While riding by the school house the other day, Mr. Ernest Terrel's horse took fright at a snow man which had been erected near the road, and ran into the fence, throwing Mr. Terrel over its head.

A lurge number of young folks at tended the masquerade party at Mr. Adamson's last Friday night. "There were men from every nation and maids from every clime" present. The Jew from New York, and Senater Peffer of Kansas were certainly entitled to the prizes which were duly awarded. Among the company were seen Pocahontas, The Lady of the Lake, Topsy who kept reminding the company that she just growed, a handsome young Frenchman Mr. Jeane Le Beinstein De Alivasant by name, who accompanied by a beautiful fairy led the grand march. Also a shy little quaker, Night to evangelistic or revival work. and Morning, Summer and Winter, a Swiss maid who had great difficulty in speaking English, coons and picaninnies, old men and maidens. Does That Most Dreadful of Diseases-Chronic Catarrh.

Over half of the people have catarrh in some form or another, and yet probably not a tenth of these people know that their disease is catarrh. One person says that he has Bright's disease; another liver complaint; another consumption; another female complaint. These people would be very much surprised to hear that they were all suffering with chronic catarrh; but it is so, nevertheless. Each one of these troubles, and a great many more,

Why Wemen Can't Be Masons.

At a Masonic festival in Enid, Oklahoma, toasts and responses were given after the banquet. J. C. Moore in a pleasant remark said, "That the ladies would never know until they go to Heaven why they could not be Masons." Mrs. Judge Switzer retorted in behalf of the lovelier sex "that they could not find out then as there would be no men in Heaver to tell the secret." This raised serious thoughts in the breast of the editor of the Eagle, and he is now anxiously looking for asbestos underwear for possible contingencies. -Beaver City Tribune.
