Severe Attack of Dyspepsia Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla—A Skin Disease From Childhood.

"Since we came to North Dakota we have never had occasion to call a physician. We take Hood's Sarsaparilla for all our ailments. About three years ago my husband had the misfortune to strain his stomach by heavy lifting. This brought on dyspepsia and he suffered very much, especially at night, and he could not sleep. He decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and after using two bottles he was completely cured. He was also gratified to find that Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved him of a roughness of the skin with which he had been troubled from childhood." Mrs. JOHN ABRAMS, Pembina, N. D.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

There has been no perceptible change in the situation in Washington during the past week, and unless Spain is guilty of some overt act, none is expected until the report of the naval court of inquiry has been received.

When that will be is very uncertain. Some of the Havana dispatches say that the court expects to come to Washington this week, but nothing indicating such intention has been received by the navy department or by the president.

There has been no change in the prevailing sentiment in congress—that war with Spain has got to come before the business is ended.

Congress is ready to vote the administration all the money that would be needed to put this country upon a war footing, just as soon as the president will say that he wants it done, but the president and his cabinet are of the opinion that it would be regarded by the world at large as equivalent to a declaration of war against Spain to ask congress to make a war appropriation. Still, if that were the only obstacle, congress would probably be asked to act, but there is another, and more formidable obstacle.

To ask for war appropriations in advance of the report of the naval court of inquiry would be discrediting that court by assuming what its report would be before it had been made, and would indicate a desire on the part of the administration to make a reason for going to war with Spain.

Although this is the position of the administration it is by no means idle, it is making every preparation for war that is possible in advance of appropriations by congress, and is even making some preparations, on the advice of the leading members of congress, that would not under ordinary circumstances be justifiable in advance of appropriations.

It is the belief of Secretary Long and other prominent officials that the constantly reported buying of warships by Spain are largely the work of European shipbuilders who have vessels on hand which they would gladly sell to the U. S. at war prices.

Secretary Long positively denies the statement that the U. S. was contemplating securing options upon any. Of course, he ought to know, but all the same nobody around Washington will be greatly surprised when the shooting begins to and the Stars and Stripes floating above a number of formidable vessels which are not now supposed to belong to Uncle Sam.

Not even the probability of war with Spain can lessen popular interest in a little pamphlet that has just been published by the U. S. geological survey, by direction of a joint congressional resolution. This pamphlet contains forty-four pages of authentic descriptive matter relating to the gold regions of Alaska, practical information for prospectors and miners, and maps of the Forty Mile and Klondike gold-mining regions, showing at a glance all of the known gold bearing rocks. Those who desire copies of this pamphlet would better lose no time in writing to a senator or representative for it, as only 10,000 have been printed. They will be distributed gratis by the senators and representatives.

The report of the civil service commission recommends that all deputy collectors of internal revenue, storekeepers and gaugers, and all deputy collectors of customs shall be removed from the classified service; and says that the government printing office was never legally placed within the classified service and is not now, by right, in the classified service.

The decision of Speaker Reed that debate in the house, when sitting as a committee of the whole, shall be confined to the subject matter of the bill under consideration, tumbled over a long line of precedents. Mr. Reed is getting roundly abused for the decision by his political opponents, but if the decision be lived up to without partially, there is not the slightest doubt that it will facilitate the disposition of public business by the house. And the great appropriation and revenue bills will afford ample legitimate opportunities for making political speeches.

The government has increased its reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the murderers of the colored postmaster and his child at Lake City, S. C., to $1,500 in each case, and has put some of the best detective talent in the employ of the postoffice department and of the department of justice to work on the case.

The senate passed the bill extending the homestead laws to Alaska, and providing for the right of way of railroads in Alaska, without a division, although there was objection from Pacific coast senators to privileges extended by the bill to Canadian railroads.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

This remedy is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good works; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured; of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the children. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it robs the disease of all dangerous consequences. It is especially prized by mothers for their children, as it never fails to effect a speedy cure, and because they have found that there is not the least danger in giving it, even to babies as it contains nothing injurious. Sold by H. E. Grice.

Rheumatism

Is a blood disease and only a blood remedy can cure it. So many people make the mistake of taking remedies which at best are only tonics and cannot possibly reach their trouble. Mr. Asa Smith, Greencastle, Indiana, says: "For years I have suffered with Sciatic Rheumatism, which the best physicians were unable to relieve. I took many patent medicines but they did not seem to reach my trouble. I gradually grew worse until I was unable to take my food or handle myself in any way; I was absolutely helpless. Three bottles of S.S.S. relieved me so that I was soon able to move my right arm; before long I could walk across the room, and when I had finished one dozen bottles was cured completely and am as well as ever. I now weigh 170."

A Real Blood Remedy.

S.S.S. cures Scrofula, Cancer, Eczema, and any form of blood troubles. If you have a blood disease, take a blood medicine—S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) is exclusively for the blood, and is recommended for nothing else. It forces out the poison matter permanently. We will send to anyone our valuable books.
