While Perley Hathway was explaining the workings of a repeating shotgun to an interested crowd of spectators in Watt's restaurant Thursday evening, the gun (which of course was not loaded), went off, boring a hole in the door casing that you could throw a cat through, but fortunately no one was hurt.—Guide Rock Signal.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, and constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—JOSH. EDGAR, Germantown, Cal. For sale by H. E. Grice.

We are glad to announce that A. H. Cray has recovered so well from his severe attack of hemorrhage of the stomach after close confinement at the residence of John McCallum for over six weeks, to attempt the journey via Edgar and Superior to his home at Guide Rock in company with his wife and son, J. H. He was conveyed to the train by John and J. H. McCallum. We hope he arrived home feeling none the worse for the long journey.—Bladen Enterprise.

"Bartlett's Road to Seltzerville," Mr. John Dillon's new play is clean, wholesome and very funny. It contains no impossible villain or villainy. The mishaps and adventures that cause dear Uncle Jolly and his friends worry and excitement are caused by gossiping and mischievous busybodies, whom you will recognize as acquaintances, for every community is afflicted by some such—though Heaven be praised they are small in number. Go and see how much trouble can be caused by two seemingly pleasant friends. Mr. Dillon will present his new play at the opera house, Saturday, April 9th.

The Kansas circuit of the United Norwegian Lutheran church will hold its semi annual meeting at Zion Norwegian Lutheran congregation on Farmer's creek, Webster county, Nebraska, March 31 to April 3, 1896, inclusive. The opening exercises will begin with a sermon at 10 a. m. on March 31st, and the afternoon and the following two days will be devoted to discussion. In evening meetings will be held in the Norwegian and English languages. In connection with the circuit meeting the laying of the corner stone and dedication of the new Lutheran church will occur (as far as is now known) on Friday, April 2d, Rev. H. C. Holm of Eagle Grove, Iowa, officiating. All guests intending to be with us those days will be cared for as far as our means reach free of charge. Every-body cordially invited.—H. L. BERG, Pastor.

Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by H. E. Grice.

How to keep the neighbors hens out of the garden is a question that perplexes many. A man who doesn't raise chickens makes the following suggestion: Take a lot of small stiff cards, about 1x2 inches; write on them "Keep your darned chickens at home." Tie a short string to each card, with a grain of corn at the other end of the string, and scatter them where the hens congregate. When the hungry biddy gobbles up the grain that draws the prize, she follows up the string stowing it away until she comes to the card. Then you will see her pull out for home carrying in her mouth your polite request.

As per bill signed "Many Citizen" a caucus was to have been held in the opera house on Monday evening, but owing to the inclement weather these "many citizens" met on Wednesday evening and nominated the following ticket: Mayor, Geo. J. Warren; clerk, L. E. Tait; treasurer, H. E. Grice; police judge, J. Porter Jr.; alderman 1st ward, W. A. Sherwood; alderman 2d ward, Fred Bradbrook; members of the board of education, Henry Cook and Geo. O. Yeiser. It will be noticed that with but two exceptions the nominations are republican. The people will most likely find out before election that most of the ticket has been put up as a blind with but one end in view.

Weak Lungs
If you have coughed and coughed until the lining membrane of your throat and lungs is inflamed,
Scott's Emulsion
of Cod-liver Oil will soothe, strengthen and probably cure. The cod-liver oil feeds and strengthens the weakened tissues. The glycerine soothes and heals them. The hypophosphites of lime and soda impart tone and vigor. Don't neglect these coughs. One bottle of the Emulsion may do more for you now than ten can do later on. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.
