate to accept financial measures favored by the administration or by others.

Representative Hooker, of New York, says of the coming session of congress: "It ought to be short. There is nothing to demand an extended sitting. I think that the Cuban and Hawaiian questions will, in a way settle themselves, and certainly ought not to take up much time in congress. There will be an effort made by extremists to change our monetary system, but a majority of congressmen are conservative, and, unless it is shown, beyond all question that such a change is desirable, and for the good of the whole country, our finances will be left as they are. In my opinion, it is better that they should be left alone. We are getting on very well, and agitation is unnecessary and hurtful."

Commissioner of Pensions Evans, not only fails to predict, as his predecessors in that office did, an early decrease in the number of pensions paid by this government, but calls attention to the failure of such predictions. At the close of the fiscal year, June 30, there were 978,014 pensioners on the rolls, a net increase in a year of 5,236. The annual report of the commissioner doesn't say so, but all the same, it is reasonably certain that the net increase of pensioners for the current fiscal year will be much larger than during the last fiscal year, owing to the change of policy in the conduct of the pension bureau, which now gives preference to applications for original pensions. The commissioner makes two recommendations, which seem to be in line with everyday business sense. First, that a complete list of the names and addresses of pensioners be published, and second, that congress make it illegal for the widows of veterans of the late war who marry after this time to draw pensions. The last is intended to break up the demoralizing practice, the extent of which is extraordinary, of women marrying the old soldiers when they are on their death-beds, solely for the purpose of drawing a widow's pension. Under existing laws, pensions cannot be denied to these women, even when they are known to be disreputable. Washington is likely to see much of the wire pulling that will be done by the republicans who would like to succeed Senator Gorman, as at least three of the gentlemen spend practically all their time at the national capital. Those who would like to be senators from Maryland are Postmaster General Gary, Judge McComas, of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, and Representative Mudd. Governor Lowndes, who is also credited with a desire to sit in the senate, likewise spends considerable time in Washington, being a member of the famous Metropolitan Club. Neither of these gentlemen has formally announced himself to be a candidate for the senate, but they are each being pushed for the position, by friends, and there are others who would not object to the plum.

The treaty between the United States, Japan, and Russia, by which it is agreed that the killing of seals in open sea in Behring Sea and the north Pacific ocean shall be temporarily suspended having been signed by the representatives of the several governments the work of the first sealing conference is closed and this week the second conference, between the United States, Great Britain and Canada, will meet. Interest has been increased in this conference by the intimation that the Canadian officials intend to try to negotiate a treaty which will include some sort of commercial reciprocity between the United States and Canada. If President McKinley and other prominent Ohio republicans in Washington take any stock in the numerous stories appearing in print, alleging the existence of serious doubt of the election of Senator Hanna by the Ohio legislature, they hide it well, for to a man they insist that Senator Hanna's election is assured.

A. S. Murray and Wife

Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

M. MURRAY, engineer for Keet & Bountree Mercantile Co., Springfield, Mo., writes: "I suffered from dyspepsia, was unable to eat anything without severe distress. Treated by several physicians without benefit. I became almost a physical wreck and unable to attend to my work. I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and in six weeks I was well. My wife had a severe attack of La Grippe which brought on troubles peculiar to her sex. The Restorative Nervine is the only thing that has helped her. We both hope you will use this in a way to help others as we have been." Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Tedious Work of old bookmakers. During the twelfth and thirteenth centuries monks frequently isolated themselves from the world and reproduced the Bible in illuminated manuscript. The work was necessarily slow and in no instance was it accomplished in less than 35 years. Guido de Jarr was a producer of the illuminated manuscripts and a beautiful specimen of his work was sold along with the books of Sir W. Burrell in 1796. This copy of the Bible had occupied half a century in its production. A note in the beginning of the manuscript in Jarr's handwriting indicates that he began his task in 1244 and did not conclude it till 1294.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Miss Maud McCune was a pleasant visitor with friends in the high room Wednesday. Class meeting! Any evening all over the building. Must be something in the breeze. "Die Deutsche do maka die classa schwent," is the way a certain little harmless sentence sounds. Lecture! "Senior Dignity," November 10, 12:07 p.m. More delivered from time to time as occasion requires. Found—"Vol. II, Redpath's History of the World," among the books of the high school. It is a valuable book and owner should claim it. The 12th grade held a very pleasant class party and business meeting at the home of Miss Dora Groat last Friday evening. It seems they are bound to keep the social griddle hot. The next evening after election the pupils in Mrs. Case's room went to her home to rejoice with her over her success and were highly entertained until an hour reasonable for little ones to retire. The "dear old rule" has been gently enforced this week and last. We all try so hard to be good but the "darning sophs" carry off the plums. You know some folks are so good that they could not be bad if they wanted to and we believe their "sponcity" is on somewhat the same principle as when "Washington didn't because he couldn't tell a lie." Every once or twice in a while the high room pupils astonish the world by doing something terrible, but indeed last week they eclipsed all acts on record by attending so well as to gain No. 2. The pupils all thought it was fine but a few who might be termed a trifle pessimistic look at in the light that a "Miss"—(just outside the door)—"is as bad as" (tho' she were distant) "a mile."

MOUNTFORD—SCRIVNER. On Wednesday, Nov. 10th, 1897, at the home of Rev. G. W. Hummel, one mile and a half south of this city, at 4 p.m. Miss Edith Scrivner and Mr. Samuel Mountford were united in marriage, Rev. Hummel performing the ceremony. The bride is one of the most accomplished and popular young ladies and also a successful teacher, of Smith county, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. Scrivner. She is very highly esteemed by her large circle of admiring friends and will make a worthy helpmate to her husband. The groom is an excellent young man well and favorably known here who follows farming as an occupation and is one of Kansas' best farmers. He is the son Geo. Mountford. Samuel is very popular and is highly esteemed by all and is well worth the excellent lady he has won. We extend congratulations.

GETTING READY Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not got ready for it, there is no telling what may happen. Child-birth is full of uncertainties if Nature is not given proper assistance.

Mother's Friend is the best help you can use at this time. It is a liniment, and when regularly applied several months before baby comes, it makes the advent easy and nearly painless. It relieves and prevents morning sickness, relaxes the overstrained muscles, relieves the distended feeling, shortens labor, makes recovery rapid and certain without any dangerous after-effects. Mother's Friend is good for only one purpose, viz.: to relieve motherhood of danger and pain. One dollar per bottle at all drug stores, or sent by express on receipt of price.
